Music Convention Will Interest Townspeople

The people of Salem will be pleased to learn that at the time of the fifteenth annual convention of the Oregon Music Teachers' association there will be presented two artists of outstanding repute whose concerts will be for the benefit of the public as well as the three or four hundred teachers gathered.

The convention dates are June 15 and 17. Monday evening at Waller hall the association will present Josef Borissoff, violinist, in a program of pronounced beauty. Borissoff is an outstanding representative of L. Auer's school. He has made world tours, and is a teacher of distinction and repute. Mr. Borissoff will be accompanied by an artist at the piano, Myron Jacobson, a member of the French society of composers, and a pianist, composer, and accompanist of renown. He has won special attention for his song compositions—"Midsummer Night," "Last Love," "You Brought Me Roses" and many more.

Oiga Steeb, lovely to look at and equally well praised for her distinguished ability as a pianist will be presented Tuesday evening at Waller hall. She is a teacher of note, having a school of her own, and she has made tour after tour of both the continent and the United States.

She is said to have great descriptive power, endowed with a depth of feeling, individuality and deep poetic insight. She was born and educated in music in Los Angeles, and with this education set Europe agape with her interpretation and technique. An interesting thing of note about her is that she studies astronomy and her diversion is chess.

Silverton—A group of friends gave Mrs. H. L. Foss a delightful shower recently. Pot luck luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon.

Among those present were: Mrs. A. Rickell, Mrs. H. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rahn spent Memorial day in Portland.

Statesman Pattern

The summer wardrobe needs frocks that will stand many tubings. Today's model is just such a frock... simple, smart and becoming. The adorable neck with square lines repeated in the joining of the skirt flares and the slight drop of the shoulder replacement sleeves, are features to delight every woman. Pattern 1940 is enchanting made of one of the season's colorful prints. Pique, dimity, shantung, percale, broadcloth or wash silk might be selected. I suggest the colored braid purchased ready to use, as a smart finish to neck, arm-holes and skirt pointing, and two pert ribbon bows placed as shown in the sketch. May be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 14 requires 2 3/4 yards of 39 inch fabric.

No dressmaking experience necessary. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given. Send fifteen cents in coins carefully wrapped, or stamps, for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted. Our book of patterns for adults and children, also transfer patterns, fifteen cents; ten cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

Q. Are the ushers at a wedding chosen from the friends of the bride or of the groom? A. They are chosen from the friends and relatives of either the bride or groom. Q. Should a woman always wear a hat in a restaurant? A. Yes, it is always proper; but if she is staying at a hotel, she may go into the dining room without a hat. Q. What is the most important thing to follow when choosing guests? A. To have every one of them congenial.

Corvallis Program Interests Salem

Of interest to many Salem folk was the recital given in Corvallis Wednesday night when Mrs. Petri, head of the piano department at Oregon State college, presented Byron Arnold, well known in Salem musical circles. Mr. Arnold played a heavy program in masterful style. Beginning with Bach the program included numbers by Respighi, Beethoven's Heroic Sonata, opus 31, Chopin's epic Etude in C minor; Grainger's arrangement of the Brahms Lullaby and Liszt's St. Francis Walking on the Waves. Of all these numbers Beethoven struck the deepest note in Mr. Arnold's interpretative art. Don Harris, harpist, with Mr. Petri at the piano, assisted Mr. Arnold.

Subscription Club Dance Is Gay

One of the gay affairs of the season was the Memorial day dance given by the Subscription club at the Marion hotel Thursday night. The ballroom was lighted with red, white and blue lighting effects in keeping with the season. Dancing began at 9 o'clock with about 150 of the prominent young married folk of the town on the floor. Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Max Hofer, Mr. and Mrs. Oris Fry, and Clifton Irwin all of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill, guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Lytle.

Several dinner parties preceded the dance. A group of 30 couples had a golf dinner at the Salem Golf club, and Mr. and Mrs. George Weller entertained with 20 cover dinner at the Marion hotel. This will be the last dance of the season for this club.

