Mrs. F. A. Elliott Will Be Tea Hostess

One of the delightful affairs of the year for the American War mothers will be tea for which Mrs. F. A. Elliott will be hostess at her home on Summer street Tuesday afternoon.

At this time Mrs. Mary E. Walling will be guest of honor. Mrs. Walling who is the only charter member of the Salem post and is also a Gold Star mother, will sail for France in June among the Gold Star mothers who are going to visit the graves of their sons, and going as the guests of the United States government.

All Gold Star mothers of the county are asked to be guests for the Tuesday afternoon tea meeting. Mrs. Mianiedell Baker is attempting to reach all the Gold Star mothers with an invitation. Mrs. Ada V. Shiff, state president of the War Mothers and state Gold Star chairman, will tell of the Mothers day visit to the Veterans hospital in Portland last Sunday. There will also be a report made of the carnation day sale.

All mothers of service men are invited to call Tuesday afternoon and compliment Mrs. Walling.

Mrs. A. P. Mulligan To Be Hostess

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of LaSalle Church will meet promptly Wednesday at 2:00 o'clock at the home of Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Mulligan, 1689 Fairmount street. The devotional period will be led by Mrs. Emma Wheelson and the lesson study will be in charge of Mrs. Frank Rock.

Following the lesson Rev. Newra of the Japanese church will tell about his work in the Lahish community. Mrs. O. E. Brooks, Mrs. A. C. Bohrnstedt and Miss Vesta Mulligan will be assisting hostesses.

Members of the Standard Bearers will meet at the home of Mrs. H. M. Derkheimer, 165 South 15th street, at 7:30 o'clock. The assistant hostesses will be Lavada Maxwell, Fern Colwell, Dorothy Taylor. Edwyna Broadbent will lead the devotions and Gladys Taylor and Martha Kumler will have charge of the study. There will be a special mite box opening at this meeting.

Mrs. Alex Rowland was happily surprised at her home Thursday evening when a group of her intimate friends complimented her with an informal social evening and bestowed upon her many attractive gifts. A social evening of games and music preceded a late refreshment hour.

Statesman Pattern

A practical house dress is shown today. The long vestee and rolled collar, with a continued side front opening, offers good lines to the woman who is no longer slender.

Pattern 1919 will wear and launder well if made of gingham, percale, cotton broadcloth, pique or rayon. White grounds with tiny colorful designs are neat and fresh looking about the home.

May be obtained only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 2 7/8 yards of 36 inch material.

Send fifteen cents in coins carefully wrapped, or stamps, for each pattern. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted. Our pattern book of new spring and summer styles is fifteen cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern department, 245 West 17th street, New York City.

Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. When at a home party and a guest is hurt on the tennis court, or falls from a horse, or has any sort of accident, should the hostess pay the expense of a telegram and medical treatment?

A. No; the guest should pay any such expense.

Q. Should one butter a whole slice of bread at once and hold it on the bread?

A. No; break the bread into smaller pieces, hold with the thumb and first finger, and then butter.

Interest Grows In Golf Tournament

Ladies' golf tournaments are taking on added interest at the Salem golf club now that a sufficient number of winners have developed to make a keener competition.

The handicap tournament to date is as follows: Mrs. J. H. Garajobst defeated Mrs. Curtis Cross; Mrs. Gus Hixson defeated Mrs. E. Gillingham; Mrs. Paul Hendricks defeated Mrs. F. C. Rinner; and Mrs. E. H. Olinger defeated Mrs. F. S. Anunson. Mrs. Garajobst is still to play Mrs. Lloyd Farmer.

The winner of that match will meet Mrs. Gus Hixson and Mrs. Paul Hendricks will meet Mrs. E. H. Olinger. This will develop the general status which it is expected will be played off the last of May.

Mrs. Thomas Burrows will leave Wednesday for an extended tour of Europe. In Chicago Mrs. Burrows will meet Mrs. Laura B. Snyder, and together they will visit the larger cities of the east. Mrs. Snyder will remain with Mrs. Burrows at Boston until the latter sails. Mrs. Burrows will take the Mediterranean tour of Europe, which tour will take her to all parts of Europe beginning down in the southern part and traveling on up to Norway and Sweden. On the return trip she expects to spend some time in London before returning to her home in Salem sometime late this fall.

Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson accompanied by Carl Gabrielson spent Mothers day in Eugene with her grandson, Robert Bishop, a junior in the University of Oregon. Mr. Bishop is president of his fraternity, the Beta Theta Pi, and as such welcomed the 35 mothers who were guests there that day, and whose large number brought the trophy cup offered to the fraternity entertaining the largest number of mothers on Mothers day.
