

YAMHILL VOTE VERY LIGHT

Less Than 50 Per Cent of Qualified Voters Cast Ballot

McMINNVILLE, May 19—Two present incumbents of county political offices were defeated in the Republican primaries in Yamhill county Friday. W. W. Nickell, present county clerk, was defeated by Elbert F. Perkins of McMinnville by a margin of 174 votes in 42 precincts. The rural vote nominated Perkins as he was running practically neck and neck in McMinnville.

R. J. Kennedy is the Republican nominee for county judge, getting his nomination over F. B. Beckett, present incumbent. The name of W. C. Miller was written into the office of county judge on the democratic ticket, for which no democratic candidate had filed, and he will run against Kennedy in the election next fall.

W. E. Burke of Newberg swept into the Republican primary for the state senatorship from Yamhill county, taking the lead over W. W. Russell of Bellevue by 697 votes.

In the county vote for governor Joseph Corbett 1388 republican votes, Corbett 1133, and Norblad 255. E. Bailey took the democratic vote with a total of 481. Less than 50 per cent of the qualified voters of Yamhill county cast their ballots in the election Friday.

PRATUM CLOSING SCHOOL AT PICNIC

PRATUM, May 19—Eighty-six friends and neighbors gathered at the picnic grounds last Friday to celebrate the last day of school.

After a bountiful lunch, foot races, sack races and potato races were very much enjoyed by all. Almost 50 prizes were won by those taking part in the races.

Miss Lydia Powell is home with her mother who is suffering from the effect of a cold.

E. Welty and Peter Hofstetter, carpenters, are now building an addition to the south end of the Menemite church.

Fred de Vries attended the Silverton district Sunday school convention at Scotts Mills Sunday.

The first roses of the season were brought to the Methodist church Sunday. They were the K. of K. variety.

Fred de Vries is anxious to have folk come and see his columbines which are now in full bloom.

Mamie de Vries was one of the contestants in the county declamatory contest at Aurora Saturday evening.

Summer School At Monmouth Is Attracting Notice

MONMOUTH, May 19—The regular summer school session of the Oregon Normal school will open June 16 with pre-registration date fixed for May 21.

In addition to the regular courses several new courses are being offered this summer, in both the six and 12 week courses. Among these are the "Cooperative Big Unit Activity School," by Directors Dewey, Fuller and Stanwood, in the six weeks' program. Dr. A. S. Jensen is also offering a two-hour course in the platoon system.

Miss Florence Johnson will offer a class in auditorium work for which she especially prepared herself last summer at the University of Chicago.

Miss Katherine Arbuthnot will again offer her very popular and complete course in current source material which some teachers find very helpful.

A wide program of activities is offered by the physical education department in both the six and 12 week terms.

Central Howell Has New Union

CENTRAL HOWELL, May 19—Jimmy O'Shea, secretary of the national Farmers' Union organization, spoke of the problems of the farmer and benefits which have been derived through the organization.

An exceptionally large crowd was present at the meeting, and applause showed their appreciation of the talk.

Mr. McBee, state president of the Farmers' Union, was also present and made a few remarks. Other numbers were a recitation by Carolyn Kaufman and vocal solos by Mrs. Glen Parrish.

Local officers of the Farmers' Union are Earnest Werner, president; Wesley Desart, vice-president; Alec Mathys, secretary.

Campbells Go To California

PERRYDALE, May 19—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Campbell left Sunday morning with George McCullah for Palm Beach, Calif. They intend to be gone two weeks. Mrs. McCullah and daughter Thelma will return home then for the summer. Thelma's health is much improved after spending the winter there.

Aladine Campbell is staying at the Robert Mitchell home while her parents are away.

Miss La Velle Miller of McMinnville spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Gilson. While here she visited old friends and her aunt, Mrs. H. A. Lee.

Miss Wanda Elliott and Helen McMillan went to Newport with Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Staffin and daughter, Mildred, Sunday morning to spend the day.

RICKEY ENTERTAINED Y. M. C. A. Dramatic Club Pleases Audience LOCAL TALENT HELPS

RICKEY, May 19—As a number of the community club members appeared in musical affairs in Salem during music week, the last meeting for the season was held Thursday evening instead of on the regular date, May 9.

The two one-act comedies put on by the Y.M.C.A. dramatic club of Salem were well received and the way in which the parts were handled won credit to the actors and to Dean Roy R. Hewitt of the Willamette university who coached the plays.

"The Exchange" showed how much better it is to make the best of life then to exchange situations and afflictions with some one else. In "The Gate" the rich father is displeased with the marriage of his daughter and wishes to keep the affair out of the paper so he can have the marriage annulled, while an aunt of the bridegroom wishes it printed.

The aviator bridegroom is modest and wants the marriage kept quiet while the bride wants publicity. Each unknown to the other, tells his story to an employee of the newspaper who uses the story. At last all meet in the newspaper office and to the delight of the old aunt the bride insists on keeping her husband and papa is forced, much against his will, to be friends with even the old aunt.

