

Events of Interest in Social - Musical - Club Circles :-

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

If one looked down the social calendar one would not have to consult the calendar of time to determine the month. Weddings are coming and have been happening until it would seem there is little time for aught else.

Beginning with Monday there is a wedding which will be of interest to Salem each day of the week until Thursday. Miss Evelyn Hartung will become the bride of Clive Zeller Monday evening; Miss Rose Ellen Hale will be wedded to Ian McIver Tuesday evening to Newberg; Miss Helen Savage will become the bride of Lars Bergsvik Wednesday. A few more that are coming very soon are weddings of Miss Marjorie Miller to Gibson Follis June 22; Miss Margaret Breitenstein to Verne Miller, the date of which is not yet certain, and the marriage of Miss Dorothy Livesley which is perhaps the farthest away of any of these important affairs.

In addition to marriages this coming week will be the final note of graduation. Sent to solemn black and impressive tricornered hats will take their way up the long aisle of the First Methodist church Monday morning and receive the long coveted sheepskin. Then will come the farewells and then the silence of vacant halls and resounding class rooms.

Aside from these activities there will be little about which to write. Most of the social life will trek to the beaches and for three months the city of Salem will occupy itself mostly with weekend trips and keeping cool, vacations now and then and receiving visitors as they come and go on vacation tours.

Many Weddings Celebrated in Mill City

MILL CITY—Three weddings of interest to residents of Mill City and vicinity were solemnized within the past week. One was that of Ruth Ferris and Leroy Swanson and took place in Salem. Miss Ferris is a daughter of Mrs. Rose Ferris of McCully Mountain and is a graduate of the Mill City high school. During the past winter she taught the Weasel Flat school near Lyons. She is also a graduate of the state normal school. Mr. Swanson is a prosperous farmer of Central Oregon. They will make their home on the groom's farm.

Tuesday morning at the Catholic church in Stoyton Clara Silbernagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Silbernagle of Jordan Valley, became the bride of Frank Peters, the ring ceremony being used. The marriage service was read by the Reverend Father Joseph Scherbring of Silverton.

The bride wore a lovely dress of cream satin. She was attended by her sister, Miss Silbernagle. Edward Silbernagle acted as best man.

Following the ceremony at the church a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents with 20 guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Peters left on a wedding trip to Yellowstone, the way expecting to make stops in Los Angeles, Calif., and several eastern cities. They will return in the late summer and will make their home in the Jordan neighborhood.

The third wedding of interest here was that of Chester Arthur of Mill City and Miss Edna M. Cooke of Independence and took place in Independence Wednesday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur drove to Mill City immediately following the ceremony and were guests at a wedding dinner here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Arthur, parents of the groom. In the afternoon of the same day Mr. and Mrs. Arthur left on a wedding trip which extends over a month to Yellowstone Park. Upon their return they will make their home in Mill City where Mr. Arthur is employed by the Hammond Lumber company.

Mrs. L. W. Speer entertained a group of Tamlawaya Camp Fire girls with a gypsy hike to Cold Springs. Here they cooked their supper over an open fire. Those going out for this two-mile hike were Grace Bailey, Gretchen Spencer, Floris Busick, Cecelia Hanson, Mary Frances Entress, Jean Hewitt, Margaret Gillette, Alida Speer, Shirley Speer, Floyd Speer and Mrs. Speer.

The Camp Fire girls are getting ready for the summer camps. Miss Barbara Rogers, assistant executive of the Portland office will meet the camp committee, Mrs. Luther Stout, Mrs. Lester Hufstader, Miss Georgia Mills, and Mrs. George Clark Saturday to look over the ground at Camp Santaly, where the Camp Fire girls will gather in August.

Hal Patton entertained for Billy Dyer, Frank Spears, Jr., and Frank Cross Friday evening at his home, complimenting these three boys who leave today for Seattle from where they will sail for the Orient Tuesday on a cruise under the auspices of the national Y. M. C. A. After the dinner hour, Mr. Patton entertained the boys with recalling events of his own life some 40 years ago when he was in the Orient.

Mrs. S. C. Dyer and Mrs. J. B. Fleming were guests at the Portland hotel during the Rose festival, returning Friday night with most enthusiastic reports as to the beauty of the festival.

The members of the P. L. E. and F. club will meet for the last time this season Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Pete Hanson on Willard street.

Dance poses, Gunnell and Robb studio pictures; center pictures Kennel Ellis.

Daleth Teth Gimmel Gives Bouffet Supper

MEMBERS of the Daleth Teth Gimmel women's organization of the Willamette university campus entertained with a delightful bouffet supper as part of the university's final college activities during the past week. Mrs. Cecil Monk was the hostess at her home on North Capitol street.

The serving tables were beautifully arranged in a color scheme of yellow and lavender carried out through the use of delphinium and yellow tapers. Miss Florence Decker presided as toastmistress. In the informal program which was given appeared Doris Clarke, Beulah Graham, Josephine Ojson and class songs.

