Large Wedding Is Impressive Event

One of the lovliest weddings of the year was that which united in marriage. Miss Helen Savage, daughter of Mrs. H. W. Savage, and Lars W. Bergsvik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lars Bergsvik of Portland, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Methodist church, with Rev. F. C. Taylor reading the impressive single ring ceremony.

Mrs. S. W. sang, "For You Alone" accompanied on the organ by Prof. T. S. Roberts. Following this Prof. Roberts played an organ processional and the bride in a gown of ivory satin, made in princess style, with long sleeves and uneven hemline, and wearing a veil circled with orange blossoms and extending into a long train, came to the altar on the arm of her brother, Jesse Savage.

The bride's maids, Miss Janeta Nichols of Eugene, and Nancy Savage, in frocks of pastel shades of blue and pale pink, and horse hair hats, and Marjorie Ann Bergsvik in bouffant frock asflower girl attended the bride.

At the altar the bride's party met the groom and best man, Loyalty Bergsvik, before an altar banked with flowers and greenery. The ceremony was performfriends.
