

President Hoover Leads U. S. in Memorial Day Program

SPEECH HEARD BY THOUSANDS

Scene of Historic Civil War Battle Revisited by Executive

By JAMES P. SELVAGE
Associated Press Staff Writer
GETTYSBURG, Pa., May 30.—(AP)—Leading the nation in its Memorial Day tribute to the war dead, President Hoover came to Gettysburg today and amid the graves that dot the battleground, pleaded for preservation and the spiritual solidarity that has created a great people.

Then putting aside for the time the cares of official routine, Mr. Hoover turned northward for a 150-mile automobile drive through the Allegheny mountains to the hunting and fishing lodge of Jay Cooke, a Philadelphia financier, whose guest he is to be until early Sunday.

Thousands Stand Silent As Speech Delivered
Thousands packed on the hillside stretching away below the stand from which the president spoke. They stood silent through the address, the 1926-word text which was the briefest presidential address at Gettysburg since Lincoln's immortal speech in 1863. Speaking slowly and earnestly, visibly moved at times by his own words, into the microphones which carried his voice to the massed crowd within view and the millions throughout the nation, the president recalled the "lonely vision of Lincoln whose immortal words dominate this scene."

The spot where Lincoln spoke in dedicating the national cemetery is marked by a high monument at which the president paused. He left his car to lay a memorial wreath while enroute to the covered flag draped cupola from which he delivered his address. It was barely visible through the trees, in back of the throng that circled the speaker's stand.

Rows of Graves Are Decorated With Flags
Bright sun beat down upon the scene and among the row on row of graves flags whipped in a brisk wind. On the graves also were flowers which had been strewed by hundreds of children who broke across the rolling road to scatter them as the president reached the cemetery.

Behind the president sat a remnant of the "thousand brigades" which marched in that great conflict—the dark blue of the 66 Union veterans contrasting with the Confederate gray of a lone confederate cavalryman, William Haines, aged 93 of Washington. He was the first survivor of the southern ranks to sit on the platform at a Gettysburg memorial exercise.

Member of Choir in Early Day on Hand
Mrs. M. O. Smith, 87, Hanover, Pa., who sang in the choir on the platform when Lincoln dedicated the cemetery, was back in a place of honor today.

Grouped about the president also were Secretary of War Harlow; Henry P. Fletcher, former ambassador to Italy; Gov. Fisher of Pennsylvania who presided and introduced the president, and others prominent in state and national life.

Only as the chief executive began speaking and at the end did applause resound. As Lincoln had stood 67 years ago and in his brief address awed the crowd into silence by the beauty of his thought, so Herbert Hoover stood today and called for leadership of the nation tempered by moderation and the calm vision of the civil war president.

Memory of Lincoln Held Reverent Moment
"Every American's thought of this great battlefield of Gettysburg flashes with the instant vision of the lonely figure of Lincoln whose immortal words dominate this scene," he said. "No monument has been or can be erected here so noble and enduring as that simple address which has become a part of this place. Greater than the tribute of granite or bronze remains that memorable message to the American people. That appeal for the unity of our people and the perpetuation of the fundamentals of our democracy is as vital today in our national thinking as it was when Lincoln spoke."

BOAT CAPSIZES AND 3 KNOWN DROWNED

cuties as the rescue boats tried to land survivors on the wave-washed pier.
Relatives of the missing crowd of the dock, some crying hysterically for the loved ones and rushing frantically in search for them about the pier.

Virtually every survivor landed was in a semi-conscious condition and most all were carried in ambulances to hospitals.
Emergency calls were sent all beaches for inhalators and as the water-choked passengers were brought to shore they were laid on the pier, revived and then rushed to hospitals.

The victims had been on a fishing excursion and as is customary with a constantly changing list of passengers, the boat officers kept no record of the identity of their patrons.
The exact scene of the disaster was about three quarters of a mile off Topanga canyon and the Santa Monica beach, two miles above the city of Santa Monica.
The boat was owned by Clifford Morris.

SISTER AND "MYSTERY WOMAN" VISIT SLAYER

With Vincent Lucich, peg-legged San Francisco gangster, in jail for the admitted slaying of a "squealer" in a federal liquor trial, and the wounding of the latter's woman companion, he has been visited in his cell by Lucille Lucich (left), a sister, and Violet Russell, his asserted sweetheart. Authorities are taking precautions to prevent fellow gangsters from liberating or "finishing" Lucich.

