STATE SHOOT OPENS TODAY

E. L. Ford of Ogden, Utah, Captures W. T. Lambert Trophy Thursday

Fifty shotgun experts from widely separated districts of the northwest gathered here Thursday for the opening of the 18th annual Oregon state trapshoot.

Thursday was practice day, with but one trophy up for competition, and officials of the shoot anticipated that the registration will be doubled today when the real competition starts at 9 a. m.

E. L. Ford of Ogden, Utah, was the winner of the W. T. Lambert trophy in a 100-bird shoot Thursday. Ford's score was 98.

Prominent scattergun marksmen already on the ground include Frank Troch of Portland, national champion for many years and Oregon's present champion; Gus Becker of Ogden, O. N. Ford, manager of the Del Monte club which is California's largest trapshooting club; J. Gilbreath of Lakeview, winner of the northwest championship in the handicap shoot at Portland last month; H. T. Spicer, president and Charles Leith, manager of the Portland Gun club; A. A. Bates of Medford; William Huston, C. L. Martin and E. Nitschelm of Klamath Falls and W. M. Gardner of Baker.

Today's program includes 100 birds at 16 yards and 100 birds in a handicap event. Trophies are at stake for high gun in each of four classes in the scratch competition. In the handicap, the J. C. Morris, Hartman-Bros., R. E. DeWeese, C. J. Bartlett and Carl Bahrburg trophies are up.

POSTOFFICE TEAM FINALLY DEFEATED

Night Becomes Day at Solons' Baseball Park

SACRAMENTO, June 5.—(AP)—Night was turned into day here at Moreing field when light banks containing 180,000 watts were turned on.

Low Moving, Sacramento baseball owner, pulled the switch that flooded the field with artificial daylight.

The first ball pitched met the bat for a long drive to center. The ball was visible to the hundreds of fans from the time it left the pitcher's hand to rest in the glove of the centerfielder.

Players, manager and fans pronounced the new lighting system a success as there was no apparent difference between the artificial daylight and the radiance of old Sol. Night baseball begins here June 10.

CONTRACTS HELD UP WASHINGTON, June 5.—(AP)—Secretary Adams said today no contracts would be let for naval construction authorized by congress until the senate had passed on the London naval treaty.

MAY RUSH TREATY WASHINGTON, June 5.—(AP)—Talk was heard today of the cabinet today of an effort to take up the London naval limitations treaty before adjournment of the regular session, after calls at the White House by Senators Vandenberg, Michigan, and Allen, Kansas, republicans and advocates of the pact.

City Title Baseball Game This Afternoon at 5:15

BEARCATS TO MEET SOLONS

Peterson and Russell Are Opposing Pitchers; Predictions Vary

The city championship baseball game between the Salem Senators and the Willamette university team will be played this afternoon on Olinger field, starting at 5:15 p. m.

Both teams will be at full strength, with Kermit Russell, crossfire artist, scheduled for mound duty for the Senators and Andy Peterson with his speed ball slated to annoy the Senator batsmen.

Opinion among the fans is more or less evenly divided as to the outcome. The Willamette team is generally credited with greater hitting strength though it has not faced the brand of pitching that prevails in the Willamette Valley league, in which the Senators hold forth.

On the other hand the Senators' fielding has appeared to be considerably more finished than the Bearcats'. Spec Keene's team fielded excellently in the series with Whitman, in which it won the Northwest conference championship, but in earlier games it was not so accurate.

Hitters on both teams will be facing pitching that they have not seen before, and in view of the different classes of teams played by these rivals previously, the outcome of the Russell-Peterson duel is also rather obscure.

CURT COMMENTS

So Spec is to be with us again. Guess nobody will be sorry about that.

Willamette's educated ball tossers and Frisco's sandlotters will tangle this afternoon. The value of a college training will be weighed in the balance.

Harry Elliott nearly choked on the name of the hold Henry Jones used to beat Doc Anderson Wednesday night. That's one of the darkest parts of officiating at a wrestling match—to find a name for what happens. But we've never found Harry lacking yet.

Somebody must have been pretty nearly stumped to describe the tactics used by Texas Teddy Waters at Albany the other night when he beat Ernie Arthur by blinding him with a shower bath. Yes sir, it must have taken some quick thinking to burst forth with the "white hold" nomenclature.

We doubt if that really belonged in the category of wrestling.

Anyway, Des still has some education coming, but he's getting it in large bunches.

And we're going to have a fight program next week. Rah! Rah!

