Mrs. George Buland Quits Race for Presidency

Club Women to Vote on Officers This Morning

The nomination of officers to head the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs for the next two years promised to be a bit exciting Wednesday afternoon at the regular session held in the house of representatives of the Oregon state capitol until Mrs. George Buland, veteran clubwoman of Oregon, withdrew from the race after the prolonged applause fol-Towing the nomination of Mrs. Charles Bilyeu of Dallas by Mrs. Ivan Martin of Salem, in a fiery speech, which intimated that for the good of the federation a president should be elected from some other section than Portland in view of the fact that Portland had had the presidency for seven Palmer, Newberg, financial secretary; Mrs.

Seymour Jones, Salem, auditor. The corresponding secretary will be appointed by the president and the two directors heretofore nominated will, through the revision made in the constitution Wednesday afternoon, be dropped and in their place the presidents of the five districts become the board of directors. These women are Mrs. Williams, Medford, district 1; Mrs. C. H. Horton, Eugene, second district; Mrs. William F. Fargo, Salem, third district; Mrs. H. G. Cooper, Hood River, fourth district; Mrs. Lois Smith, Burns, fifth district.

TOKYO, May 15-(Thursday)—(AP)—The Japanese government, it be came known today takes a serious view of the notification Tuesday of China's nationalist government at Nanking ordering the commander of the Manchurian sea force to halt all vessels entering or leaving Tientsin in order to prevent arms and runitions from reaching the northern military alliance which has rebelled against the Nanking regime.

It was learned from apthoritative sources that Tokyo intends soon to reply to Nanking alleging that such action would infringe on Japanese rights under international law and warning that overt incidents arising from the order would create a serious situation.

Senate Passes Bill Placing Authority on Justice Department

Hoover Expected to Receive Measure Within Next Few Days

WASHINGTON, May 14 .- (AP) After brief debate, the senate today passed the administration bill transferring prohibition enforcement from the treasury to the justice department.

The first of the Hoover law enforcement program measures to get through both branches of congress was returned to the house for concurrence in some minor amendments and the bill is expected to reach the White House within a few days.

The heralded wet and dry debate in the senate which was expected to explode when this bill gained consideration failed to develop.
