

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Beautiful Church Wedding Friday Event

Miss Roberta Riggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William English, was married to Edwin D. Rounds, son of Mrs. Linnie Rounds of Portland, Friday night at 8:30 o'clock in an impressive and beautifully simple double rite ceremony at the Highland Friends church, Rev. I. G. Lee of Star, Idaho, and former pastor of the church, officiated.

The service took place before a lovely background of lattice-work effect twined with graceful branches of Oregon ocean spray, myrtle and flowers in delicate pastel shades. Large baskets of flowers were used in profusion about the front of the church and banked on either side of the altar. Miss Riggs, very beautiful in a heavy oyster satin gown made in princess style with a long train, a cap veil bound with orange blossoms, the train of which fell over the long train of the dress, and carrying an arm bouquet of white lilies, came in on the arm of her brother, Earle Riggs, who gave her in marriage.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Doryce Ross as a professional and recessional. Miss Ross also was accompanist for William Wright who sang before the ceremony "Because" and for Miss Lucille Cummings who sang "Beloved, it is Morn."

The bride was attended by Miss Edith Riggs, maid of honor, who wore a frock of yellow georgette and carried flowers in harmonizing shades. The bridesmaids in pastel georgette frocks and carrying arm bouquets of sweet peas and other harmonizing flowers were Miss Doris Mae Gardner, Miss Genevieve Beckett, Miss Ruth Barnes, and Miss Effie Grimes.

Wee Stanley Hubbard in a pale blue satin suit carried the rings in a large cala My, and little Miss Dorothea Feller in a bouffant frock of pink satin was the dainty flower girl.

The best man was Joseph Silver of Newberg and ushers were Harold Mosher and Harry Pradeaux of Portland, Charles Campbell of Dallas, and Walter Warner of Monmouth.

There were 200 invitations issued for this wedding and guests attended from Portland, Monmouth and Dallas. Mrs. Clifton Ross entertained the immediate relatives and the bridal party with a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. English and Mrs. Rounds poured and Mrs. Ross was assisted in serving by Miss Doryce Ross.

Mr. Rounds is a great grandson of the late Nelson Roads, president of Willamette university. Mrs. Rounds is a junior in Willamette and a member of the Sigma Tau fraternity. Mrs. Rounds also attended Willamette university, as well as attending Salem high school for a time.

Mr. and Mrs. Rounds left Friday night for a short wedding trip and after that they will at home in Salem.

Silverton.—Miss Althea Meyer was the inspiration of a happy surprise party at her home on Paradise road Tuesday evening when her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer, entertained for her, the occasion being her birthday.

The early part of the evening was spent in a treasure hunt through the fields and pastures of the neighborhood. The hunt was arranged that Miss Meyer and her group arrived at the end of the trail first and a number of lovely gifts for Miss Meyer proved to be the treasure.

Following the treasure hunt the remainder of the evening was spent in playing games on the Meyer lawn and listening to the music furnished by Marbo Thompson on his steel guitar. At 11:00 o'clock a buffet supper was served in the dining room where yellow tapers and a bowl of yellow roses assisted in carrying out a yellow and white color scheme. Assisting Miss Meyer in serving were Mrs. M. J. Madsen, Mrs. Victor Madsen and Miss Lillie Madsen.

The guest list for the evening included Edna Stortz of Salem, Esther Borvik, Inga Goplerud, Cora Goplerud, Luella Forland, Alva Johnson, Helen and Martha Thompson, Stella Dybevik, Lela Stortz, Frances Nelson, Inez Lee, Lillie Madsen, Irl and Elmer Grace, Harbo Thompson, John Goplerud, Arnold Thompson, Clifford Eklund, Richard Holm, Henry Bjorth, Mrs. M. J. Madsen and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Meyer, Ludwig Freyer, and Miss Althea Meyer completed the party.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Saturday, June 14
Daughters of Veterans, tea hostesses at Woman's club house to wives and widows of Civil war veterans, and to Grand Army members.
President's reception at Lausanne hall, between 8 and 10 o'clock. In compliment to seniors and trustees and friends of university invited.

Sunday, June 15
Annual state reunion of American War Mother's chapters of Oregon, Clatsop; picnic dinner at 1:30 o'clock. All those going notify Mrs. Minnie Humphrey, 1735 W.

