between Presbyterians and Catholics. The vote was taken on one of ten resolutions offered by the assembly's special commission of marriage, divorce and remarriage which declared that the section referring to Catholics adds no weight to the marriage precautions but does add a means of offense. The resolution evoked stirring debate in which sentiment seemed almost equally divided and when the vote finally was called for the opponents had a small majority among the 908 voting commissioners. A count was not taken. The action was a victory for the Philadelphia presbytery, which had filed the only complaint against the commission's report.

FACTS 20, 21, 22
Cream of Tartar is the base of Schilling Baking Powder. Cream of Tartar, pure juice crystals of luscious grapes! Cream of Tartar, favorite of our grandmothers! But, in later years, cheaper substitutes have appeared. These substitutes make a baking powder that is acceptable to some women. But a Cream of Tartar Baking Powder is almost the unanimous choice of domestic science authorities, pure food departments, dietitians and doctors. Such a preponderance of expert opinion is the Schilling guide. The substitutes may be all right—but why compromise with anything but the finest?
FACT 24 [Baking Insurance]
"If you find any fault whatever in this Baking Powder, or think you do, your grocer will return your money and also pay for the eggs, butter, flour, etc. you have used." You will find that statement printed on the Schilling label. Look for it. Read it carefully. It is far more than a mere gesture of good will. Unusual as it is, it means just what it says. Only a Baking Powder, sure and pure, could carry such an offer. Cream of Tartar! Baking insurance! That's the Schilling way of keeping faith with you.
