Dinner Dance Is Attractive Event

A brilliant dinner dance entertained members of the staff of Ladd and Bush bank and additional guests in the foyer of the bank Thursday night. Covers were placed for over one hundred at tables made beautifully attractive with rare blossoms from the gardens of Miss Sally Bush. The foyer of the bank was also arranged here and there in effective places with large baskets of gray blossoms.

During the dinner hour an interesting program of vocal solos given by Mrs. Tom Galloway, Miss Nellie Schwab accompanied by Mrs. Chester Cox and Mrs. Helen Baylor, accompanied by Miss Merle Smith; a piano number by Miss Lois Burton; an accordion solo by Ben Moorman, a vocal solo and ukulele accompaniment by Howard Conklin; quartette numbers by the bank quartet, H. V. Compton, Harry Holt, Lawrence Maves and Fred Kruse; and an interesting talk by T. B. Kay. Informal talks were also made by Chester Cox, William Walton and L. P. Aldrich.

Following the dinner hour and program dancing was enjoyed. The high school orchestra which had played for the dinner hour also played for dancing. George H. Riches, Earl Daise, Howard Grimm, Lawrence Maves and Warren Powers were in charge of the evening.

Special guests for this delightful dinner dance were Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Kay, Miss Sally Bush, Mrs. Warren Truitt, of Moscow, Idaho, Miss Alice Brown, Miss Teresa Davis, Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre, Miss Sally Lansing, Dr. G. A. Downs, Miss Flavia Downs and Stuart Bush. A. N. Bush came in at a late hour.

High School Dance Is Jolly Affair

One of the social events in school circles this week was the junior-senior prom, given in compliment to the graduating class, Friday night in Castilian hall. It was a semi-formal affair with only juniors and sophomores admitted. Attractive floral decorations added much to the beauty of the evening and several features added much to the pleasure of the merry-makers.

Those invited to act as patrons and patronesses were Governor and Mrs. A. W. Norblad, Mayor and Mrs. T. A. Lively, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nelson and Mrs. Hockett.

New Organization To Be Discussed

A special program is being arranged for the meeting of the patrons and all interested friends of Leslie junior high school for Monday night at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the high school.

At this time Mrs. William Kleiser of Portland, vice president of the Oregon congress of Parents and Teachers will speak on the "Value of P. T. A. to the Parent and to the Teacher." Mrs. W. J. Lintfoot will be the soloist.

The real reason for the meeting will be the discussion of organizing a junior high school parent teachers' association and any and all interested in this movement are urged to be present Monday night.

Mrs. John Canse attended the Woman's Home missionary society at Oregon City Thursday. Mrs. Canse is corresponding secretary of the conference. She was accompanied by Mrs. E. C. Miller who is junior secretary of children's work for the state of Oregon, and Mrs. Yarns.

Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. After taking friends to the theater, is it necessary to take them to dinner?

A. No.

Q. What is a big help to a hostess who is serving without a maid?

A. A tea wagon, as this can be placed near her and can hold the extra cups, silver, and anything else which would be in the way on the table.

Q. Is it permissible for a woman to travel alone in Europe?

A. Yes, as much so as in the United States.

Dinner Party Is Compliment to Salem Guest

An attractive compliment to Mrs. Warren Truitt, of Moscow, Idaho, and a house guest of Mrs. A. N. Bush was the dinner party given by Miss Alice Brown at the home of Mrs. Claudius Thayer Friday evening.

O. D. O. Club Ends Series

The series of parties which have been sponsored by the O. D. O. club this season came to an end with the affair given at the home of Mrs. E. J. Anderson Thursday afternoon. Final awards were made for high score accumulated through the series. Mrs. J. J. through the series. Mrs. J. J.

Statesman Pattern

Isn't this an adorable frock for a little miss? The tiny puffed sleeves, the dainty ruffing around neck and bottom of skirt, and the belt sash are features most becoming to youthful figures. There are bloomers, too, for the younger girls.

Pattern 1871 is darling made of voile, georgette, organdie, lawn, batiste, crepe de chine, dimity, etc. In white it would be adorable for graduation or confirmation.

For a best dress, the pastel shades are delightful. May be obtained only in sizes 4, 6, 8, and 10. Size 8 requires 3 1/2 yards of 36 inch material.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given.

Send fifteen cents in coins carefully wrapped, or stamps, for each pattern. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

Our pattern book of new spring and summer styles is fifteen cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 37th street, New York City.

Karst and Mrs. C. A. Johnson were the high score winners. At the election of officers held at this meeting, Mrs. J. J. Karst was named to act as president of the club for next year. She succeeds Mrs. C. A. Johnson.

Thursday evening the club members entertained for their husbands and for three special guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Darby and Mrs. Johanna Perry.

These two meetings Thursday will conclude the club meetings for this season. This fall, activities will again be resumed.