Convention Guests Will Arrive Sunday

One of the outstanding guests of the Oregon Music Teacher's association convention which will open in Salem Monday at 9:00 o'clock in Waller hall, Willamette university, will be Josef Borisoff of Los Angeles, concert master of Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, and noted violinist who will be a speaker on the Monday program and who will be heard in a beautiful violin program Monday night at Waller hall. Mr. Borisoff will arrive in Salem Sunday.

According to his plans, Mr. Borisoff will be in New York city, ready to sail for Europe June 26. Before leaving New York City, he will be a guest of his old master, Leopold Auer.

Monday evening, Miss Dorothy Perre, who has just returned from New York city after a tour of Europe, will entertain with her mother Mrs. George Pearce, with an informal reception in compliment to Mr. Borisoff. Salem Music Teachers' association members will be assistant hosts for this affair.

Among those to be complimented with Mr. Borisoff are Mrs. Clifford Moore, president of the state association; Miss Frances Virginia Melton, Frank Churchill, Myron Jacobson, Mrs. Charles Heinlein, Walter May, and others of note who will arrive in Salem Sunday evening and Monday.

A second large social affair for the convention will be the banquet to be held at the Marion hotel on Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Samuel F. Owin will be vocalist for this occasion and will be accompanied by Ruth Bradley Keiser of Portland.

Mrs. Owin's numbers will include "My Mother Bids Me Bind My Hair," Hayden; "Verborogen," Hugo Wolf; "Attracta Children," Rachmaninoff; "N'neige," Remberg; "Ho Messo Muove Corde," Gounod.

Anyone interested in attending this banquet may do so by making reservations.

Mrs. L. E. Bean Is Feted

Much attention has been paid Mrs. L. E. Bean, who with her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Bean and her two sons, Alexander and Louis Jr., will leave for Eugene this weekend where they will make their home.

Mrs. Ervin Smith, Mrs. Howard Blake and Mrs. Willis Roughton entertained for Mrs. Bean Monday afternoon at an attractive informal tea. Mrs. E. C. Cross complimented Mrs. Bean with a day at the Cross cabin at Cascadia Locks, Thursday. Those making up the party were the honor guest, Mrs. Bean and Mrs. Prince B. Kay, Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mrs. C. A. Robinson, Mrs. W. A. Laidlaw, Mrs. Alice Dodd, Mrs. E. Hartley, and Mrs. Cross. Mrs. W. A. Laidlaw was hostess in compliment to Mrs. Bean Tuesday.

Turner—Flower mission day was observed by the Turner W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. M. A. Hill, Mrs. E. S. Prather had charge of a varied and interesting program. At the close of the meeting flowers were arranged making 21 bouquets with cards for the sick and shut-ins. There was also a round table discussion of some of the leading issues of the day and plans were laid whereby correct facts and figures on moral issues, may be placed where there seems to be a lack of information.

Mrs. Hill served dainty refreshments at the close of a social hour. She was assisted by Mrs. L. D. Roberts.

Mrs. Freyman Boise entertained for her club Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Beatrice Merrill Is Complimented

Salem Heights.—On her sixty-sixth birthday anniversary, Mrs. Beatrice G. Merrill of Salem Heights was honored by a dinner given at her home by her relatives. Those present were A. J. Gragg, a brother of Mrs. Merrill, Merrill, David and Kenneth of Salem, Mrs. William Zosel, a niece of Coquille, Oregon, Albert Gragg, a nephew and wife and daughter, Carol Jean, of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. VanCleve, son-in-law and daughter and children, Merrill, David and Kenneth of Salem Heights. Mrs. Merrill received many beautiful gifts during the week, but none more dear to her she says than an Oregon pioneer poster presented her by the Salem Heights grade pupils of Mrs. Wiegand and Mrs. Booth. Mrs. Merrill has on two occasions given these students first hand information of early Oregon pioneering in which she participated. The poster was a token of their appreciation.

Local Woman Will Act as President

Mrs. E. E. Bergman has been given the signal honor of representing the national president of the Daughters of Union Veterans, Miss Grace Hurd of Seattle, for the coming state convention for Washington state Daughters.

