

Schmeling Champion; Sharkey Issues Unique Challenge

WOULD BATTLE AND TAKE LOSS

Muldoon Voted Down on His Objections to Giving Herr Max Title

By EDWARD J. NEIL
 NEW YORK, June 19.—(AP)—Max Schmeling, nudged from the offices of the New York state athletic commission today, officially recognized as the new heavyweight champion of the world.

The German, first fighter from the old world to gain that honor, won his point only after a bitter debate and over the outraged objections of William Muldoon. With the title recognition extended him last week by the national boxing association, Schmeling stands today as the heavyweight king in almost every center where boxing is sanctioned in America.

The Teuton did not come unscathed from his duel with the fisty fathers. He came with one of the most amazing challenges ever extended a champion ringing in his ears.

It was the defy of Jack Sharkey, Boston, whom Schmeling defeated on a foul in four rounds in the Yankee stadium one week ago tonight.

Offers to Fight and Lose Money

Sharkey offered Schmeling 37 1/2 per cent of the receipts to 12 1/2 per cent for himself if the German would agree to a return engagement in September. Sharkey promised to pay Arthur B. Low, deposed manager of Schmeling, the 20 per cent he is entitled to under his contract with der Maxie, thereby binding himself to a flat loss of 7 1/2 per cent of the gate before the milling began. He asked that prices be scaled so low all could come and see.

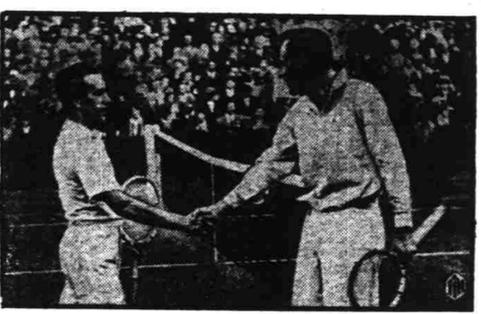

Furthermore, Sharkey offered a unique solution of any controversy that might arise from another foul. He suggested a "rain check" arrangement and another fight free of charge to the customers the following night if the return battle ended in another wild pitch. He agreed not to allow himself to be declared a winner on a foul and all but promised to go jump in a lake if he dropped one low again.

Sharkey protested the naming of Schmeling as champion on the ground that the bout had not decided which was the better man. He asked that the question be held in status quo until the return match. Commissioners James A. Farley and John J. Phelan decided, however, that the match had been fought for the title, that the winner was Schmeling and therefore he was the new title holder.

Muldoon Files Series of Objections

Muldoon opposed this view and offered three resolutions, all of

CONGRATULATING VICTOR

Big Bill Tilden, net champion of the United States, congratulating his victor, Henri Cochet, young tennis champion of the world, when the latter defeated which were defeated 2 to 1, that would have wiped Schmeling out of title consideration.

The aged Muldoon first demanded that the commission refuse to accept the referee's decision because he had reversed himself under the persuasion of Joe Jacobs. Then he asked that the bout be declared "no contest" because of Referee Jim Crowley's "unsatisfactory decision and the disorder in the ring at the time it was made."

Finally, he moved that inasmuch as the title was held by neither man going into the ring and there had been no definite answer to the question of who was the better man, the commission refused recognition to the winner as a champion worthy of the name. Each time he was voted down.

The commission explained its failure to suspend and fine Sharkey under the new "Baumes law" for fouls, with the statement that Schmeling had demanded that the clause for which the commission battled valiantly and finally gained legislative sanction, be stricken from the contracts.

SATCHWELL'S HIT AIDS P. O. VICTORY

Stanley Satchwell, Postoffice left fielder, broke up a pitchers' duel with a hit in the last half of the last inning on Sweetland field Thursday night and helped his team to a 2 to 1 victory over the Peppo tossers. Price, mail carriers' second baseman, scored the winning run on the hit.