Institutions Programs Completed

The last programs were sponsored by the institutions department of the Salem Woman's club under the direction of Mrs. S. M. Endicott, chairman, during the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs convention held in Salem this past week.

Mrs. Tom Wolgamott gave the last of these programs at the boys industrial school Tuesday evening. Miss Echo Baldersee accompanied the work presented which was a gymnasium demonstration, with about 60 in the performing group.

Those of all the state institutions were sponsored for the visiting delegates to the federation by the institutions department. An interesting program was presented to about 100 of these folk when a visit was paid to the school for the deaf. A second interesting program was given by the students in the school for the blind for visiting delegates to the federation.

Mrs. E. C. Miller Will Entertain

Mrs. E. C. Miller will entertain members of the cradle roll, the beginners, the primary department and the juniors of the First Methodist church today between the hours of 2 and 5 o'clock in the church parlors. Mothers of the children are invited to be present and altogether it is expected that at least 100 folk will attend the party.

Games, songs and stories will be enjoyed by the children. Spring flowers in abundance will decorate the guest rooms and crepe paper favors will be given to each child.

The committee assisting with the refreshments which will be served at a late hour are Mrs. Nellie Rahe, Miss Sutherland, Mrs. Kumler, and Miss Ethel Nichols.

Liberty Woman's Club Elects Officers

The Liberty Women's club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. William Zosel for a potluck dinner. At the afternoon business meeting the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. Al Brown, president; Mrs. Olden, vice president; Mrs. W. W. Westenhouse, secretary.

An interesting program consisting of a reading by Mrs. W. J. Fair and a skit entitled "Making a Home" which was written by Mrs. Al Brown, was cleverly put on by Mrs. B. Cunningham and Mrs. W. R. Dallas.

AUBURN—The Auburn Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. Ben H. Hawkins, Thursday, after a short business session, an enjoyable program was given, Miss Irma Koenig of Salem, a pupil of Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, presented several delightful solos, which were much appreciated.

Miss Kathleen Lindbeck, also gave a piano solo, Mrs. Hawkins and daughter Susanna gave a piano duet. After the program a luncheon was served by the hostess. Those present were Mrs. W. H. Faxon, Mrs. Glenn Faxon, Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck and daughter, Kathleen, Mrs. Leo Sutter, Mrs. George Baumgartner, Mrs. T. C. Morgan, Mrs. M. B. Robinson, and the hostess.

Mrs. Mary A. Gosser was hostess to members of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic Thursday afternoon. A patriotic decorative note was used with red, white and blue flowers to suggest the idea. After an informal afternoon of conversation, a program given by Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Smalley and Mrs. Sanders, tea was served by the hostess.

Word has been received in Salem of the death of Mrs. B. P. Daniel, well known here as Miss Ida Marshall, formerly teacher in the Salem senior high school, at her home in Glendale, California. Mrs. Daniel had been ill about six months.

Mrs. John Noud Is Honored With Tea

An attractive affair of the many which are being given for Mrs. John Noud of Medford, a house guest of Mrs. Phillip Jaskoski, was the bridge afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Jaskoski, Thursday. Columbine in pastel shades combined with maiden hair fern, made dainty floral decorations for the guest rooms. At the place of each guest at the card tables attractive corsages were arranged.

Those asked by Mrs. Phillip Jaskoski to meet Mrs. Noud were Mrs. S. Breitenstein, Mrs. John Nathman, Mrs. Henry Hartman, Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin, Sr., Mrs. J. Nason, Mrs. Frank Aldrich, Mrs. Lawrence Bach, Mrs. Scott Page, Mrs. M. J. Peizel, Mrs. Theodore Barr.

Mrs. Noud was presented with the guest prize and Mrs. S. Breitenstein and Mrs. Lawrence Bach won high scores.

Waconda Community Club Plans Picnic

Waconda—Mrs. Julian De Jardin entertained in compliment to members of the Waconda Community club at her home in Hopmere Tuesday afternoon. A part of the group was occupied with quilting while others were busy with fancy work and sewing.

Mr. Ray Barker and Mrs. Robert Ferguson assisted the hostess at the tea hour.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Buchaaga of Hopmere and Miss Kelly of Tacoma. Club members present were Mesdames A. L. Lamb, Richard Patterson, Carl Brown, Felle Patterson, George Lemery, Van O. Kelly, Larkins, H. C. Stafford.

During the business meeting the assistant buyer, Mrs. H. C. Stafford, was instructed to buy materials which will be used in making articles to sell at the bazaar to be held in Salem this fall.

The entertainment committee for the picnic to be held at Woodland Park Sunday, June 1, has requested that one member of each family contribute something for the program. Fern Runcorn, Ray Barker, Frank Felton, Ed Sharff, A. W. Nusom, Robert Fromm, Lane Townsend, Allyn Nusom, and Miss H. Skelton and the hostess, Mrs. Julian DeJardin.