The Washington state convention will take place June 17, 18, and 19, in Yakima. This department is one of the largest in the United States and it is expected that a large convention will be in session when the meeting convenes.

Mrs. Bergman is the third national council member and this was one reason for Miss Hurd choosing her as the president's representative when it was not possible for Miss Hurd to be present. Mrs. Bergman leaves Tuesday morning for Yakima.

Contract Bridge Club Entertained

Mrs. James Linn entertained with a special afternoon for the Monday Contract bridge club Wednesday. Mrs. Guy Sargeant of San Francisco was a special guest.

Club members present were Mrs. T. A. Livesley, Mrs. Harry Hawkins, Mrs. Dan Fry, Jr., Mrs. William B. Oot, Mrs. William Walton, Mrs. O. C. Locke, and Mrs. A. Bush.

Independence.—The Dorcas society of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. A. H. Dixon Monday night, Mrs. Frank Bush and Mrs. N. Versteeg having charge of the social activities of the evening.

At the close of the evening a lunch was served. Those present were Mrs. Elmer Busby, Mrs. Radmaker, Mrs. B. F. Swope, Miss Ida Bush, Mrs. Frank Bush, Mrs. N. Versteeg, Mrs. Arthur Ward, Miss Virgine Helie and Mrs. Dixon.

Plans were made to hold the next meeting in the city park and have a pot luck supper. This meeting will be the first Monday in July.

Statesman Pattern

1939

By ANNE ADAMS
The lines of the newest models are particularly lovely for the woman who is no longer slender. For example, the model shown today has a pointed vestee, narrow rolled collar and pointed skirt flare. . . all details that slenderize the figure. The tiny tucks at shoulders and waistline give additional fullness where most essential.

Pattern 1939 has long sleeves if you should prefer them, but the three quarter sleeve with graceful flare is new and extremely becoming. This charming frock is exceptionally lovely made of printed or plain georgette, chiffon, voile or silk crepe. Both dark and light grounds are popular this season.

May be ordered only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 3 3/4 yards of 39 inch fabric and by yard trimming.

No dressmaking experience necessary. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given.

Send fifteen cents in coins carefully wrapped, or stamps, for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

Our book of patterns for adults and children, also transfer patterns, fifteen cents; ten cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

Bride-Elect Honored

Salem Heights.—Wednesday evening at the community hall, the ladies of Salem Heights gave a shower in honor of Miss Hazel Jones, bride-elect of Harvey Pruitt. In the early part of the evening a program was given by Marguerite Bloomenberg Dalton, and Lucille Browning and a mock wedding by the Chateneaux club. After the program all retired to the dining room to open the gifts which were arrayed on a prettily decorated table centered with tall tapers surrounding a large bouquet of pinks, roses and baby breath. Following this refreshments were served by Mrs. George Wilson, Nina Browning and Bessie Pruitt. There were about 50 ladies present. The affair was arranged under the supervision of Mrs. George Wilson.

Brush College Helpers Elect Officers

Brush College.—Election of officers for the coming year was held by the Brush College Helpers at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Esther Oliver Thursday. Mrs. A. Ewing and Mrs. Oliver White were re-elected as president and vice president, respectively. Mrs. Fred Olsen was elected secretary-treasurer to succeed Mrs. Charles McCarter. Following the business meeting Mrs. Oliver was assisted by Mrs. Tressa Bayer in serving refreshments.

Members present were Mrs. Charles McCarter, Mrs. John Schindler, Mrs. A. R. Ewing, Mrs. Louis Himmel, Mrs. Oliver Whitney, Mrs. U. J. Lehman, Mrs. Harry Bonney, Mrs. Tressa Bayer and small daughter Ann and Mrs. Oliver.

Salem Lads Will Leave for Orient

Frank Cross, Claybourn Dyer, and Frank Spears, Jr., will leave for Seattle this weekend from which place they will sail Tuesday on an Oriental tour under the direction of the national Y. M. C. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Spears and Frank Jr., will leave Sunday by motor for Hahon Island where they will meet Mrs. Russell Catlin who is visiting there and from there they will proceed to Seattle Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Cross, Mrs. E. C. Cross and children will accompany Frank Cross to Seattle Monday by motor. Mr. and Mrs. W. Council Dyer and Claybourn will leave for Seattle Sunday. This party is also driving to Seattle.

