

AMITY SENIORS ENJOY TRIP

Newport is Scene of Annual "Flunk Day" Party Recently

AMITY, May 19—The Amity high seniors enjoyed their "flunk" day last Friday, May 16, when they motored to Newport. Twenty of the class took part in the event of the day. Several cars left Amity at 3:30 Friday morning and arrived at their destination at an early hour. Some went swimming at the natatorium, others enjoyed skating at the rink while the remainder of the crowd enjoyed themselves by the many other amusements which are to be obtained at the beach, only.

After the marshmallow and wienie roast that evening, the crowd returned home attending the theatres at various towns.

Those seniors who attended were Ardyce Burr, Florence Soadgrass, Marion Bice, Leland Boshardt, Inis Nickel, Lyle Stephens, Maurice Versteeg, Fournier Warner, Marcelle Fox, Fred Pournier, Clara Karns, Carl Monroe, Lucille Werner, Denzil Wilson, Elmer Woods, Melvin Bench and the instructors who accompanied them were Miss Edna Strout and Miss Mary Nagee.

Vivian Bunes Is Picnic Hostess

SILVERTON, May 19—Vivian Bunes celebrated her 13th birthday Friday at the Brush Creek school by playing hostess to the pupils and teacher of the school.

Vivian gave a wienie roast at the noon hour and the roasting was done at a bonfire built on the school grounds. Special guests were Lillie Madsen and Alice Jensen.

Classes were called to order at one o'clock again but were dismissed after a short session. The early dismissal was for the purpose of giving the members of the 4-H pig club an opportunity to visit the Ioka farm in the Waldo Hills.

The young club members greatly enjoyed the trip to this farm, which is owned by A. N. Doerfler, who has taken more prizes with big pigs than anyone else in the Pacific northwest. Transportation was furnished by John Moe and Mrs. Martin Doerfler.

ACCEPTS BANK POST
SILVERTON—John C. Goplerud, a well-known farmer of the Brush Creek district, has accepted a position with the First National bank at Silverton. Mr. Goplerud will act as "contact" man. For a number of years Mr. Goplerud was manager of the Silverton Food Products company.

WEST SALEM NEWS

Mrs. Arthur Pugsley of Corvallis was a Tuesday visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs. S. L. Burk of Edgewater street.

E. C. Stewart accompanied by his daughter, Lucille of Third street motored to Portland Monday on business.

Tony Overgaard of Eugene was a business caller at the home of I. W. Thomas Saturday.

F. O. Needham, proprietor of the West Salem Service Station, was confined to his home a few days during the week because of illness. He is now able to be back at his work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Thomas of Ruge street were Sunday dinner guests at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Thomas of Edgewater street.

Miss Claudine Gerth, who has been teaching school at Lostine has returned to her home in West Salem for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bell and Miss Genevieve Lees arrived here Friday from Los Angeles and will remain here for the home around Salem sometime.

Mrs. Guy Neugent of Rosemont avenue sang a solo at the church service Sunday evening. Her singing was very much enjoyed.

Mr. Richardson, editor of the Dallas Observer, called at the Star office Monday, while here on business.

U. H. Saunders left for St. Helens Tuesday, where he will resume work at the mill.

Ben Buffum of Ruge street is now putting vegetables on the market from his garden. Mr. Buffum has one of the finest gardens in West Salem and takes care to keep it in the finest shape every year. He has lived here several years and it is always the same.

Miss Gertrude Baker arrived in West Salem very recently from Idaho and will spend the summer with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Baker of Third street.

Newman Welsh of Chaffield, Minnesota arrived recently at the home of his uncle, Ed Findley, and will be a guest at his home for some time.

The gas company has now finished laying the gas mains through West Salem and will run them now to Corvallis and all towns which it runs through, may connect up with the gas service if they wish. They were very careful with the laws which they had to cross and left them in very good shape.

