Women's Club Convention is Brought to Conclusion Here Yesterday

Linton thanking the Salem Women's club and the Etoika club for Salem hospitality, extended to the convention members.

The resolution to abolish the custom whereby the members of the hostess club opened their homes to convention delegates was lost. The reason for its defeat was the hardship which would be worked on smaller clubs to furnish finances to delegates if free housing was not given.

No invitation was extended for the next convention which will be held two years from this date. No official action was taken on the old age pension bill, the mother's aid bill, the free textbook bill and billboard bill which was debated Tuesday night, but Mrs. G. M. Gilnes requested that all delegates carry the arguments to their home clubs, and when the bills came up in the next session of the state legislature that serious consideration should be given them, if possible in accordance with the action taken on them at the present convention. The convention indicated an affirmative attitude toward the adoption of each bill.

The Volstead act came up for an expression from the convention members and was supported by an emphatic vote, save and except one lone member who, courageously voted "no."

It was announced that Mrs. George Gerald Root would fill a vacancy left by death in the scholarship loan committee. Reports given Thursday morning were by Mrs. M. H. Lamond of Portland, chairman of the cooperative war veterans; Mrs. Lulu D. Crandall's report on Indian relics; and an enlightening talk given by Mrs. Earl Hobbs on the subject of planning a community.

Mrs. G. J. Frankel gave an interesting report on the official magazine, "The Oregon Club Woman."

Des Anderson Will Be Billed On Mat Again

Des Anderson, who still rules as Salem's favorite grappler despite the array of colorful bone crushers who have appeared here in recent weeks, will resume his place as a headliner on the wrestling bill next Wednesday night, when he meets Ernie Archer, of Trail, B. C., holder of the Canadian and Northwest Pacific middleweight championship belts.

Anderson announces that he has recovered from the injury he suffered in a match with Wildcat Pete at Astoria recently, and his condition is affirmed by the showing he made in recent matches in the Puget Sound country.

STUDENTS NOMINATED

Florence Decker, Lillian Beecher, Charles Campbell, and Ray Lufky were nominated for places on the forensic council of the Willamette student body Thursday. Election will be next Wednesday.

ORATORS WILL VIE IN CORVALLIS MEET

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, May 15 — Orators from eight western colleges including Oregon State will compete here May 21 in the championship meet of the 10 western states in the national intercollegiate contest on the constitution. The winner of the event will receive $400 and will be entered in the national finals where $5000 in cash prizes will be distributed.

Denver Garner of Oregon State college won the right to represent Oregon in the contest. He will compete against Frank Ford, University of Utah; J. L. Goddard, U. C. L. A.; J. P. O'Conner, College of Puget Sound; H. F. Dobbins, St. Mary's college, Oakland; H. F. Petree, Jr., Pomona college; Hagan Moore, Gooding college, Idaho; and Yale McAtee, State Teachers college, Ariz.

POPULATION IS TOLD IN HISTORIC CITIES

WASHINGTON, May 15—(AP)—The census takers tally today revealed the modern status of three of America's most historic cities—St. Augustine, Florida, Plymouth, Mass., and Alexandria, Virginia.

showed marked increases, but Plymouth decreased .995 per cent. A fourth city, Henry Ford's Dearborn, very new but specializing in accumulating and reproducing ancient Americana, showed the second highest percentage of increase of any city more than 10,000 population thus far reporting.

Dearborn, totaling 50,060, increased 1926.7 per cent over its 1920 population of 2,470, coming closest thus far to Beverly Hill's record of 2,488 per cent.

ALL COLLECTIONS OF PROHIS LISTED

WASHINGTON, May 15.—(AP)—Records showing the collection of $5,553,588 during the past 11 years by the anti-saloon league of America were made public today by the senate lobby committee.

The committee also made public a list of contributors of $1,000 or more to the league since 1927. It disclosed that the Hershey Foundation of Detroit was the largest contributor, giving $106,250 since 1928.

In 40 years. On the 1929 basis, it would have been possible to place $37,969.96 in the sinking fund that year, which would mean paying off the bonds in less than a third of the time proposed.