Thursday Club Ends Season

Mrs. C. G. Rodgers entertained for the final meeting of the Thursday club for this season Thursday. As is the custom of the club scores are given at the end of the series. For this spring series Mrs. A. Bush won high score and Mrs. O. C. Locke won second. At the completion of playing and awarding of scores Mrs. Rodgers served tea.

Mrs. T. A. Livesley, her house guest, Mrs. Guy Sargeant of San Francisco, Mrs. Robert Kinny of Seattle, house guest of Mrs. A. N. Moore, and Mrs. William Boot were special guests.

Kingwood.—Fourteen members and eight guests of the Laurel Social Hour club gathered Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Edward Finley for their regular semi-monthly meeting. Mrs. J. Applewhite presided at the business session. A responsive roll call followed and Mrs. Applewhite read a sereed which described humorously a meeting of the clubs. Games and needlework were enjoyed during the afternoon. Mrs. Finley was assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Jack Lynch, Mrs. J. B. Smith and Mrs. A. L. Applewhite.

Members present were Mesdames M. P. Brown, George Steward, Theodore Bernard, G. L. Adams, Mrs. J. A. Yantis, Eugene Krebs, Albert Beckman, W. J. Page, B. B. Flack, A. L. Applewhite, R. A. Blevins and the hostess, Mrs. Edward Finley.

Visitors were Mrs. J. R. Chapman, Mrs. Jack Lynch, Mrs. Olive Gault, Miss Catherine Applewhite, juvenile guests, David Brown and Gene Beckman.

Mrs. Eugene Krebs will be hostess at the next meeting, June 24.

Middle Grove.—The ladies auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. Harvey Walker for its monthly meeting.

After the devotional exercises, the afternoon was spent in piecing quilt blocks and preparing for a bazaar.

Those present were Mrs. W. M. English, Mrs. Hugh McCain, Mrs. W. H. Scharf, Mrs. Lena Bartruff, Mrs. Mary Herndon, Mrs. Frank Scharf, Mrs. Kate Bartruff, Mrs. Irvin Wagers, and Mrs. Harvey Walker. Mrs. August Scharf of Santa Monica, Cal., and Mrs. Stewart Walker of Salem were also present. Refreshments were served.

Jefferson.—An appreciative audience gathered at the Methodist church, Tuesday evening, to enjoy the recital given by voice and piano pupils of Mrs. J. O. Van Winkle. The program was given by Juanita Holt, Mrs. Van Winkle, Beulah Robinson, Verna Watkins, Gilbert Spragg, Cecelia Robinson, Gladys Walling and Dallas Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Charlton returned Wednesday from a tour into California as far as San Francisco. In San Francisco Harold M. Charlton was visited and J. Jarvis, father of Mrs. Charlton, was visited in Bandon, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Hewitt were not able to leave for New York City Friday as anticipated by them because of the illness of Mrs. Hewitt. It was not determined Friday just when it would be possible for them to leave.

Members of the Writers' section of the Salem Arts league will meet at the home of Mrs. B. L. Steeves at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening.

MASS. HIGH WINS TROPHY

Miss Alwine M. Megowe, with the William Randolph Hearst Trophy, which goes to the rifle team of the Gloucester High School, Gloucester, Mass. The group of marksmen won the eastern rifle championship.

Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. What is the proper hour for the Sunday night supper?
A. Seven o'clock.
Q. When one is asked some information by a stranger, what should he do?
A. Be as cheerful as possible and give him the information in a courteous manner.
Q. Should a man hold his hat in his hand when in a shop with a woman?
A. No.

Woman's Golf Finals Played Off Friday

Mrs. J. H. Garnjob won in the woman's finals of the spring golf handicap tournament at the Salem Golf club Friday afternoon playing against Mrs. Paul Hendricks. This concludes the series of Friday tournament playing.

W. C. T. U. to Have Flower Service

The W. C. T. U. women of the Annual "flower mission" service at the Union hall Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Rachel Reeder will be the leader for this service. There will be a special program given and some very important business is to come before the session, therefore it is urged that all members be present.