Mrs. Guy Neugent of Rosemont avenue entertained at her home one afternoon during the week, when the members of the K. C. K. club met at her home for a social afternoon.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers, which were carried out in a lavender color scheme.

Late in the afternoon, tea was served by Mrs. Neugent assisted by Mrs. T. C. McIntyre and Mrs. Ama Thompson.

Those present were Nellie Knox, Mrs. Hattie Given, Mrs. Rae Clark, Mrs. Bert Walker, Mrs. T. McIntyre, Mrs. Otto Schelberg, Mrs. A. N. Klough, Mrs. Alma Thompson, Mrs. A. Graber and Mrs. Guy Neugent.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thomas of Skinner street and Mr. and Mrs. John Carrick and little son, Jackie and Miss Mabel Thomas motored to Bellfountain Sunday and spent the day at their homestead, where they will move this fall. They are now building a house on the Thomas homestead and will build one on the Carrick homestead.

The special accordion music by a member of the Dallas Epworth league Sunday evening at the West Salem Methodist church was very much enjoyed. They were entertained earlier in the evening by the West Salem Epworth League. Those from Dallas then led the Epworth League services, which were very much enjoyed by all young folk, who attended.

Mrs. Paul Edwards, who spoke at the church services Sunday evening for the Women's Foreign Missionary society, gave one of the finest messages that has been witnessed by the people of West Salem for some time. She talked of the foreign missionary work and told of interesting experiences of people of that field.

Mrs. Theo Greene, who has been visiting relatives in West Salem for some time, left for her home in Vin Falls, Idaho, one day this week.

The Parent Teachers association will have their social meeting Friday night, May 23, in the basement of the church. Everyone is cordially invited. A special program is being prepared as well as good eats.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Allor and daughters, Eloise and Thelma and a friend were Sunday callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Thomas of Edgewater street.

Mrs. Nora Lee and son, David, of Plaza street, who have been in eastern Oregon for the past three days, taking care of their wheat crop returned to their home in West Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee of Salem were Sunday dinner guests at the home of Vance Richardson of Edgewater street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hess of Rosemont avenue motored to Newberg Sunday, where they got Mr. Hess' mother, Mrs. Ida Hess of Portland, and brought her to their home in West Salem to remain with them until next Sunday. Mrs. I. Hess met them at Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Richardson of Rosemont avenue received word from their granddaughter, Miss Alma Richardson, who is visiting her aunt and uncle in Fall Bridge, and she is having a very nice time and is getting along fine. Alma has been troubled with poison oak quite badly and it seems to be healing up since she is in a different climate. She will return home the fourth of July.

Ted Lehr of the Riverside Grocery store motored to Bend, Oregon Sunday, where he left his mother at her home. She has been visiting at the Lehr home the last few weeks.

Pratum Road Is Being Improved

PRATUM, May 19—The wet weather and much work with the county road grader has put the new highway between the Pratum and Mcleay in a wonderful condition.

This new highway connects with three paved highways into Salem, the Garden road, the penitentiary road and also the Fruitland road which is not paved but in a good condition. All four of these roads would make a most beautiful drive for Salem folks, who would enjoy seeing the most wonderful part of Oregon.

VALSETZ-FALLS CITY ROAD IMPROVED

VALSETZ, May 19—Folk county has two crews of men with teams working on the road between Falls City and Valseltz. The crew working the northeast side of the summit have dynamited several large stumps which will be a great improvement when finished.

Mrs. H. F. Thomas and daughter Marjorie Jean have returned from Portland where they visited with relatives for several days.

Roy Johnson and Andy Dubsin returned from Portland, where they visited friends over the week end.

