EVERYONE RAVES ABOUT PRETTY HAIR SINCE I USED LEA'S TONIC
My Hair Was Falling Out and It Was So Gray and Thin That I Was Worried
AGED 55 NOW HAIR IS NO LONGER GRAY

"I think every woman in the world who is turning gray or losing her hair should know about this wonderful Lea's Hair Tonic which they are advertising now," declared Mrs. J. A. Preston, N. W. Station, Box 52, Detroit, Mich. "I work as a clerk in a popular store here in Detroit and appearance is everything, especially at my age of 55 years. You can imagine how badly I felt. My hair was falling and was getting terribly thin. I turned gray rapidly and my scalp itched and really my friends were noticing it. Lucky for me a friend of mine in Washington, Ind., recommended Lea's Hair Tonic, which I couldn't get in the drug stores of Detroit. She told me such wonderful things about Lea's I wrote for it and after using the first bottle I sent for six more and thanks to Lea's my hair is thick, full of life and lustre and back to its original color. I haven't a gray hair in my head and everybody raves about my hair being so pretty. I am 55 and my hair is real black the same as when I was a girl," writes Mrs. Preston, who like thousands of others have been pouring in letters of praise to Mrs. Lea, since she began introducing her remarkable hair preparation down in Tampa, Fla. "Anyone it seems may get the same results. In fact the Lea Tonic Co., Brentwood, Md., guarantees money back without quibble or question if it fails to delight any user. Local druggists are featuring Lea's Hair Tonic. Easy to apply at home by rubbing a few drops into the scalp with finger tips. Change is so gradual experts do not detect. Pleasant and of course doesn't stain. Daily applications a few weeks, works the magic—then occasional use year after year keeps hair beautiful, scalp invigorated, no matter how old you may be. If druggist will not obtain it for you, send dollar bill for bottle return mail to full directions. Lea Tonic Co., Brentwood, Md. Adv.

WOODBURN'S PAPER GETS NEW EDITOR

Lease of a one-half interest in the Woodburn Independent, with option to buy, was completed Thursday by Rodney W. Alden of Salem from Herbert L. Gill, editor of The Independent for more than 25 years.

Alden, telegraph editor of The Oregon Statesman, will edit The Independent beginning with the next issue but will remain at his Statesman work until June 1 when with his wife and child, he will remove to Woodburn to make his home.

Mr. Gill, one of the ranking editors of the Oregon press in years of service, will make a month's vacation tour throughout California and then will return to Woodburn. His only connection with The Independent will be in an advisory capacity.

Wayne Gill, half-owner of The Independent, will continue as business manager.

The Woodburn paper was established 44 years ago by Judge L. H. McMahan who later removed to Salem and published McMahan's Wasp.

Alden, a graduate of the school of liberal arts at Willamette in 1923, received a degree in law in 1927. For the past two years he has conducted a law practice in this city in addition to his newspaper work. He served three years on the Capital Journal and three years on The Oregon Statesman.

$12,000 DAMAGES IS ASKED IN SUIT
Twelve thousand dollars in damages is asked by Albert Dunifer in a suit launched Thursday in circuit court against E. S. Porter. Virtually complete failure to comply with a contract made by the defendant with Dunifer is held by the latter as reason for the damages.

AWARDS ARE GIVEN FOR ATTENDANCE
Certificates for attendance are given to districts which have 95 or more per cent of the pupils present for any month. Only eight districts earned certificates for each of the eight months, these having records ranging from 95 to 100 per cent. They are: Fern Ridge, Brush Creek, Looney Butte, White, Central Howell, Hazel Dell, Mt. Angel and Salem Heights.

Twenty districts had every pupil present every day for one of the eight months. These schools were: Labish Center, Macleay, Porter and Brush Creek, Looney Butte, Waconda, Mission, McKee, Roberts, McAlpin, Burnsville, Gravel, Oak Glenn, Silver Falls, Oakdale, Maplewood, Brier, Nob, Hullt and Victor Point.

Two schools, Fern Ridge and Taylor, had hundred per cent records for two months.