The cast of "The Exchange" included E. P. Kale, Pansy Slaven, Mike Panek, Louise K. Lawrence and Margaret Bejeland, and of "The Gate," Mrs. Glen Holman, Claudia Plank, Nathalie Panek, Elmer Greipentrog and Clifford Gleason. Other numbers on the program were:

Piano solo, Frances LaVell; reading, Anna Lanke; vocal solo, Jennette Gerhart; reading, Leon Norris; violin solo, Arthur Kelly.

Those in charge of the program were Kathleen Fitzpatrick, Louise Lanke, Mrs. W. Flood and Mrs. W. Horner of refreshments; Mrs. H. E. Martin and Mrs. Olive Beardsley, pantry girls, Margaret Magee and Laura Crabb.

D. N. S. ELECTS NEW STUDENT OFFICERS

MONMOUTH, May 19—Melba Yokum, of Portland and a graduate of Franklin high school was elected as editor of the Norm, the Normal school annual, for next year. As she acted this year as assistant editor she is well prepared for next year's task.

Ernest Calk, Monmouth, was elected to serve as business manager of the Lamron for next year. Calk is well schooled in qualifications having served this year as assistant manager.

Student body officers of the Oregon Normal school for the coming year will be elected today and excitement is running high already. Ted Pfahl of Hillsboro and Forrest Amundsen of Sunnyside, Wash., are leading for president and for secretary Gweneith Dike, Mills City; Esther McCracken, Monmouth; Doria O'Connor, Portland; and Jess Waltman, Garden Home are competing. Helen Osborne, Portland, is not being opposed for vice president.

Wilma Fague of Portland has been elected editor of the Lamron, the Normal student publication, for next year. She has served as vice president of the junior class this year and has been very active in various student activities. A graduate of Franklin high school and a former staff member of the post there, as well as a staff member of the Lamron this year, qualifies her for this work.

Violinist Hugh and Carol Webster were chosen to represent the McDowell club of the Oregon Normal school at the Music Federation conference held in Portland May 10, 11, and 12.

Kenneth Wilson Is Injured in Monmouth Crash

MONMOUTH, May 19—Kenneth Wilson, 22, tractor driver for W. E. Martin, sustained a fracture of his left leg between knee and thigh when the machine he was operating became overbalanced from the rear by a heavy load of grubbed trees and Wilson leaped off to avoid being crushed and was struck by the gas tank.

Wilson was helping to grub out the walnut trees from a 65 acre tract planted a quarter century ago on the William Ireland farm, an old land claim of this section about one mile south of Monmouth on the West Side highway. The trees obtainable at that time have proved unprofitable unless grafted, which was not attempted by the present owners—a non-resident firm. The work was practically completed and the trees were being dragged into piles for burning when Wilson's accident occurred.

George Birrel Making Good

AMITY, May 19—George Birrel, a well known Amity man who graduated from the high school here is making good as an instructor.

Mr. Birrel entered Willamette university at Salem after graduating from high school here and worked his way through college as he had done while attending high school.

He came from Scotland when he was a young boy and finished his high school course in three and one-half years. After arriving from Scotland, George made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Tracey Newman. Last year he taught at the Heartland high school in Washington and is re-hired for next year. After teaching next year, Mr. Birrel plans to attend the Boston Institute of Technology.

Accident Victim Is Recovering

AMITY, May 19—Leon Weeks, who was hurt recently while working in the woods, was taken to a hospital at Portland and operated on. He is getting along nicely.

Mrs. John Breeding and Mrs. George Thomas attended the health meeting which was held at McMinnville Saturday.

Mrs. C. A. Fuller left Saturday for Peck, Idaho, where she will visit her son, E. K. Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dickey motored to Culliac, Idaho last week. They will visit Mrs. Dickey's mother who lives there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas, former Amity residents, have returned to make their home here after spending the winter at Silverton with Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fuller. They enjoyed the winter very much but are glad to be back in Amity.

VOTE HEAVY AT VALSETZ VALSETZ, May 19—The heaviest vote ever cast in a primary election, Rock Creek precinct 37, was cast Friday when 51 republicans and 30 democrat voters cast their ballots in Valsetz.

NORMAL SCHOOL IS INSPECTED

State Survey Committee Visits Monmouth Institution

MONMOUTH, May 19.—The Oregon Normal school has been visited this month by six members of the state survey committee, including men from all parts of the United States, who are delegated to inspect state institutions of higher learning in Oregon. They looked over the buildings, studied the curriculum, modes of administration and business management, the conduct in the library and plans and furnishings of the several buildings.

This survey was handled by experts in the various departments. Dr. A. J. Klein of Washington, D. C.; Dr. George Works, president of Connecticut agricultural college; and Dr. D. E. Lindsay of the University of Pittsburgh, all specialists in business administration, interviewed President J. S. Landers of the Normal and examined the business office.

Dr. Thomas E. Benson, of Washington, D. C., and Dr. V. H. Noll visited other departments. Dr. B. W. Frazier of Washington, D. C., was the only Normal school specialist in the group. He spent the day with Delmer R. Dewey, director of Monmouth training schools, and conducted investigations.

