

Bobby Jones Tied by Smith and Cotton in British Open

LEADERS EQUAL COURSE RECORD

New Mark May Be Set For Royal Links In Present Tourney

By FRANK H. KING
HOYLAKE, England, June 18.—(AP)—Shooting the royal Liverpool links in 70 for the first round of the British open golf championship, Bobby Jones today hung up a target which remained unbeaten through the stress and storm, although MacDonald Smith and Henry Cotton drew level with the Georgian by scoring 70 on their own account.

On the trail of the leaders camped "Long Jim" Barnes, with 71, and Horton Smith followed with 72. Leo Diegel and young Don Moe were a bit farther back with scores of 74, along with Archie Compton, leaving all the double quartet of Americans among the leaders except George Von Elm, who scored 81 and F. C. Stevens, Jr., at 80. Von Elm had a nine at the fifth hole which ruined his chances and Stevens, after a great start—going out in 35—fell back to 45 strokes for the second nine.

Hail and Lightning Can't Stop Play
Soon after Jones finished, a storm broke with rain flooding the course, lightning flashing and thunder rumbling, but the stress and strain of chasing the American was more calamitous than the storm.

CURT COMMENTS

Remember the fight card we didn't see a week ago? A little new information that is highly illuminating has been produced.

This is the word of Lee Davis, the lad who was billed to meet Art Akers but didn't show up. Lee tells why—and it sounds authentic. Lee says he signed up for the match in good faith. A couple of days before it was scheduled to come off his manager, "Red" Milner, told him the boxing commission had cancelled him for the main event because he was too light, and discouraged him in the idea of coming to Salem though he said he might be used in a preliminary.

Lee believed the story but wasn't entirely sure, so he and Roy Nelson, another boy who was scheduled to fight, went to the place where Milner was to meet them at the appointed time. They waited around until 7 o'clock and Milner didn't show up.

All of which bears out the boxing commission's original suspicion that Milner was trying to slip one over on the small town Hicks. The commission's theory is that Milner wanted to slip in this unknown, Randall, for the main event because he would get a bigger share of Randall's cut, or because Randall owed him money, or something like that.

BON STEIN BEATEN IN SECOND ROUND

VANCOUVER GOLF CLUB, Vancouver, B. C., June 18.—(AP)—A million dollar start tamped into a ten cent finish today and Bon Stein of Seattle, former western amateur champion, stepped out of the picture in the second round of the Pacific northwest amateur golf tournament, leaving the defending champion, a former champion and a half dozen uncertain youngsters to battle for the 1930 crown.

After equalling the course record with an amazing 66 and eliminating his old pal and rival, Leo Steil, 11 and 10, yesterday, Stein came back today to play one of his most miserable games and fall before the virtually unknown Vancouver youngster, Monty Hill, 4 and 3.

Frank Dolp of Portland, defending champion, golfed tooth and nail with Al Harrington of Yakima this morning but finally shook the eastern Washington youth this afternoon to win 7 to 6. Harrington let the titleholder gain only one hole on the morning of 18, but was unable to keep pace with the twice former western amateur champion in the afternoon.
