Afternoon Tea Beautiful Event

ONE of the outstanding affairs in weeks in the realm of the younger social circles of Salem, was the tea given by Miss Marjorie Crites at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Crites, Saturday afternoon between the hours of 4 and 6 o'clock.

The guest rooms were artistically arranged with roses and tapers to carry out the color scheme of pink and green. The serving table at which Miss Cecil McKecher and Mrs. James Burgess presided during the afternoon, was centered with a delicate arrangement of pink rose buds and lighted pink tapers.

The guests were greeted at the door by the little Misses Barbara and Betty Crites and directed to the living rooms where Mrs. J. W. Crites received with the young hostesses.

Those who assisted in serving during the tea hours were Margaret Bursette, Eleanor Wright, Ruth Anna Crites, and Dorothy Moore.

The guest list for the afternoon included the Misses:

Music Convention To Be Brilliant Affair

AN event that promises to be one of the brilliant highlights of the year for the musical world of Salem will be the fifteenth annual convention of Oregon Music Teacher's association which will open here June 16 and continue through Tuesday.

The outstanding part of the convention from the public standpoint are the two programs which will be given by artists brought here for this occasion by the association, Monday night Josef Borissoff, violinist of note, will play a splendidly balanced program including such composers as Chopin, Debussy, Liszt, and one of the artists own compositions.

Tuesday evening Olga Steeb will play a piano recital which includes some numbers seldom heard in Salem. Miss Steeb program includes:

- Tocatta and Fugue D minor
 - Rondo, A minor
 - Caprice (Alceste)
 - Concert Etude D flat
 - Rhapsody, Op. 79, No. 1
 - Scherzo, sharp minor
 - Chopin's Clair de Lune
 - The Fountain of Aquia Paolo
 - The White Peacock
 - Spinning Girls of Caranto
 - Suite "In Brittany"
 - Rhapsodie in C major
- To the teachers and supervisors who will be present to the number of about 400 it is expected, the program of speakers will hold great interest as well as the program evenings.
- Mrs. Clifford Moore, president of the association, will speak the opening address and to this Dr. Carl G. Doney will respond. There will be what promises valuable information in the talks to be made by David Scheetz-Craig, editor of "Music and Musicians" and by Carl Denton of Portland, long associated with the Portland symphony orchestra. C. A. Howard, state superintendent of schools will speak on the subject of "High school music credits in private instruction."
- Dr. C. L. Sherman of Willamette university will speak on "Psychology and the Mind." David Campbell of Portland and Arthur Boardman will each speak on pedagogical problems.
- From the standpoint of the music supervisor the lecture by Glenn H. Wood, supervisor of music in the Oakland, California schools, on the subject of group instruction will be of great interest. Mr. Woods will also discuss "Music Elsewhere" touching on the music of other countries.
- Dr. A. B. Anderson of Oregon State college will discuss "Sound as applied to Music" and an outstanding lecture will be given by Joseph Borissoff, one of the artists on the evening program will speak on "Music in America."

Home Wedding Beautiful Event

MISS VELLEDA OHMART, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Ohmart, became the bride of Paul Williams Allen in a beautiful ceremony at the Ohmart home Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. Fred C. Taylor of the First Methodist church read the impressive single ring ritual using a bible which belonged to a great grandmother of the bride.

Miss Aldeane Smith accompanied by Miss Roy W. Ohmart, officiated at the ceremony, and as the bride party took its place Miss Henderson played softly the wedding march from Mendelssohn. The ceremony was performed before a background of palms, softly burning red rose tapers, and high baskets of long stemmed flowers. All about the guest rooms field daisies and roses were used in graceful profusion.

The bride was very lovely in a gown of filmy eggshell crepe, made princess style, with lace and French flowers at the throat. Her gown was draped a sheer jacket through which was silhouetted the lace beneath. Silver slippers, a good omen gift, an old gold bead necklace, the gift of a great-grandfather to his bride and handed down through the generations to the bride of Saturday, and a shower bouquet of Cecil Brunner roses and sweet peas in pastel shades completed the bride's costume.

Miss Louise Allen, sister of the groom, was maid of honor. She wore a frock of rose chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of sweet peas in pastel shades arranged with long pink satin ribbon streamers.

Following the ceremony a reception was held for Mr. and Mrs. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Ohmart, and Mr. and Mrs. William Allen received with the bride and groom. Assisting about the rooms and in serving were Mrs. Mervin Fidler, Miss Irene Breithaupt, and Miss Pearl Scott.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Allen left for a motor trip to British Columbia. They will be at home to their friends in Salem after June 22. Mrs. Allen is a graduate of Salem high school, and attended Willamette university where she is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority. Mr. Allen also graduated from Salem high school and is now employed on the staff of the United States National bank.

Miss Maxine Stout Camp Fire Hostess

Miss Maxine Stout, leader of the Rose group of the Blue Birds, entertained the girls at her home Friday evening with a treasure hunt. After long searching Rebekah Putnam found the treasure snugly hidden beneath the ground.

A additional members in this group are Genevieve Tucker, Eilene Tucker, Muriel Stinson, Echo Campbell. Games were played following the hunt and later refreshments were served in most unique fashion. Mrs. John Campbell is advisor for this group.

All Camp Fire girls are looking forward to the time which they will spend in camp Saturday some time in August. Plans are not yet complete for this event.

Methodist Church Women Have Tea

The last meeting of the year for the Woman's Home Missionary society was held Wednesday in the church parlors. There will be one other meeting but it will be a special joint meeting held with the Foreign Missionary society and will come sometime in July.