At this event it was announced that five senior members of the organization had been chosen as members of the Alpha Kappa Nu national honorary fraternity.

Seniors and honorary members present were Mrs. Leslie J. Sparks, Mrs. Herbert Rahe, Mrs. W. C. Jones, Mrs. Elsie Allen, Miss Katherine Barker, Miss Marion Beckley, Miss Violet Beecher, Miss Lydia Childs, Miss Leah Fanning, Miss Helen Hughes, Miss Dorothy Hutchason, Miss Marion Morange, Miss Theresa Nanney, Miss Marjorie Nelson, Miss Dorothy Whipple, Miss Roberta Vanice, and Mrs. Monk.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will entertain with a 30-minute play in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon beginning at 2:30 o'clock. This will be followed by a social hour and all the women of the church are invited to be present.

Delta Phi Sorority Has Birthday

The tenth anniversary of the Delta Phi sorority of Willamette university was celebrated with a formal banquet at the Elks temple Friday night. Miss Marie Corner, first president of the sorority acted as toastmistress and responses were made by Dean Hatton Moodhe, Pauline Remington, Virginia Edwards, Mrs. Paul E. Edwards, and Louise Findley and Mildred Strevey Colcord sang.

Alumnae members present from the class of 1929 were Beulah Wampler Welch, Dorothy Ferrier Roberts; 1928, Louise Findley, Bessie Cox, Genevieve Thayer; 1927, Sadie Joe Reed, Edna Wendler, Leitha Miller Landis, Edna Ledbetter, Mildred Tomlinson Phillips.

Other alumnae members present were Mildred Strevey Colcord, Dean Hatton Moodhe, Marie Corner, Hulda Haskaman Atwood, Ruth Ross Rhoten, Adella White Notson, Lucia Carl Hansen, Pauline Remington, Pauline Miller, Eva Ledbetter, Mary Spaulding Fletcher, Margaret Mades.

Special guests were Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Miss Louise Latimer and Miss Frances Virginia Melton. This banquet concluded the

Today We Present . . .

In dance poses as they appeared in the recent revue of Barbara Barnes students, Joyce Chambers, extreme left, lower center to the left is Helene Price who played her senior recital in music representing the department of music in Willamette university; Helen Stiles Walula editor, Willamette university annual, who is the first woman to hold this position for a long time; and Miss Dorothy Pemberton, who will be editor of the college paper, the Collegian, and will also be the first woman to hold this position for some time.

Flavia Downs Will Appear in Recital

One of the interesting events of the musical affairs this spring will be the recital of Mistress Flavia Downs, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Downs at the Nelson hall auditorium this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. She is being assisted by Jessie F. Bush. Assisting her will be Albert W. Chambers, baritone of Portland, and Veta Lenon reader, both students of Marjorie Walker.

Little Miss Downs will play three numbers of her own composition and all in all the program will be outstanding and unique. The public is invited for this recital.

- The program is as follows:
- (a) Valse—op. 64, No. 2 Chopin
 - (b) The Great Adventure Percy E. Fletcher
 - (c) Only a Rose, Amy Woodforde Finden Albert E. Chambers
 - (d) The Playful Kitten Flavia Downs
 - (e) The Frolic of the Elves Flavia Downs
 - (f) In the Jungle Flavia Downs
 - (g) A One Act Play—A Fan and Two Candie Sticks—Veta Lenon
 - (h) It's Morning Lila Strickland
 - (i) Dream's Time Lila Strickland Albert E. Chambers
 - (j) To a Wild Rose MacDowell
 - (k) By a Meadow Brook MacDowell
 - (l) Scotch Form Flavia Downs

Mrs. T. Gilbert Is Hostess

Members of the newly organized Y'smenets club met for their first social evening Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert at which time they entertained their husbands, the Y'smen club with a bouffet supper and a social evening following.

The service tapers were centered with pink spirea and lighted tapers. At the dinner hour officers of the Y'smenets were introduced, Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert, president; Mrs. Ross Niles, vice president; Mrs. Sam Gillette, secretary-treasurer. Amusing response speeches were made by the Y'smen.

A social hour with games and conversation followed the supper hour. In the course of the evening Mrs. Roy Hewitt was presented with a bon voyage book and a handkerchief shower. Guests for this affair were Mr. and Mrs. Ross Niles, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rickli, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gillette, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blinckhorn, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Emmons, Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell, Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoten, Mr. and Mrs. William Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Panek, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hewitt, and Mr. and Mrs. Tinkham Gilbert.

Aurora Matrons Are Entertained

Aurora. — Mrs. Arthur Kell, whose marriage was an event of recent date, was complimented Tuesday by her aunt, Mrs. Frank Miller, who entertained at a bridge luncheon in her honor. Twelve ladies were bidden to meet Mrs. Kell. The small tables were decorated with bride's roses.