Contestants from the grade schools to be sent to the Polk county declamatory contest in Dallas evening of May 24 are Averil Morris from this and fourth; Wayne Barnett, fifth and sixth; and Catherine Hahn, seventh and eighth grades. Mrs. Pearl Brown, teacher of the first and second grades, decided not to enter any of her pupils. The community is wishing the contestants the best of luck. Peter Peterson and family have moved into the Olsen house and

PLANES TO CAVORT FOR U. S. PRESIDENT

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., May 19—(AP)—The greatest naval demonstration ever attended by a president will be held 30 miles off the Virginia Capes Tuesday, when President Hoover reviews the fleet from the decks of the cruiser, Salt Lake City.

Battleships, cruisers, destroyers, submarines and airplanes will participate in the spectacular battle maneuvers, offensive and defensive. The review will take place as the fleet enters the Capes Tuesday following a trip from New York.

The aircraft carriers Saratoga and Lexington in Hampton Roads will meet the incoming vessels at sea and join the procession as it passes before the commander in chief.

PERRYDALE FOLK ATTEND POLO GAME

PERRYDALE, May 19—Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kurts and Felix Comegys attended the polo game in Vancouver, Wash., Sunday. Mr. Comegys never misses a polo game when it is possible to attend.

A group of young folks decided that Homer Earl, one of our teachers, was married, so on Friday evening gathered up their noise makers and journeyed to Amity, where they gave him a long and loud charivari. It proved that the charivari came about five months late, as Mr. Earl and Ruth Messenger were married in January. Mrs. Earl teaches in West Salem school.

VISIT IN PORTLAND

CENTRAL HOWELL, May 19—Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ramsden, Miss Faye Ramsden and Holle Ramsden motored to Portland Friday morning and spent the day with relatives. Mrs. Ramsden's mother, Mrs. Anderson, accompanied them home and will stay for a few days.

MICKEY MOUSE

"Button Up Your Overcoat"

"IT'S ME, MINNIE! HOW'S THIS FOR A SHELTER?"

"MICKEY!"

"WE'RE SINGING IN THE RAIN!"

"POLLY AND HER PALS"

"A Bribed Striker"

"FETCH MOTHER 'WHO'S WHO' DEAREST! FROM WHAT I'VE SEEN OF YOUR UNCLE'S INTIMATES, I FEAR THE WORST!"

"LISTEN, PERKINS! WHEN I TOOK THE JOB OF BEIN' GERTRUDE'S SPARRING PARTNER YOU NEVER MENTIONED THIS FEMALE SEA-ELEPHANT!"

"AW, PLEASE DON'T QUIT MR. KRAUSS! I'LL DOUBLE YER WAGES!"

"AN' BESIDES THE EXTRA PAY EVERY TIME YOU OUTSMART THAT DANG SHE-SARPENT, Y'GIT A KIMONO-KIMONO SEEGAR!"

Cross-Word Puzzle

By EUGENE SHEFFER

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9	10	11	12	13
14		15	16
17	18	19		20
21	22	23		24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31	32	33	34	35
36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43
44	45	46	47	48	49	50
51	52	53