Still another factor purposely ignored by the company is the steadily increasing use of water and consequent increase in revenue, which would more than balance the need for improvements and extensions.

Users Foot, Bill In Any Event
No matter whether the city or the company owns the water system, the water users of Salem will pay the cost. If the city would have faced a deficit in 1929, it is logical to assume that the company did face a deficit; it cannot borrow money any more cheaply than the city. No such claim has been made.

Summer Sale to Be Put on Here

Introducing a "summer sale" with a double page ad in this issue of The Statesman, the local Montgomery Ward store announces that it is part of a campaign in 550 retail stores of the concern. The expenditure for advertising this sale will cost approximately half a million dollars, virtually all spent in local newspapers over the country.

also where she found employment in a laundry and Pitt, who was a logger, spent part of his time at work and the remainder at the apartment of the two occupied.

At the end of a year Pitt grew intensely jealous and quarreled with his wife. Jacobs said that this jealousy was brought about by the woman's promiscuity.

"He told me once that she was no fit mother for the three children which she left with me," Jacobs said. "I understood him because I had some trouble with her in the same way."

"I believe he killed her in a fit of jealousy," Jacobs said. Pitt, according to Jacobs, is an even tempered man ordinarily. The dead woman was the mother of three children, two girls whose ages are four and nine, and a boy seven years old. They have been told that their mother is dead. Jacobs has remarried.

Jacobs said that his former wife was born in Vancouver, B. C. and that she has relatives living at 3255 Turner street. They are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lambert. She also has four sisters whose names he could not remember but who all live in British Columbia or Canada.

KENTUCKY DERBY TO BE RUN TOMORROW

LOUISVILLE, May 15—(AP)—The hope that springs eternal in every Kentucky turfman's breast, wherever the classic derby is concerned, rose with buoyancy today as the result of an impressive workout by Edward F. Prichard's colt, Tannery, pride of the blue grass, in preparation for Saturday's $50,000 added race at Churchill Downs for the most cherished of American three year old prizes.

Perhaps a part of this home bread enthusiasm for Tannery was due to this hope as much as to conviction. Kentuckians take this race and the desire for victory of its own to heart. Nevertheless, the Prichard colt's performance was good enough to make eastern horsemen sit up and take notice even though not sufficiently so as to dislodge the gallant Earl Sande and Gallant Fox from the rockbound position of favorite.

Tannery is considered a much better mud horse than Gallant Fox, although the Preakness winner has never really been tested on a bad track. The sun came out today after considerable rain but the forecast is for unsettled weather.

The Earl of Derby only 90 miles away at Lexington and good sized even if not record breaking crowds trekking into town, the talk is almost exclusively confined to Gallant Fox and Tannery with east once more against west in the 57th running of the historic Kentucky race.

CONTRACT BREACH MADE BASIS FOR ACTION IN COURT

Suit for damages for failure to perform a contract was filed in circuit court Thursday by W. S. Lauthers against E. M. Cooper.

The plaintiff alleges that he agreed to trade 141 acres of land on the Silverton road, one-half mile east of Salem. Lauthers was to assume a mortgage of $2500 against the larger farm.

The plaintiff claims that he fulfilled all his agreements but declared that Cooper did not provide the deed to his farm when the time came to make the transfer. Damages of $1811.50 are asked by Lauthers.

To the Women of Salem and Vicinity:
KAY'S COAT and DRESS SHOP announces a reduction of 1-3 off the prices of all COATS, DRESSES and MILLINERY (contract goods excepted). This 33 1-3% cut is to be effective starting today at 9:00 A. M.

Although it is too early in the season to per cent on new Spring and Summer apparel, we take this drastic action in view of the fact that we are greatly overstocked.

We believe this announcement to be of sufficient significance to the women of Salem and vicinity to eliminate the necessity of an elaborate advertisement.

Those of you who are acquainted with KAY'S REGULAR LOW PRICE POLICY will fully appreciate the importance of a cut of 33 1-3% off regular prices.

Sincerely,
KAY'S COAT & DRESS SHOP.
