Des Anderson All Ready to Tackle Ernie Arthur Tonight

Those self styled "observers' who claim college athletes never mount to anything after leaving college, will have to draw in their horns next fall if Ed Bailey of function City is elected governor. Of course, the same progresticators who said Joseph didn't have a chance in the primary are now against Joseph, but we're of the much about the one proposition is they did about the other.

Already the fact that Ed Bailey carried sufficient weight to win the nomination, is pretty fair ammunition against the habitual opponents of sports. Of course, we don't know that there has been any doubt cast on the amount of weight Bailey carries-he weighed 235 when he was all-Northwest tackle at U. of O. and hasn't grown any slimmer since.