Kingwood Family Guests at Elkins

KINGWOOD, May 19—Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Smith, with Warren J. Filler, an employee of the Salem Pulp and Paper company, drove to Elkins Saturday evening where they were guests for the evening of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Cannoy. The Cannoy's purchased a farm at Elkins recently and moved away from Kingwood, where they had long made their home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Tansey were guests Sunday of Mrs. Tansey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Olmstead of Salem. Misses Nina and Opal Tansey drove that day to Lincoln, where they spent the day with Miss Ethel McKinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Fox, Jr., drove down Saturday from their home at Longview and spent the week-end with relatives here. Mrs. Fox was Miss Florence St. Pierre of Kingwood Heights. Her marriage was an event of the early spring.

Earl Malm is able to be in school again after several days' absence on account of sickness. Beryl Larsen who lives with his niece, Mrs. Clara Malm, has been confined to his bed for some time.

Mrs. Dick Rankin of Portland was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mary Bartruff over the week-end.

"Cheapness" is contagious

The finest things usually come from those who make fine things exclusively. Schilling makes only fine coffee—so can anyone else—but only Schilling does it.

Cheap coffee never enters nor leaves the Schilling roasting rooms, for Schilling believes that "cheapness" is contagious.

the quality you would insist upon if you knew all of the facts.

PROTECT YOURSELF

When You Buy Aspirin look for the Name BAYER

It pays to be careful when you buy Aspirin. Genuine Bayer Aspirin is safe as well as sure. These tablets are always reliable—they never depress the heart.

Low Fares East

In Effect MAY 22 TO SEPT. 30 RETURN LATEST OCT. 31

Choice of Routes - Liberal Stopovers
ROUND TRIP
St. Paul $77.25 New York $151.70
Washington $145.25 Philadelphia $149.25
Chicago $90.30
Go East over the Columbia, River Scenic Route on either, the North Coast Limited, or the Empire Builder.
Full Details From
J. W. Ritchie, Agent
H. D. Mountain, City Pass. Agt.
L. P. Knowlton, General Agent

Liberty Kiddies To Be Honored by Community Club

LIBERTY, May 19—Children of the Liberty district who have won honors in spelling, cooking and declamatory contests and the Kiddies' Rhythm band which won the community talent contest will be honored at the Liberty club meeting on Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

A special program has been planned, including an address by Dr. P. O. Riley, of Hubbard, president of the Marion county federation of community clubs, members by the Rhythm band and some surprise numbers by Salem talent.

Col. Dow, manager of the Fox Elsinore theater which gave the silver trophy won by Liberty in the talent contest, will be a special guest and the trophy cup will be on display.

Woodburn Will Start Cannery

WOODBURN, May 19—The Ray-Brown cannery, Woodburn's principal industrial payroll, begins operations this week on strawberries and gooseberries.

Some have believed that the unusual winter will affect the fruit but cannery officials hope to have a usual large pack this summer. During the winter months while the cannery was not in operation, a large crew of men were employed in repairing and overhauling the equipment and machinery.

The interior of the cannery is newly painted and every thing is in readiness for the busy season.

WEST SIDE WILL ASK RECOGNITION

Eight Cities Unite to Get West Side Highway on Federal Maps

McMINNVILLE, May 19.—Forty representatives from eight cities met at the McMinnville chamber of commerce rooms last week to effect an organization which will concentrate its efforts on recognition of the West Side Pacific highway on federal maps.

The organization, known as the West Side Pacific Highway association, was made permanent with Sam Dolan of Corvallis, president; W. T. Vinton of McMinnville, vice president, and William North of Corvallis, secretary. Representatives were present from Dallas, Monmouth, Corvallis, McMinnville, Dayton, Monroe, Newberg, and Amity.

The matter of recognition of the West Side highway has been brought up before the state highway commission to gain their cooperation. It is hoped that the matter will be brought up before the American association officials this month. The desire of the association formed here Monday is to have the West Side highway recognized on a par with the East Side highway.

Vote Is Light At Marion

MARION, May 19—Very little interest was manifested over the primary election in Marion district. With a registration of 104 and a normal vote of 75, only 41 votes were cast.

The Marion school had team defeated the West Stayton team in a game of ball at West Stayton Friday afternoon by a score of 7 to 5. The game was very closely played, it being a tie until the eighth inning when the Marion team scored two runs.

Inter-City calls keep friendships bright

YOUR voice is the next best thing to yourself. Make it a habit to "voice-visit" with old friends. Charges are low. In the evening they are even lower.

The front pages of your telephone directory hold useful information.

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

START TODAY

When tempted to over-indulge "Reach for a Lucky instead"

Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Avoid that future shadow* by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that modern ever-youthful figure. "Reach for a Lucky instead."

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Lucky Strike has an extra, secret heating process. Everyone knows that heat purifies and so 20,679 physicians say that Luckies are less irritating to your throat.

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

*"I have come to the conclusion," writes Sir Henry Thompson, M.D., F.R.S., "that more than half the disease that embitters human life is due to avoidable errors in diet." We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra, every Saturday and Thursday evening, over N.B.C. networks.

© 1930, The American Tobacco Co., Inc.