

Diplomas Received by Salem High Seniors at Exercises

ADDRESS GIVEN BY C. A. HOWARD

Urges Graduates to Pick Out Goal, Fit Selves For Achievement

A long file of seniors, each clasping the diploma which symbolizes the end of four long years of toil and study not unmingled with many festivities, yesterday passed down the aisle of the FOX Elsinore and out into Salem's wide streets. With them went in history the local high school's 24th annual commencement, as dignified an occasion as has marked the end and beginning of any of the generations of students.

The address to the class was given by C. A. Howard, state superintendent. Picking from the lives of his own high school associates, Mr. Howard pointed the student to engage in that pursuit and life work to which their nature fitted them, cautioning them not to become satisfied thus early in their lives with the educational equipment with which they are to face the world.

"Each one of you, to fulfill your greatest ambition in life, must have a predetermined destination worthy of your most earnest efforts, and then must you develop in yourselves that driving power that will carry you through to the greatest achievement," Mr. Howard told the class.

Schools Not Able To Do All, Warning

Schools are not yet doing all that is to be desired in helping the young boy or girl choose the proper destination in the world, the state superintendent declared, adding that leaders are feeling their way along those grounds and hope eventually to do a better job of assisting in this all-important consideration.

Of the 275 diplomas prepared for the class, 16 were unclaimed after the group had filed across the stage to receive them from the hands of George W. Hug, city school superintendent.

Savilla Phelps, class valedictorian, gave an interesting and thoughtful inspirational talk, admonishing her classmates not to forget, as they stepped into the bigger and broader fields, the beauty of character and the development of soul.

The violin solo played by Jeanette Scott, class representative elected by the faculty, was particularly well received. Other musical numbers included a piano solo by Elizabeth Boylan, two songs by the girls' quartet, and two songs by the boys' double quartet. Rev. S. Darlow Johnson and Rev. D. J. Howe, each with a child in the class, gave the invocation and benediction, respectively.

Class Awards Are Presented by Wolf

Class awards were made by Principal Fred Wolf as follows: Fred Zielski, gold watch given to most efficient industrial arts student by Dr. W. B. Morse and Hartman brothers; Lillian Parrish, first and Mary White, second, Latin attainment awards of $15 and $10 each given by Paul Wallace; Esther Spiers, highest scholar in American history test, $5 given by American Legion auxiliary; George Sugai, Joseph H. Albert award to member of class showing greatest self-development and class usefulness.

Members of the graduating class listed on the official program are:

WAR MOTHERS RETURN HOME

Indelible Impressions of Journeys in France is Brought Back of hundreds of French war mothers, in black, who stood on the dock silently weeping as they drew up in a tender at Cherbourg. "It was a simple thing," she said. "There was nothing official about it at all. They just stood there waiting for us—tears in their eyes, holding out their hands. But we didn't need to talk.

"There was a band and as we approached the dock it was playing the Marseillaise. I said to myself, 'If it was the Star Spangled Banner, I shall cry.' It did and the tears came—but then I felt better."

Mrs. William H. Sidells, Newberry, Fla., who sent a telegram to President Hoover today, because she wanted him to know how grateful she and the others felt, said it was the beauty of the cemetery in which her son is buried that touched her most.

All but one of those who went away in the first unit, returned today.

HALBEUR-BILL IS VETOED BY HOOVER

Includes such a controversy and it is doubtful to say the least, whether such jurisdiction would be constitutionally conferred upon the district courts by this act.

Another objection transmitted to the house lay in the contention that it turned over to the state the initiative and conduct of litigation involving water rights and public lands in which the United States is interested.

The ruling cited that the supreme court has jurisdiction to entertain a suit by the government against Oregon to try the title to the beds of the lakes and to determine whether they are navigable and whether the title passed to the state upon its admission to the union.

The bill which President Hoover vetoed Friday was the subject of a resolution which occasioned bitter controversy in the 1929 legislative session here.

Opposition to the resolution here was attributed to a lobby of power interests, but the opponents on the floor of the legislature based their arguments on a

The Call Board

By OLIVE M. DOAK

BLIGH'S CAPITOL Today—"Wall Street" and R. K. O. Orpheum. FOX ELGINORE Today—"Caught Short" and Fanchon and Marco. HOLLYWOOD Today—"Half Way to Heaven." THE GRAND Today—"Such Men are Dangerous."

R. K. O. Orpheum at Bligh's Capitol beginning today offers a novel in the way of stage shows according to advance information. The novelty is a trained seal, Charlie by name, who dances, sings, and otherwise performs to the amusement of his audience.

In addition to the seal star there is Ledova, who headlines the dancing numbers for R. K. O. today and tomorrow. A musical act of music and hokum will be given by Fred Reynolds and Allie White.

And a person interesting because he is himself and because he is Freddie Lightner's brother is Fred Lightner who with Rosella will offer what is promised to be an "uproarious" comedy. If he is anything like Willie it will be that and more.