Officers were elected at the business hour. Mrs. C. F. Wilson will serve as president to succeed herself. Mrs. R. C. Glover, vice president; Mrs. D. H. Mosher, treasurer; Mrs. R. D. Waterman, secretary; Mrs. Harriet Durkheim, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. O. Russell, missionary education committee; Mrs. U. G. Boyer, stewardship; Mrs. A. B. Hansen, evangelism; Mrs. Almira Hale, supply secretary; Mrs. F. C. DeLong, mite box secretary; Mrs. Nettie Schramm, temperance; Mrs. L. Nelson, young people's secretary; Mrs. B. T. Kumlir, children's work.

Mrs. Ronald Glover reported on the district convention held in Dallas, May 8. Mrs. John Canse also spoke on the "High Standard Contest." Other women from the First Methodist church, who were on the program in Dallas were Mrs. J. W. Beckley, and Mrs. E. T. Kumlir. Mrs. C. P. Wilson, Mrs. B. B. Blatchford, Mrs. E. C. Miller, and Mrs. Walter Winslow.

Women who were not on the program, but who attended the district meeting were the Messdames Hale, Wood, Balderree, McAdams, Schramm, Evans, Carrier, Durkheimer, Vandervort, Savage, Ohlinger, Swafford, Fargo, Miss Dayton, Miss Sutherland.

At the conclusion of the afternoon meeting Wednesday afternoon an interesting program was given. Miss Margaret Sutherland presented a group of Queen Esther Girls in a short play, "The Revolt of Anne Hastings." In this play, the parts were taken by Florence Taylor, Cleo Wood, Vada Wintermute, Edith Mac Lord, and Martha Kumlir.

At the conclusion of the program the members went to the home of the minister of First church, Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Taylor, where they were entertained with a delightful tea hour.

The guests were met at the door by Dr. and Mrs. Taylor, and Mrs. F. C. Wilson. Assisting about the rooms and with the serving were the wives of ministers who are members of First church. Mrs. Ronald Glover was in charge of the dining room and was assisted by Mrs. Yarnes, Mrs. Edgar Fortner, Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, Mrs. Almira E. Hale and Mrs. I. L. McAdams.

D. A. R. Install Officers At Country Home Of Mrs. S. Jones

The last meeting of the season for Daughters of the American Revolution was held at the country home of Mrs. Seymour Jones Saturday afternoon. The guest rooms of the Jones home were delightfully arranged with a profusion of garden flowers. The tea table was a lovely study in flowers in pastel shades combined with lighted tapers in accentuating colors. Mrs. Jones was assisted in serving by Mr. C. C. Best, Mrs. H. T. Love, Mrs. Frank Newcomb, Mrs. E. M. Hoffnell, Mrs. Edward Jory, Mrs. J. Lyman Steed, and Miss Ruth Rulifson.

The business meeting was given over to reports of the year's work and to the installation of officers.

Mrs. C. C. Clark acted as installing officer for the impressive ceremony which placed Mrs. John Orr in the regent's chair to succeed Mrs. W. H. Byrd.

Other chapter officers formally installed were Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo, vice regent; Mrs. U. G. Shipley, chaplain; Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, recording secretary; Mrs. C. C. Best, corresponding secretary; Mrs. U. G. Boyer, treasurer; Mrs. C. F. Turner, historian; Mrs. J. R. Allgood, librarian; Mrs. H. J. Ostlund, musician; and Mrs. C. C. Clark, parliamentarian.

Monmouth Wedding Pretty Event

Miss Leola Meeker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Meeker of this city, became the bride of Karl Lauerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Lauerman, Sr., at a pretty wedding at noon Thursday, in the Monmouth Christian church.

Mrs. Victor P. Morris played the wedding march from Wagner, and accompanied the Misses Lena and Frances Frizzell who sang "I Love You Truly" presiding the ceremony. Rev. Victor P. Morris read the service before a group of 30 relatives and friends, and the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Meeker was attractively gowned in pink and wore a white hat. Her bouquet was of rosebuds, columbine and fern. Her sister, wore orchid silk crepe with a la-Miss Ruth Meeker, the bridesmaid, vendor hat and carried pale pink sweet peas. Herman Lauerman, brother of the groom, acted as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served in the church parlors. Mr. and Mrs. Lauerman left by motor for a trip in the south, and will be at home in July at Sumner, Oregon, where he is engaged in a lumber enterprise.

Missionary Society Plans Meet

Members of the First Methodist church Foreign Missionary society will meet in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon for the annual mite box ceremony. Mrs. Thomas Holman will have charge of this ceremony.

An outstanding event for the afternoon will be the talk given by Miss Louise Corner, who has just returned from five years spent in India as a missionary. This will be the first talk Miss Corner has made in Salem and promises to be an exceptionally interesting one. Women of the church and friends are invited to be present.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher will have charge of the devotions. Special music will be given by Mrs. Thomas D. Yarnes.

Piano Student Is Presented

Corra Bushnell Hendry presented Robert Carpenter in recital at the American Lutheran church Friday night before an interested audience. Mr. Carpenter was assisted in this program by Bud-die Rogers at the organ, Chester McCain, cello, and Kenneth Abbott, vocalist.

Ushers for this evening were Miss Victoria Schneider, Miss Mildred Abbott, Richard Smart, and William Lindstrom.

Bride-Elect Honored With Affairs

Miss Margaret Breitenstein, popular bride elect, will be the inspiration for two delightful parties this week. Mrs. Frank Deckebach and Mrs. Milton Steiner will entertain Tuesday night in compliment to Miss Breitenstein, and Mrs. Wallace Carson will entertain Wednesday.