SILVERTONIANS WIN FAST TILT

Schwab and Perrine Engage In Mound Battle For Junior Honors

The Silverton American Legion Junior baseball team defeated the Salem team 2 to 1 in a tight game on Olinger field Thursday afternoon, the first of a two game series. The second game will be played at Silverton Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

Schwab, Gervais boy who pitched the Silverton team into the state finals last year, was going strong Thursday, allowing only two hits. Salem's run was scored without benefit of clean singles in the sixth inning when Kitchen walked, stole second, was sacrificed to third and came in on an error. Schwab struck out nine batsmen.

Perrine for Salem pitched even fighter ball than Schwab, allowing only one hit but that was a three bagger by Hibbard and accounted for two of Silverton's runs in the sixth inning. The other was scored by Hibbard in the fourth on a walk and several misplays.

SHARKEY WORKING ON SHORT PUNCHES

ORANGEBURG, N. Y., June 5.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey had his weight down to 195 pounds after five rounds of boxing in the outdoors today. Following this Sharkey worked out against three sparring partners, shortening his punches and perfecting a fast countering style. He rocked the boys frequently with hard straight rights and well timed uppercuts.

Sharkey will continue to box until Monday, then taper with light exercises Tuesday to conclude training for the fight at the Yankee stadium, June 12.

ENDICOTT, N. Y., June 5.—(AP)—Max Schmeling took his ease today, getting into trouble on the golf links instead of in the ring with his sparring partners, while a small army of war correspondents speculated on the physical condition of the carefree young German.

The boys are worried over the fact that Max has decided to rest for two days at the most critical point in his training for the 15 round heavyweight championship duel with Jack Sharkey in Yankee stadium next Thursday night and they fear he has gone stale from overwork. In his last workout on Wednesday Dr. Max had trouble subduing his usually wobbly sparring partners.

Von Elm Fights Way Into Final

LA' BOULE, France, June 5.—(AP)—George Von Elm won his way to the 36-hole final of the French amateur golf championship today but he had to stage a sensational recovery to take his semi-final battle with Andre Gohert, one up, 19 holes. The Detroit was three down when only four holes remained to be played.

The former amateur champion of the United States squared the match at the 18th and won with a birdie three at the 19th. Gohert, former tennis champion of France, became wild from the tee in his closing play.

BROWNS RALLY IN NINTH, BEAT A'S

DUCKS RALLY TO WIN AGAIN

Hillis and Williams Take Leading Part in 9th Inning Attack

PORTLAND, Ore., June 5.—(AP)—A single by Mack Hillis scored the tying run and another by Ken Williams, which bounced off Backer's glove, drove in the winning score for Portland in a 5 to 4 win from Sacramento in the ninth inning today. Viack's wildness was costly. With Sacramento on one run ahead, he walked the first two batsmen in the ninth.

Primo Wins With K. O. In Fourth

DETROIT, June 6.—(AP)—Before 18,000 fans who paid $75,000 for the privilege of watching him perform, Primo Carnera, giant Italian, knocked out the jaw and Christner, Akron, in the fourth round of their ten round bout here tonight.

The fourth round had gone on only one minute and twenty seconds when Carnera landed a terrific left hook to the point of the jaw and Christner went down and out. Carnera worked up to the grand finale most systematically after losing the first round by a wide margin.

He made plenty of play for that had left eye of Christner's and at the close of the third round had the swelling. He sank in a brace of left jabs to start the fourth round and the blood flowed so that Christner could barely see.

The finishing touch was then merely a matter of course. Christner put up a game struggle all the way but the odds were against him. Carnera entered the ring at 265 pounds and Christner at 201. The Italian made exceptional use of his extra inches of reach, time and again holding Christner off at arm's length with one hand while he peppered him with the other.

The man from Italy was extremely calm throughout. He absorbed a number of tough blows, winning on several occasions but was right back at his opponent half smiling and anxious to do battle.

KEENE TO REMAIN AT WILLAMETTE U.

Five Year Contract With Increase in Salary Is Accepted

ROY S. "SPEC" KEENE, head of the athletic department at Willamette university for the last four years, has signed a contract to remain in the same position for five years more, President Carl G. Doney announced Thursday at the university chapel exercises.

Details of the contract have not been made known but it is understood that it provides for a substantial increase in salary. Coach Keene is to be employed on a 15-months basis.

The announcement comes in response to well founded rumors that other institutions were bidding for Keene's services, something that was anticipated after his teams won Northwest conference championships in three major sports, football, basketball and baseball, without suffering a conference defeat in the season just ended.

A precedent of long standing is broken by the awarding of a contract for so long a term of years at Willamette, it is understood. The announcement came as a complete surprise to all but a few persons in the chapel, and was greeted by a thunder of applause.

Coach Keene will attend the coaching school at Washington State college this summer, taking work under Howard Jones, football coach at the University of Southern California, and Dr. Meanwell, dean of the basketball experts.