"Good Fellows" will be at the Fox Elsinore this weekend, and from what we know of "good fellows" this bill should be real entertainment. First there is a male chorus which sings such songs as "Old Heidelberg" song, "Stein Song," "Sing, you Sinner, Sing" and many more which hold the kind of harmony that fits male voices admirably. Bud Averall leads this chorus.

For spice there is Harrison and Elma, blackface comedians, in a line of chatter and dancing that is heralded as "convulsive," and then there is Helen Burke in jazzy syncopated dancing, and Lucille Page, beautiful, a high kicker and acrobatic dancer. All told it sounds good.

Women's Title At Stake Today

TULSA, Okla., June 6.—(AP)—Two feminine wizards of mid-western links, Mrs. Dorothy Klotz Pardue, Sioux City, Iowa, and Mrs. Hulbert S. Clarke, Oklahoma City, will meet in a 36 hole match over the tricky Tulsa Country club course here tomorrow for the championship of the Women's trans-Mississippi Golf association.

PANTAGES WINS IN PLEA FOR RELEASE

LOS ANGELES, June 6.—(AP)—Alexander T. Pantages, multi-millionaire theatre owner, was released from county jail today under $100,000 bond. He had been held in custody since October pending decision on his appeal from a one to fifty year penitentiary sentence for criminal assault.

Pantages won in the state supreme court today the fight he has waged since December for release on bond in order that he might obtain expert medical care for a heart ailment, recurrent attack of which had caused his confinement in the jail hospital for five months.

The high court ruled the man's life was endangered by his confinement, after considering evidence presented at three hearings in the superior court at which Pantages failed to win temporary release.

and Coke company for the construction of gas mains through city streets. The gas line will tap the main trunk line of the company at Gervais and will pass through Mount Angel, according to company officials.

The Silverton franchise, which was passed unanimously by members of the council, provides that work must begin on the project within 120 days, and that, unless some unavoidable delay is occasioned, it must be completed by January 1, 1931. It is reported that a branch office, with a full time service man, will be established at Silverton after completion of the mains.

A Mr. Leavens, representing the gas company, appeared before the council on Tuesday, and said that, should the firm accept the terms of the contract, work will begin as soon as materials could be assembled. Pipe has already been ordered from eastern mills, and will probably arrive about August 1.

Farmer Is Slain In Shotgun Duel

ELIDA, N. M., June 6.—(AP)—Lying five hours on the open prairie with three shotgun wounds, J. J. Sanders, ranchman, was finally taken to his home where he died today. A prominent ranchman and Hereford breeder, was taken into custody. The shooting was said to have followed an altercation between the men Thursday over strayed stock.

in the state and $5,000,000 is spent annually in wages and material. Most of this money is spent in the respective communities in which the laundries are located.

Other speakers on yesterday's program were: Rev. W. Earl Cochran of Salem who gave the invocation; Mayor T. A. Livesley, who extended welcome to the visitors; Glen Fabrick of Medford who responded to the welcome and later gave a talk on advertising; Perry G. Allen of Portland who related the association's accomplishments in the past 10 years; R. J. Hendricks of the cost accounting department, L. N. A. Ralph Gilbert gave a paper as did also R. H. Windishar of Salem.

SCOUT LOSES LIFE IN RESCUE EFFORT

NEWPORT, Wash., June 6.—(AP)—Stanley Stanton, a 14-year old Boy Scout, drowned in the Pend Oreille river in a vain attempt to rescue Emil Clausnitzer, 12, with whom he had been swimming.

Stanton and Clausnitzer, with Robert Van Amburgh, 14 and Kirk Towlands, 12, had been swimming in back water of the river a mile and a half from here. Stanton and Van Amburgh were preparing to return home and the two younger boys were rowing on a raft. Clausnitzer told them to wait and he would go with them. He dived into the water, but soon called for help.

Noted Editor Is Dead at 35 of Heart Disease

NEW YORK, June 6.—(AP)—G. D. Eaton, founder and editor of the Magazine Plain Talk, died tonight in St. Mark's hospital of heart disease. He was about 35 years old.

Since he left the University of Michigan during the World War Eaton has been active in newspaper and literary work. During the last three years, since Plain Talk was founded, he devoted himself to the magazine. Earlier he contributed to magazines, notably the American Mercury, and published a novel "Black Furrow."

For a time he was on the staff of the Associated Press in New York. He also was connected with the Morning Telegraph here and with newspapers in Detroit.

It has Everything!

The SEA BRIDE

By BEN AMES WILLIAMS

Tang of the Sea

THE whaling ship "Sally Simms" carries Capt. Noll Wing and his youthful bride Faith on their honeymoon trip. The witchery of the sea takes away from her the man she loves and leaves in his stead a hard-bitten, hard-drinking whaling captain.

Spice of Romance

ROMANCE creeps into this situation when it was most unexpected and jealousy and suspicion add their bits to complicate the trying situation in which Faith finds herself on her honeymoon.

Pepper of Action

UNEXPECTED drama and the happy solution of Faith's predicament are brought about because sailors are a two-fisted, slugging lot, given to action rather than soft words. It is one of the reasons "The Sea Bride" has everything!