Bridge was in play during the afternoon. Mrs. Loran Giesy and Mrs. Strickland held high scores and Mrs. Schwab low. Mrs. Kell was presented with a guest prize. Those who were invited to this delightful affair were Mesdames Arthur Kell, Zeno Schwab, Aurelia Powers, J. W. Sadley, P. O. Ottoway, E. E. Bradt, B. F. Giesy, U. Eiler, Loran Giesy, A. L. Strickland, B. F. Stoner, Arthur Kraus and Mrs. Sidney Spurling of Portland.

Mrs. W. E. Kirk Complimented

Mrs. R. J. Hendricks entertained in compliment to Mrs. W. E. Kirk this week with an attractive luncheon Tuesday with Mr. Kirk for New York City from which place they will sail for Europe. They will be gone a year, all told. Part of this time will be spent in New York City where each expect to do some special work in Columbia. The luncheon guests were members of Mrs. Kirk's drama class. The tables were delightfully arranged with a color scheme of

WHAT'S NEW AT THE FRENCH SHOP TODAY

In the window at the extreme right as one goes into the French Shop there is featured today a silk crepe dress with an ensemble jacket of the new egg-shell shade dotted with tiny little tufts at the natural waist line to the pleated skirt, (and by the way, this dress has a prophetic touch, for although the spring style showed flared skirts, those who know say that the summer will be a "pleated" season). The jacket is of finger-tip length with a throw scarf tipped with Chinese orange. Can't you just visualize the wonderful combination of the Chinese orange and egg-shell shade of the dress? The size is 38, and the price only $39.75.

The ensemble hat is a Meadbrook in natural bakou straw trimmed in woodruff brown with just a touch of the Chinese orange, and the price is $12.50.

THE FRENCH SHOP
Masonic Building, 115 N. High

Marriage Will Be Garden Event

ONE of the loveliest weddings of the spring will be the garden ceremony which will unite Miss Evelyn Hartung, daughter of Mrs. E. E. Gilbert and Clive Zeller, Monday night in the garden of the Delta Phi sorority house at 7:30 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed against a background of lattice work decked with flowers and accented with palms and tall baskets of flowers. Rev. Henry Young, uncle of the bride, will read the single ring ceremony. Mr. Young is here from Juneau, Alaska, to attend the ceremony.

Miss Helene Price will play for Miss Lillian Scott and also play the wedding marches.

Miss Beatrice Hartung is to be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Betty-Mae Hartung, Bertha Babcock, and Margaret Bolt.

Ernest Knapp of Salem is to be best man, and the ushers will be Bruce Spaulding, Gurnee Foster, and Wendell Gilbert.

Woe Norman Stone, will be ring bearer, and Little Patricia Zeller will be flower girl. Following the ceremony there will be a reception held in the sorority house. Mrs. E. E. Gilbert, the bride-to-be and her attendants will receive. Mrs. Carl Gust Doney will pour and Mrs. Paul Edwards will cut fees. A group of Delta Phi sorority sisters of the bride-to-be will serve.

Alpha Phi Alpha Has Alumnae Breakfast

THE last large social event for the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority was celebrated this morning when the members of the house this year entertained with an alumnae breakfast.

The tables were centered with delightful arrangements of pink snapdragons, roses, and carnations, flanked by light pink tapers. Among the alumnae present were Elaine Clower, Anna Mary McKine, Bernice Newhouse, Esther Moyer Zeller, Mary Clamfield, Ella Pfeiffer, Irene Brethaupt, Loretta Varler, Mabel Platt Kafoury, and Dortha Sibly Day.

Miss Myrtle B. Burke became the bride of Carl J. Dornbusch at four o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. Burke on North 24th street, Saturday afternoon. The bride was dressed in a charming lavender voile and carried white carnations. Rev. Glendall of Corvallis read the wedding service in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Burke attended the bride and groom. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dornbusch left for a short wedding trip and will be at home in Corvallis after their return.

War Mothers Met In Champog

The Oregon War Mothers will have their annual picnic and program at Champog park today. This will be the national "Flag day." It is also a very important historical date, for on June 15, 1846, the boundary line between English territory and the Oregon country was settled. The first U. S. flag to fly over the then indisputable territory was one saved from the wreck of the U. S. schooner Shark and presented to Howison. Mrs. Mark Skiff, state president of the World War Mothers, will preside over the afternoon program.

Mrs. Hattie Cameron is entertaining members of the 'ast Presidents' clubs at her home, 398 North 21st street, Tuesday for an all day meeting, with potluck dinner served at noon.

Founder's Month SALE!
EVERY DAY THIS WEEK

Dresses
Millinery
Footwear
Lingerie
Hosiery
Silks
Cottons
Linens
Gloves
Hand Bags

Pajamas
Gift Wares
Slippers
Child's Wear
Rag Rugs
Joy Jugs
Bridge Lamps
Chinaware
Silverware

Miller's
MILLER MERCANTILE COMPANY INC.