Quotations Up PORTLAND, June 8-(AP)-Egg and butter prices continue unchanged with the undertone without strength. Egg values apsear to be the stronger of the two, with the co-operatives holding the situation well in hand.

Reviewing the fruit and vegetable situation, the Portland bureau of the U. S. department of agriculture says: "Although strawberry supplies were present in moderate volume, canners and barrellers' requirements took most offerings, with resultant sharp price advances on the wholesale market. First early sales on the farmers, market were made as low as $1.75 per crate, but retailers paid up to $3.00, later in the day. It now appears that the barrellers will act as a decided stabilizing inflaence during the rest of the season, as their requirements are not nearly filled

"Cantaloupes weakened about 25c per crate. Cants show very wide variation in quality, with price ranges of 75c per crate, for identical sizes.

"There is almost too much ettuce for the Portland market. but hardly enough to interest outside carlet buyers. Consequently, prices are low, although quality is generally excellent. Washington is now shipping as high as 60 cars daily, mostly from the Puget Sound district, with a few cars from Walla Walla.