SECT MEMBERS IN CONFAB AT FRISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—(AP)—Seventh Day Adventists of the world, here for their quadrennial general conference, settled today to business sessions and discussions. About 2,000 delegates registered.

An increase of 48,567 persons in the church membership the last four years was reported by Rev. C. K. Meyers, Washington, D. C., the conference secretary, bringing the membership to 299,555, more than double that of 1913. The Rev. J. L. Shaw, general conference treasurer, reported an increase of $9,448,868 in title and mission offerings during the four years for $48,421,221. The combined conference and institutional income of the movement he said was $164,813,271 an increase of $46,180,831.

The Rev. N. Z. Town, secretary of the publishing department, reported $19,102,761 worth of biblical literature have been placed in homes throughout the world in four years.

The proposed 13 months "reform" calendar was attacked by Prof. C. S. Longacre and Prof. W. W. Prescott, both of Washington, at a session of the religious liberty department. The shifting of the Adventists' Sabbath day under the proposed calendar "would mean we would give up our very reasons for being Seventh Day Adventists," Prof. Longacre said.

PROHIBITION PROBE IS 'JUST STARTING'

SAN FRANCISCO, May 30.—(AP)—The government has just begun its investigation of the Seattle prohibition unit scandal, Anthony Savage, federal attorney at Seattle, asserted today on his arrival here in connection with duties involving the federal circuit court of appeals here.

Savage expressed the opinion that Roy C. Lyle, prohibition administrator for Washington, Oregon and Alaska and his chief assistant, William C. Whitney, both under indictment for alleged conspiracy with bootleggers and rum runners, have not "told all they know" and promised "fast and startling developments" which will "rock the state of Washington to its foundation."

Savage criticized the attitude of the Washington anti-saloon league and the W. C. T. U., which have upheld Lyle and Whitney and expressed the opinion that developments will force Senator Wesley L. Jones, author of the "five and ten" law, to reverse his view on prohibition and "abide by the decision of the people of Washington."

STUDIES IN EUROPE
UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 30.—(Special)—Ron Hubbs, of Silverton, will leave May 29, to attend school in Europe. He is a second year law student on the campus, now, and has been very prominent in campus activities. He is planning to study international law at the Hague this summer, and to enter the University of Brussels next fall, where he intends to study political science for one year. Besides attending school, he intends to travel in European countries.

CAPITOL
Today—"Prince of Diamonds" and R. K. O. orpheum.

FOX ELISHORE
Today—"Ladies Love Brutes" and Fanchon and Marco.

HOLLYWOOD
Today—"Seven Days Leave."

GRAND
Today—"Lone Star Ranger."

Fanchon and Marco will bring the "Milky Way" down to earth this afternoon and keep it here over the weekend at the Fox Elishore theatre. That is the name of the "idea" this week.

This is what the "Milky Way" is made of when Fanchon and Marco do the mixing— heaps of comedy, graceful ballet, fast jazz tap, and aerobic contortionist, singing, and unusual scenic effects—one is always sure of that in a Fanchon and Marco show.

Those appearing will be Vernon Stiles, tenor; Moree, Arabian dance; Stone and Lee, comedy team; Verty Faye, who appears in "A silly symphony in feet flat;" Steve Moroni, tumbler, and the Sunkist chorus.

Bilgh's Capitol and its R. K. O. orpheum will start off the weekend with Kitty Doner, well known male impersonator, who dances and talks and confuses one as to "is it or is it not" a man? Frank Gaby, comedian, is a ventriloquist and adds spice to the program.

There will be dancing, the De Torgos will do this and they have danced for the Prince of Wales so Salem should be interested. Lytell and Fant, the black-face comedians of the group, are known the country over as the "Chocolate Cake Eaters" and they dance and burlesque their way through a comedy act. We will see both tomorrow and tell you later what the crowd says and what we think.

SAWYER SURPRISED AT BEING OUSTED

BEND, Ore., May 29.—(AP)—Robert W. Sawyer, who yesterday was removed from the state highway commission, said in a signed statement today that he will not fight the governor's action.

