

CHILDREN'S DAY IS OBSERVED

Trinity Church at Silverton Has Impressive Program On Sunday

SILVERTON, June 3 — Children's day was fittingly observed with special services at Trinity church Sunday morning. Special musical numbers were given by the junior choir and the primary department. The baby daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. H. Foss was also christened at this time. The baby was named Patricia Elise and the sponsors were Rev. Mr. Foss's two sisters, Miss Agnes and Miss Magda Foss of Seattle.

Mrs. Foss entertained informally at dinner for her visitors Saturday night.

FORMER MINNESOTA RESIDENTS PICNIC

K O Rue Home in Waldo Hills Scene of Annual Reunion Sunday

WALDO HILLS, June 3 — "When we were in Minnesota" was heard many times Sunday at the annual reunion of the people who formerly lived at Hills, Minnesota. The picnic was held on the spacious lawn of the K. O. Rue farm home. Dinner was served at noon to 60. Games and stunts and visiting made the afternoon pass quickly.

A business meeting was held and officers elected as follows: K. O. Rue, president; Arthur Dahl, vice president; Mrs. Arthur Dahl, secretary. Next year's picnic will be at the Stanley Ray home near Marquam.

Mrs. Maude Haberly and daughter, Mildred returned to their home Thursday from the Dalles. Miss Mildred taught Home Economics in the high school at that place and Mrs. Haberly has spent the school year with her.

Roger Comstock accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Rex Russell, Eugene and Rex, Jr. to their cottage at Waldport. They left early Friday morning returning Sunday night.

It is gratifying to the many friends of A. A. Geer to know he is improving so rapidly in health. He is busy at his job as assessor.

RICKEY STUDENTS ENJOY PICNIC

RICKEY, June 3 — The high school children of Rickey and vicinity who are transported on bus No. 11 and E. C. Kruger, the driver motored to Hagers Grove Wednesday after school and spent the evening picnicking. Games were enjoyed and later sandwiches, ice cream and cake were served. An especial treat was a cake baked by Mrs. Kruger.

Present besides Mr. Kruger, the bus drivers were Olivia De Vries, Dorothy Bowen, Leora Gerig, Nellie Kleen, Mary Sheridan, Susanna Hawkins, Hilda, Balhson, Ida Balhson, Francis Brown, Freda Meyer, Velma Armstrong, Alice Aufichide, Mary Perkins, Kathleen Lindbeck, Ethel Johnson, Ruth Baumgartner, Margaret Baumgartner, Luella Shaw, Nadine Camson, Margaret Magee, Kenneth Morgan, Paul Silke, Raymond Wallace, David Elstrom, Fred Fogg, Ralph Coulson, Selvester Honkola, James McKinney, Gilbert Anderson, Walter Johnson, Jim Johnson, Gilbert Faxon, Lawrence Baumgartner, George Beattin, Simpson Hamrick, Paul Hamrick.

TRINITY SOCIETY HAS PROGRAM

SILVERTON, June 3 — Rev. H. L. Foss was the speaker at the Sunday meeting of Trinity Young People's society held at Trinity social rooms Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Foss had for his subject, "What Shall I Do With My Life?"

Other numbers on the afternoon program included a reading by Mabel Strand; piano solo, Norman Jensen; selections by male chorus composed of Rev. Mr. Foss, Alfred Jensen, Hans Jensen, Victor Madsen, Norman Jensen and Palmer Trovond; piano duet, Viola Larson and Charlotte Goplerud; horn solo, Rev. Mr. Foss.

SILVERTON, June 3 — A packed house greeted the senior class Monday night for its class night program. Every available seat in the house was taken and many were forced to stand. The program given consisted of the following numbers: Salutatory speech, Franklyn Evenson; class prophecy, Doryce Miller; violin solo, Beryl Ottaway; class will, Roger Comstock; piano solo, Violet Herigstad; vaudeictorian speech, Alma Anderson.

As a closing number the seniors sang their class song and "Hall to Old S. H. S." The singing was led by Frances Nelson. Kenneth Williams acted as chairman of the evening.

children, four of whom have graduated from the Gervais high school. One daughter is married; two daughters are in training for nurses and the son is assisting his father on the farm.

G. J. Moisan is always for anything that means advancement for the schools or the community, and gives liberally of his time. He was born at Brooks in 1876 and lived at home until he was 22 years of age. He has lived at Gervais since 1902 except about a year when he was in Portland. He came back to Gervais in 1905.

He was assistant postmaster for five years under Wm. J. Clark and at the end of that period was made postmaster and served in this capacity until 1916 when there was a change in administration. Mr. Moisan has been a member of the city council since 1905 and has been mayor most of that time. He has been a member of the grade school board for nine years and on the high school board for six years. He has been in the commission business here since 1916. Mr. and Mrs. Moisan have one son, who is a graduate of Gervais Union High school.