The program will be a repetition of the one given before the state convention and will hold much interest for all.

Gervais.—Phillip J. Stroda of Harrisburg and Miss Roberta Horning of Gervais were married at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Catholic church at St. Louis. Rev. Father Charles Krause officiating. They were attended by Miss Cecilia Barbara Stroda, sister of the groom, and Robert Horning, brother of the bride.

The bride was attired in a gown of apricot georgette and wore a hat of natural colors. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The church was decorated in harmonizing colors. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Horn.

After a pleasant afternoon of visiting and playing games, the young couple left for Harrisburg where they will reside on the Stroda farm in a new house which is being built for them.

The history section of the Salem Arts league will meet Monday night at the city library for the last meeting of the season. Summer trips will be taken instead of regular meetings. This schedule will continue during the summer.

SPENDING VACATION

LABISH CENTER, June 12.—Miles Doyle of Lebanon is spending his summer vacation with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Daugherty and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Leedy and daughter Phyllis of Tigard are here caring for their onion crop. Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Hayes and family, accompanied by Miss Hilda Spreed were members of a party who spent a four days outing in the vicinity of Bend. Mr. Hayes, of the Hayes onion and mint ranch, is an ardent fisherman and was quite successful at the sport, bringing home a fine lot of trout.

The first all-Chinese post-office in the United States has been established in San Francisco to serve America's largest Chinatown.

VALSETZ GRADUATES LARGE CLASSES

VALSETZ, June 13.—Commencement exercises of the Valsetz grade school were held Tuesday, June 10, at the community hall.

The graduates from the eighth grade are: Frank Keston, Jay Yeager, Alf Fosham, Dorothy Wiggins, Bradley Gates, Wilbur Jobanek, Catherine Hahn, Gordon Brown, Walter Emra, Mabel Emra, Frank Lefener, Ethel Phillips. The class color, silver and blue.

The graduates from high school are Ruth Cox, Mad Emra and Melvin Rose. High school colors are blue and gold. High school flower, rhododendron.

The graduation of the eighth grade presented the school with a big flag, the flag was presented by Dorothy Wiggins and Wilbur Jobanek.

Brush College School Closes

BRUSH COLLEGE, June 13.—Brush College school closed Friday, June 13.

Irene Cutler and Mildred Munson have received certificates of award for perfect attendance being neither absent nor tardy during the school term for 1929. Their teacher, Mrs. Mary Selton presented each of the girls with a nice gift.

An increase in the number of Japanese in Cuba has been noted since enactment of the treaty given Japanese free entry to the island.

ODDS and ENDS GENERAL CLEANUP At SHIPLEY'S

HOSIERY Full fashioned pure thread silk 79c	UNDIES New dull rayon panties, stepins, shorties 55c
HOSIERY Pure thread silk, full fashioned in service weights 1.29	SLIPS White, pink, peach, Nile rayon slips, deep hems 98c
SOX Kiddies half and three-quarter sox, plain and fancy tops 19c	GIRDLES One lot odd and ends brocade girdles 1.00
HOSIERY Silk chiffon in the light summer shades, evening and daytime wear 1.65	GOWNS "Porto Rican Maid," hand embroidered gowns 95c
HATS Cleanup of straws and felts 1.00 1.85 2.95 3.95	COATS For sports wear 8.50 Others to 12.48
FROCKS Crepe de Chine and prints 5 and 7.48 House & porch prints 79c	SPORTS Crepe sport frocks and ensembles 12.45 2 and 3 piece knitted dresses 8.95 to 14.50
HATS Stitched silk hats in tans and the pastel shades 2.95 3.95 and 4.85	BAGS Leather silk and tapes—Special group 1.39 Dress flowers 19c

Open Saturday Nite 'Til 8:30

SHIPLEY'S

Quality Merchandise—Popular Prices

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES at COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

DUCHESS OF ATHOLL

Swallowed up in her black toga, but piquant and lively, Her Grace, the Duchess of Atholl, was the center of attention at Columbia University commencement exercises. The veteran of a war in Africa and of many wars a delegate in Parliament, marched with nearly 5,000 students to the strains of "Stand Columbia" and on a special honor platform received the degree of Doctor of Laws.