Sawyer said that the governor's action came as a distinct surprise to him because shortly before the May primaries Norblad visited him and assured him there would be no change in the personnel of the commission.

Sawyer said he could not understand Norblad's statement that Sawyer was not in sympathy with the Roosevelt highway project. His statement suggested that Norblad make public all communications that have passed between them with regard to the highway and let the people of the state judge for themselves his attitude in the matter.

LAW ENFORCEMENT REPORT BROUGHT IN

CLEVELAND, May 30.—(AP)—A report declaring a necessity for "a nationwide campaign of education in the matter of strong drink and obedience to all law" was submitted by the committee on prohibition and law enforcement of the northern Baptist conference through a comedy act.

We will see both tomorrow and tell you later what the crowd says and what we think.

WAR DEAD ARE HONORED HERE

Parade Followed by Exercises at Local Armory; Levens Speaks
eral Logan's orders setting aside May 30 as a Memorial day to Civil War veterans by Mrs. Mabel A. Lockwood; Gettysburg address by Howard Bergum; and song by Sons of Union Veterans quartet, consisting of: Alvin W. Mead, Charles Fessenden, H. R. McWhorter and E. J. Raymond, with Mrs. Fessenden as accompanist.

Large crowds witnessed the street parade at mid-afternoon headed by Col. Carl A. Hays and his chief of staff, the colors, reviewing party in machines, the municipal band, companies of the Oregon national guard infantry and coast artillery, members of the G. A. R. in automobiles, followed by representatives of all the patriotic organizations, the Chemawa Indian band, the American Legion band and the Salvation army.

In the morning, the first event was held at the G. A. R. circle in the City View cemetery, with the G. A. R. ceremonies conducted by Comrade H. P. Carnahan, assisted by G. R. Stover and Grant Boyer. The Ladies of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. followed by the G. A. R. rites with their effective ceremony and march in which flowers were strewn on the graves of the Civil War dead. Ten Grand Army veterans occupied seats of honor at the circle service.

Following the armory service, fine tribute to the sailor and marine dead was paid from the center of the Marion-Polk bridge by the W. R. C. with Mrs. E. O. Moll, president, in charge. Several Grand Army members were there and a delegation from the Sons of Union Veterans. The Chemawa band played, a firing squad from Company B, 162nd infantry, under command of Sergeant R. E. Kitcher fired salute and a guard-marshal bugler sounded taps. While the ceremony was in progress, an airplane swooped low from over the bridge and strewed flowers over the river, and just at the conclusion a floral barge was drifted down the river under the bridge.

Similar effective ceremonies and tributes were paid by the American Legion at the unveiling of the Clifford Brown cemetery memorial tablet.

OHIO PRISONER IS KILLED BY GUARDS

LONDON, Ohio, May 30.—(AP)—Guards at the London state prison farm today shot and killed Sam Mazello of Trumbull county, who with 14 other inmates, attempted to batter his way to freedom from a prison cell block. The 47 were among prisoners brought here from the Ohio penitentiary April 23 after the Eastern Monday penitentiary fire in which 320 convicts perished.

Bullets pierced his head and heart when he and his mates refused to obey orders of guards to stop the disturbances.

The shooting came as a climax to 48 hours unrest within the prison. After the convicts had broken much of the equipment in their cells and began to storm the gates Superintendent W. F. Amrine gave the order to fire on them. No prison wall surrounds the farm and had the prisoners escaped from the cell block they would have had free access to the outside.

BEARCATS WIN THIRD CROWN

Willamette Ball Nine Makes It Unanimous in Major Sports Events
Whitman scored in the sixth when Reese singled, advanced on an infield out and reached the plate on Hove's hit; and in the eighth when Wooten beat out a bunt, stole second and tallied on Reese's triple.

In the early part of the game, Willamette had the Missionaries trained to hit ground balls; in one inning, Adams handled every play, in the next Hawk took two plays and Erickson one, in the next Erickson two and Hawk one. Both teams played excellent ball in the field.

Records Dishes Up First Class Ball
The tight pitching of Records for Whitman was the big surprise of the game, as Clow, whose offerings proved to the Bearcats' liking Thursday, was touted as the Missionaries' leading hurler. Records held the Willamette sluggers to six hits and fanned seven batsmen.