Aurora—At a special meeting of the Evergreen Assembly No. 12, Order of the Rainbow Girls at Woodburn, Miss Peggy Sadler, worthy advisor, installed the officers elected and appointed for the ensuing term: Miss Jane Yergen was installed as worthy advisor and was presented with a beautiful corsage from Venus chapter, Order of the Eastern Star at Donald, and also with many gifts from her friends. Other officers installed were: Berneta Thompson, worthy associate advisor; Dorothy Austin, Charity; Margaret Mochel, Hope; Julia Bell Austin, Faith; Peggy Sadler, chaplain; Freda Nelson, drill leader; Edith Bates, inner observer; Jessie Strike, outer observer; Jessie Sims, musician; Inez Elliott, choir director; Edna Pendleton, red; Nona Otjen, orange; Donna Conyne, yellow; Hazel Emory, green; Tressa Bates, blue; Arlene Swigart, indigo; Gwendolyn Strike, violet; Nona Otjen, Gwendolyn Strike and May Strike were not present, so will be installed at the next meeting.

A short program followed the installation, consisting of a vocal solo by Opal Dickey, accompanied by Edith Shrock, and a musical reading by Julia Bell Austin, accompanied by Opal Hodge. The next regular meeting will be Tuesday, May 27.

Talbot—Mrs. D. E. Blinston entertained a group of little girls Thursday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Irene's eleventh birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing games. At 5:30, lunch was served to the following guests, Neva Emmons, Margery Cole, Ethel Olson, Lela Blinston, and the little honor guests, Irene Blinston.

Mrs. A. C. F. Perry was the inspiration for a delightful bridge afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. K. Stockwell Wednesday. Mrs. Perry and her two daughters will leave soon for New York where she will visit for some time. Bridge was in play at five tables with the guest prize going to Mrs. Perry and high score prize going to Mrs. W. R. Speck and Mrs. L. L. Laws.

Mrs. James Mott was hostess for an afternoon of bridge followed by tea at her home Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Arthur Ross of Oakland, California, Mrs. Fred Purvine, and Mrs. J. H. Scott held high honors. Mrs. Mott is planning a series of social events for the next few weeks.

Summit Hill—The Missionary society of the Christian church at Turner entertained a group of little girls at the Booth home Wednesday afternoon with 35 present. Attending from a distance were Dr. Mary Staples from San Francisco and Miss Gertrude Shumaker, daughter of Rev. Shumaker of Salem, a retired missionary who has spent four years on the Congo in Africa. Miss Shumaker gave a very interesting talk on her work and of the habits and customs of the natives.

Mrs. B. J. Palmer of Medford, Oregon, and house guest of Mrs. E. E. Thomas, was complimented with an informal tea at the Thomas home Thursday afternoon between the hours of three and five o'clock. Mrs. E. E. Moppehead presided at the tea.

Mrs. Max Flannery entertained with an informal evening of bridge at her home Tuesday evening. Honors for the evening were held by Miss Bernice Humphreys and Miss Alene McKillop. Mrs. R. Abet and Mrs. Burdette assisted at the refreshment hour.

Bridge Teas Are Pretty Affairs Of Week

Mrs. Laban Steeves has been hostess at her home on State street, for two attractive bridge teas, one Wednesday afternoon and one Thursday afternoon. Spring flowers in gay shades were used in artistic profusion about the guest rooms where each afternoon bridge was in play at six tables.

Wednesday afternoon prizes were won by Mrs. Breyman Boise and Mrs. Howard Blake. At the tea hour Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mrs. John Stimpson, Mrs. Frank Ross, and Mrs. Walter Spaulding assisted Mrs. Steeves.

Mrs. Leo Page and Miss Zoe Stockton took honors for Thursday afternoon's playing. Mrs. Steeves was assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. Fred Brock, Mrs. Oliver Huston, Mrs. Walter Spaulding and Mrs. John Stimpson.

Mrs. Helen Persons entertained the Royal Neighbors sewing club at her home on Maple avenue last Tuesday. A pot luck luncheon was served at noon. Mrs. Sarah Peterson assisted the hostess. Those present were Clara Corbin, Lella Sharpe, Myrtle Henderson, Margaret Genskow, Carrie Bunn, Frances Hoyt, Mildred Nash, Mary Ackerman, Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Persons, Anna Lewis, Julia Blodgett, Rose Abbott, Ida McCulley, Frances Mohula and Helen Persons. Guests included, Mrs. Weaver of Albany, Mrs. Stedman, Lucille Corbin and Betty Jean Persons.

