Rigors of Antarctic Are Supplanted by Banquets in N. Y.

"Small objects look large; one of our men mistook a shoe lying not ten feet from him for a seal. There is no visible horizon and everything is distorted. It was quite natural to believe there was land where Amundsen reported his Carmen land, but it is established now that there is no land there."

Great Demonstration Given Explorers

The harbor was filled with the sound of sirens today as the city tug Macomb brought the admiral from quarantine and at the battery and along Broadway close to 500,000 persons cheered themselves hoarse as the members of the expedition rode slowly through a paper snowstorm as dense as any blizzard they encountered in the Polar regions.

After the luncheon Admiral Byrd told reporters more of life at the bottom of the world. Among the important scientific discoveries, he said, was the finding of carboniferous materials indicating enormous coal deposits. He realized that this coal could not be mined profitably now, but visualized the possibilities of its commercial value in the future.

"The Antarctic now," he said, "is going through an ice age, but we found evidence that at some time in the past it enjoyed a tropical or semi-tropical temperature."

Unlike the Arctic, which has many forms of both plant and animal life, Antarctica is entirely lifeless except for the hardiest of flora such as lichen and certain animals that merely sojourn for seasonal visits on the very edge.

CLARA GOING BACK TO DULL MOVIE LOT

DALLAS, Tex., June 19. — (AP)—Clara Bow, "It" girl of the movies, said tonight she would cut her vacation short and leave tomorrow for Hollywood at the request of studio officials.

The famous Clara admitted the directors made the request because of published reports she had come here to renew an affair with a young Dallas physician, whom she admitted she had once loved.

"They asked me to leave Dallas today and come back to Hollywood to straighten things out," Miss Bow said. "I told them I could not but would tomorrow."

Miss Bow denied she came here to see the physician. "My meeting with him," she said, "the first in a year and a half, was merely incidental."

She denied she had paid the young physician's wife $30,000 not to mention her name in divorce proceedings against the doctor and not to bring an allegation of affection suit against her.

The temperamental actress said she was "fed up" with the lot of being a celebrity. "I am going to retire from pictures when my contract expires," she said. She originally planned to spend two weeks in Dallas.

OUTDOOR PAVILION TO HOUSE FIGHTS

West Salem is to have a new fight pavilion, now being built near the Mellow Moon. It is planned to seat 1200 people and will be West Salem's first attempt to gain big time boxers. All seats are practically ringside, and seated Mack Woods, promoter of the scheme, thus assuring all a good view and drawing larger crowds to the pugilistic events.

The pavilion will open next Tuesday night, June 24, and a large crowd is expected. An excellent fight card is being arranged.

The main event will be between Art Akers, West Salem slagger, and Eddie Edleman, Eskimo fist thrower of Portland. A good lineup of preliminary events is promised.

Edleman has fought twice in Salem. In his last fight several months ago he won a decision over Phil Hayes. He has been making a good record in the coast towns. Recently he K. O'd. Soldier Brown of Seattle.

FINIS IS WRITTEN IN CANNON AFFAIR

Senator Curtis announced he would not cite the bishop to the district attorney for possible contempt proceedings.

Action by the vice president was the final straw to which opponents of the bishop clung in their hope that something would be done about his defiance of the lobby investigators. The announcement by Curtis definitely closed the incident.

Senator Blaine, republican, Wisconsin, had contended that law required Curtis to report the bishop to the district attorney. The vice president, however, took the position that there was nothing before him to act upon.

He explained the lobby committee itself had ruled four to one that it had no right to investigate Cannon's political activities. In addition, he said he could act only upon a report from a full committee. The lobby investigators composed a sub-committee of the judiciary committee.

Caraway said any statement that the bishop was given "immunity" by the lobby committee was an "unqualified and deliberate falsehood."

PLAN FOR BORDER PATROL OPPOSED

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—President Hoover's proposal for a unified border patrol is confronted with vigorous opposition in the house led by Rep. Clancy, republican, Michigan who charges it will work hardships on thousands of Americans and nullify beneficial navigation and tariff law provisions.

A formal protest was lodged with republican house leaders today by the Michigan member in an effort to prevent its consideration. In addition, Clancy addressed a circular letter to each member of the house in which he said "it makes a new crime in American federal law."

The measure was given legislative preference and is scheduled to be considered next week. It would place the immigration and customs service patrols under an assistant secretary of the treasury and compel every person entering the country to come through ports of entry designated by the president.

NAVAL PACT GETS SUPPORT OF REED

three I am confident that common sense will prevail and that the treaty will be ratified."

Nothing Given Up Says Delegate

Referring again to the Johnson speech, Senator Reed said "If he is correct, the American delegation attended everything at London." He then recalled that when the London conference opened, "the British had four times our tonnage of cruisers and the Japanese had more than twice our tonnage."

On eight inch gun cruisers, Reed contended that Great Britain comes down from 19 to 15 during the life of the treaty while America builds up to 18; and that "Japan stands absolutely still with her present 12."

PROBE OF SOVIET ACTIVITY DELAYED

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—Having laid the ground work for its inquiry into communist activities at hearings ended today, the special house committee announced it would meet in New York July 15 to hear representatives of the Amtorg trading corporation, the official soviet commercial agency.

Three weeks of hearings were brought to a close today after Mrs. Mary Sherman walked of senate said the communists were training American school children in street rioting, military tactics and in propagandizing work to prepare them to lead a revolution.

Under questioning Rep. Bachmann, republican, West Virginia, Mrs. Walker, chairman of the national defense committee of the Daughters of the American Revolution, said that from the 64 exhibits she presented to the committee there could be no doubt the movement was on the increase in this country.

Schools had been established in 12 cities to teach children revolutionary activities, she said, while 20 camps for "young pioneers of America" were operating.

Although the discovery of "pluto" known as trans-neptunian object, was not announced to the world until March 15, traces of the body have been found on photographic plates taken as far back as 1919. F. L. Whipple, Lick fellow in astronomy, University of California, told the astronomical society today.

When the discovery was made that it actually existed, Whipple said, a clue to its whereabouts was furnished and four days ago Dr. Seth B. Nicholson of Mount Wilson observatory, discovered a tiny spot on the 1919 photograph and identified it as Pluto. With this information Whipple and E. G. Bower, also a Lick fellow, found it on plates.

BOUNTY ON EXPORT PRODUCTS FAVORED

WASHINGTON, June 19.—(AP)—Asserting the country "is threatened with the worst economic panic in its history," Rep. Summers, Texas, democrat, urged in the house today the government provide a bounty for exportable farm products.

He said congress should not adjourn until the situation had been met and that the "buying power of the farmer should be restored."

He declared the new tariff bill as the latest "prescription" for economic distress and said on the day after it was signed, grain dropped to the lowest price since 1914.

Referring to his proposed bounty Summers said it should be "something similar to the export debenture plans."