- HORIZONTAL
- Wager.
 - Finger or toe.
 - Kind of tree.
 - Bone.
 - Three-toed sloth.
 - By.
 - French definite article.
 - Scatter.
 - Characterized by irony.
 - What is the popular form of the given name of the baseball player, Cobb?
 - What is highest mountain in Wales?
 - Point (abbr.).
 - What is the missing name: The Three Musketeers included _____, Porthos, and Aramis?
 - Mining town in Alaska.
 - Salt.
 - Listen.
 - What river in Africa is noted for its periodic overflows?
 - What French naturalist novelist wrote "Nana"?
 - Apparatus for steering a vessel.
 - Possessive pronoun.
 - One of the regular fixed periods of instruction.
 - What is the first name of the American novelist who created the character Fenrod?
 - Note of the scale.
 - Automobile body.
 - Like.
 - Joint or bend of the arm (pl.).
 - Covetous persons.
 - Symbol for sodium.
 - Pronoun.
 - In law, the thing.
 - Skilled in performance.
 - What French dramatist and novelist who wrote "Camille" was the son of a very popular romantic novelist?
 - Head of bureau.
- VERTICAL
- What is the title of Upton Sinclair's novel based on the Sacco-Vanzetti case?
 - Discover.
 - What Japanese goddess was represented as a woman and identified with the moon?
 - Depart.
 - Tropical plants.
 - Slide.
 - The "Iliad" who was the bravest of the Trojans, slain by Achilles?
 - Bronze or copper.
 - Unit of weight.
 - Small points.
 - Image that is worshipped.
 - What woman novelist was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for "The Age of Innocence"?
 - What is the title of Rousseau's great work on education?
 - Whose was the face which launched a thousand ships?
 - Unit.
 - Tree.
 - Very warm.
 - River in Switzerland.
 - What is the capital of Montana?
 - Electrified particles.
 - Dam up.
 - Unmarried girl.
 - Inclined the head in reverence.
 - Threadlike outgrowths of an animal.
 - Winged.
 - Along after.
 - Unit.
 - Supplies with weapons.
 - Part of "to be."
- Here is the solution to yesterday's puzzle.
- | | | | | | | | | | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| B | E | A | T | O | P | E | T | A | L |
| E | R | I | F | E | O | L | I | V | E |
| M | A | T | I | N | O | O | K | O | G |
| U | S | E | D | S | C | A | R | O | A |
| S | E | N | F | A | I | R | O | U | E |
| E | D | H | A | I | L | F | O | R | T |
| D | B | E | L | L | P | A | N | S | C |
| T | A | L | L | B | O | R | E | O | H |
| R | A | S | P | B | A | R | N | P | I |
| A | L | E | M | I | N | T | B | A | L |
| C | C | E | R | E | M | I | T | O | R |
| E | N | T | E | R | E | M | I | T | O |
| S | T | O | N | E | D | E | N | T | O |

TILLIE, THE TOILER

"Short-Handed" Information

"The Passing Cloud"

"NOW, MUMSY, PLEASE DON'T START IN TALKING ABOUT MAC AS SOON AS YOU GET HOME"

"OH, REALLY, MA DOES MAC LIKE HER? WHAT DID HE SAY?"

"YOU DIDN'T WANT ME TO TALK ABOUT MAC ANY MORE, SO I GUESS I'VE SAID ENOUGH"

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

"YOU SEE, ZERO, I WAS IN MRS. MEANY'S ORPHANAGE AN' HONEST, SHE'S THE MEANEST PERSON IN THE WHOLE WORLD—I DON'T LIKE TO KNOW ANYBODY, BUT SHE WAS—DUCK QUICK!"

"MY MIND'S MADE UP—THE O'FLINNS KNOW WHERE THAT LITTLE BRAT IS HIDING—THEY WOULDN'T TELL—BUT, SOONER OR LATER, I'LL FIND—"

"NIX ZERO—NIX! DON'T START ANYTHIN' YOU CAN'T FINISH—IF SHE EVER GETS A PEEK AT US IT MEANS THE ORPHANAGE FOR ME AN' THE DOG POUND FOR YOU!"

TOOTS AND CASPER

"WHAT'S THE MATTER, MRS. MOORE? DID THEY GET MARRIED?"

"NO, THEY DIDN'T GET MARRIED—BUT MY SON IS SO STUCK ON HER THAT WHEN HE HEARD SHE HAD RETURNED TO HER HOME IN DETROIT HE DECIDED TO GET A JOB THERE SO HE COULD BE NEAR HER! HE LEFT ON THE MORNING TRAIN"

"I'M SO LONESOME WITHOUT MY BOY, TOOTS!"

"MY WIFE IS A VERY PECULIAR WOMAN, CASPER! SHE WAS SO UPSET THIS MORNING SHE THREW A GLASS OF WATER AT ME! BUT WE DIDN'T ALWAYS QUARREL! WE USED TO COO LIKE TWO TURTLES!"

"YES, I KNOW—AND NOW YOU'RE SORRY YOU DIDN'T!"