"A Musical Hour" Will Be Presented

An original recital will be that for which Mabel S. Powers will be hostess at the Roberts studio Wednesday evening. Invitations are being sent out for "A Musical Hour" beginning at 8 o'clock. At this time Mrs. Powers will present a group of her own piano students assisted by little Mistress Rose Gibson, danseuse pupil of Mrs. Julia White and by Prof. T. S. Roberts at the organ.

Aurora—Several cars of 1927 Worthy Matrons, O. E. S., of Portland and vicinity, called upon Mrs. J. W. Sadler who is one of their number. They were on their way to Corvallis to be the guests of Mrs. W. J. Kerr, who entertained at luncheon for them in the new Memorial Union building. Later in the afternoon she served tea at her own home.

Among the many things being given for both Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cooley before they leave for an extended trip east, was the bridge evening for which Mr. and

EGBERT THOMPSON PLANS WIDE TOUR

Salem friends of Egbert Thompson of Portland will be gratified to learn that he has been selected to make a study tour in the old world as a result of his work in the school of landscape architecture at Ames, Iowa. Thompson is the son of Dr. and Mrs. David A. Thompson of Portland, and was student at Willamette for two years. He has been studying landscape architecture in Ames since leaving Willamette and has won considerable distinction in his line. Recently he won first prize in a competition for the garden of the Western Stoneware company at Moline, Illinois.

The trip that he expects to take is entitled "Summering on Three Continents," and is a study tour following the high tide of civilization from ancient Egypt through modern Europe. The trip is under the direction of P. H. Ellwood, Jr., department of landscape architecture, Iowa State college, Ames, Iowa, ten students accompanying him. They sail on June 18th from New York on the steamship "Vulcania," spending three full months in study and travel abroad. They touch first at Gibraltar; then at Algiers and Syracuse; then to Alexandria and up the Nile to Cairo, viewing the pyramids, and ancient temples. Then they go to Palestine, and Syria, sailing from Beirut, via the island of Cyprus. They spend two days in Constantinople, a week in Greece, a week in Italy with trips to Tivoli and Frascati, studying the great gardens and landscape projects of these places. They visit Venice, Florence, and then proceed through the Dolomites to Germany, Oberammergau and the Passion Play. A week in Paris, stopping enroute at Karlsruhe and Nancy. They visit also Versailles, St. Germain, St. Cloud, Vaux-le-Vicomte and Fontainebleau, a week in London and vicinity, returning on the Holland American liner, "Statendam."

Mrs. James Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. George Arbuckle were hosts at the Arbuckle home Wednesday evening.

Gervais—Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moisan of Patton, Calif., who have been visiting relatives in this community for the past week, left for their home Wednesday. Several social affairs were given for the visitors during their stay here. On Sunday a family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. Mary V. Moisan and Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Summer Stevens gave a dinner at their home in Gervais in honor of the visitors. The guest list Sunday evening included, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rueppel and Mrs. Clara Buxton of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Moisan of Patton, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Moisan of Gervais, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Manning were additional guests for the evening.

Gervais—"Spanish Speaking People" was the subject for the Presbyterian Women's Missionary society at their meeting Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. L. D. Mars of Salem led the devotional service and Mrs. A. R. Siegmund the dis-

WIN IN KEYSTONE STATE

Pennsylvania's super-hectic primaries showed Secretary of Labor James J. Davis defeated Senator Joseph R. Grundy for the Republican Senatorial nomination.

ATTEMPT MADE TO OVERRIDE HOOVER

WASHINGTON, May 30—(AP)—An agreement was reached if the senate today to vote Monday on the first proposal made in that body to pass a bill over President Hoover's veto.

The vote will be on a motion by Senator Connally, democrat, Texas, to override the chief executive's disapproval of the bill to liberalize pensions for Spanish war veterans. President Hoover vetoed the measure yesterday and Connally, himself a Spanish War veteran, immediately presented his motion. He demanded action on it today but agreed to postponement upon a request by Senator McNary of Oregon, the assistant republican leader.

Connally said he thought his motion, which required a two-thirds vote of both houses, would pass. Meanwhile, a movement was started to recast the measure to meet the objections of the president. Rep. Knutson, republican, Minnesota, chairman of the house pensions committee, planned to present a new bill in the house Monday after the Memorial day recess.