The last meeting of the year will be in two weeks at the home of Miss Mattie Skelton. There will be a potluck luncheon.

Mrs. Acel Eoff Will Entertain Club

Mrs. Acel Eoff will entertain members of her club and one additional club at the Hubbard Mineral Springs today with a one o'clock luncheon to be followed by cards.

Those who will be entertained are Mrs. Dolph Craig, special guest, Mrs. Richard Slater, Mrs. Gus Hixon, Mrs. Breymer Boise, Mrs. Lewis Griffin, Mrs. P. D. Lewisberry, Mrs. Frederick Deckebach and Mrs. Eoff.

Jefferson—The Eastern Star Lodge held its regular meeting on Tuesday in the lodge rooms of the Mason hall. Mrs. P. D. Lewisberry, Chapter from Lebanon were present and invited to put on the initiatory work during which Claudi-an Roland of Marion was taken into the order.

A short program of several musical numbers and readings followed. Bouquets of snow balls and pennies were attractively arranged about the lodge room, and baskets of flowers decorated the tables.

During the business session the Eastern Star planned to have a joint picnic with the "Masons" to be held June 1, at Green's bridge. After a social hour, refreshments were served in the dining room to 70 people.

Turner—Mrs. C. A. Bear entertained Wednesday afternoon for the regular monthly meeting of the local W. C. T. U. After a short business period, the delegates who attended the recent county convention in Salem gave their reports. An interesting program with discussion in which all took part was given, after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Bear was assisted by Mrs. Agnes Bear.

Word has been received in Salem of the death of Mrs. B. P. Daniel, well known here as Miss Ida Marshall, formerly teacher in the Salem senior high school, at her home in Glendale, California. Mrs. Daniel had been ill about six months.

Former Salem Man Injured in Auto Accident

Word was received Friday in Salem that James B. Chenoweth, former resident here, was quite seriously injured in an auto accident in Los Angeles, on April 14. The car in which Chenoweth was riding was side-swiped by another car and it tipped over. Mrs. Ethel Fogar and Orrin Smith, other occupants of the car, were somewhat injured.

Chenoweth received a bad cut on his head necessitating 14 stitches being taken at a hospital.

As one of the policyholders of the North American Accident Insurance company whose policies in Salem are issued by The Statesman, Chenoweth received hospital fees and a weekly disability fee. His family is living at the present time at 609 North 19th street, Salem.

Truck Tire Exports Rise WASHINGTON—(AP) While exports of automobile tires are lagging, the United States is sending abroad larger quantities of truck and bus casings than it did a year ago.

GAD MAN UNDONE BY MODERN ATTACK

RAY, Ariz., May 16—(AP)—The modern weapons of warfare against criminals today became the undoing of a mining prospector "from all along the Colorado" river, who knew only the two-gang ways of the west. Edward Mitchell, who battled sheriff's deputies in the rifle and pistol style of the days that are past, surrendered to the fumes of tear gas.

The black bearded giant, a stranger, tonight was in the Ray jail. His late model rifle, pistol and a stack of ammunition, had held two score rifle shooting deputies at safe distance for 24 hours. Mitchell and his guns capitulated to the choking barrage of gas, which sent him from his stone walled cabin for cover.

Mitchell is charged with stealing cattle from the Parks ranch on which he had found a haven from his wanderings in an abandoned mine. He is charged with the killing of the cat-dog miner's hut. The ranch owner, answered with bullets the demand that he surrender to the sheriff's posse.

Sheriff C. E. Gilmer, who headed the posse of riflemen, said Mitchell would be charged also with resisting arrest and shooting at officers. Under Arizona laws he may be sentenced to prison for 20 years for cattle stealing.

Shot for shot was exchanged yesterday after Mitchell, firing from the windows of his bullet proof cabin, answered with bullets the demand that he surrender to the sheriff's posse.

COMMUNITY CLUB'S MEETING PLANNED

IT COST A DOLLAR but it paid $60.00

(Second of a series of actual experiences of local people with the One Dollar Accident Insurance Policies purchased from The Oregon Statesman.)

Mr. A. M. Patrick of 1165 S. High St., was quite seriously injured Oct. 8th when his car collided with a truck on the Pacific Highway just south of Salem. Mr. Patrick was confined to his home for a period of six weeks, there was additional expense, Doctor bills, etc. But—very fortunately—he had invested One Dollar in a Statesman Accident Insurance policy. At the end of his period of disability he received a check for $60.00 from the Insurance Co.

It helped. The claim was paid without quibbling. Other claims totaling over $1700 have been paid.

If you have one of these policies, don't let it lapse!

If you haven't one, make application today. Send for our circular explaining the policy.

Don't let one dollar stand between you and this protection. Fill in the blank below.