Peppo had scored its lone run in the third inning when Boytana walked and got around on a hit by Harrey. The Postoffice had scored in the fourth, Satchwell denting the plate after his own single, a fielder's choice and an error.

BOBBY JONES ON TOP AGAIN

Leads in British Open by One Stroke as Last Day's Play Looms

By FRANK H. KING
 HOYLAKE, Eng., June 18.—(AP)—The British open golf championship was still a "hoss race" this evening as the field rounded the halfway post. Bobby Jones added a par 72 to his 70 yesterday to give him 142 and put him a nose ahead, with a stroke lead over the veteran Englishman, Fred Ribson, at 143, and three shots lead on the tall Missourian, Horton Smith, who had a two day total of 145.

Behind the leaders came a pack of 147's, Leo Diegel, Don Moo, Macdonald Smith, Archie Compton and Phil Rodgers, with "long Jim" Barnes another stroke away.

The qualifying gate again closed tonight cutting off all but the 60 leaders and one tie for 60th place, George Von Elm, with a 36 hole score of 160, was the only American shut out of the punishing two round finish tomorrow. A score as low as 158 was necessary to remain in competition.

Horton Smith Real Contender

Today's play was mainly a chase after Jones by competitors who wanted his lead, and fans who wanted to see how he does it. A gallery of 5,000 followed the Georgian through the sultry, humid afternoon and saw him pull from a bad start to a steady finish for a par round of 72.

Bob was not playing any too well and little things bothered him, such as clicking cameras and a crying baby in his mother's arms at the 17th.

Cyril Tolley's 71 was the best score today but coupled with 84 yesterday it means hardly anything.

Horton Smith, who seems to be the real threat to Jones' lead, played a great game today. He hit his long shots to perfection. A shot out of bounds at the 17th cost him dearly, but he came right back to hole a putt for a birdie three at the finish to be in striking distance of Jones.

RISKO OUTPOINTS BASQUE WOODSMAN

DETROIT, June 19.—(AP)—Johnny Risko, Cleveland baker boy, outpointed Paolino Uzcudun, heavyweight from the basque country of Spain, in a ten round bout here tonight. Risko wicketed Uzcudun in the fourth round, Paolino 195 1/2.

It was Risko's second decision victory over Paolino but unlike the first meeting three years ago there was no doubt of the accuracy of Al Day's verdict.

Only in the sixth round did the Spanish woodchopper show anything that disturbed the Cleveland baker boy. In his session, Paolino fought viciously, landing a stinging right and left to Risko's head and jolting the Clevelander with a heavy right to the kidneys.

It was only a momentary flash of his old-time skill on the Spaniard's part and Risko began just where he had left off, hammering the basque with every punch he had. Risko landed three or four blows to each one the basque could send through and consistently out-speeded and outsmarted his rival.

SAFE LOOTED

ASTORIA, Ore., June 19.—(AP)—Craftsmen entered the office of the Astoria Fuel and Supply company here last night, broke the combination from the safe and escaped with $129 in cash. Checks in the safe were not molested. Officers have found no clues.

On the Sidelines

By BRIAN BELL

The sensational victory of 18-year-old Frances Williams in the Eastern Women's championship at Brookline marked the arrival of another star in the golf sky.

Experienced observers of the play in Massachusetts stamped Miss Williams as definitely arrived and suggested that somewhere along the sports trail ahead she will pick many more titles, including the national championship.

The Pennsylvania girl started with a score of 89, good enough to be sure, but nothing to grow excited about for there were a number of women in the big field who could shoot 89 or better on occasion.

When the 89 was followed by 84 in the second round, the interest grew for 84 at Brookline is a real score, and when the last round brought a record breaking 81 there was keen excitement.

The count of 81 is said to be the lowest yet compiled by a woman on the unrelenting Brookline course where Bobby Jones' Quimet started his march to fame in 1913 by tying Ted Ray and Harry Vardon in the open and going on to win the championship from these intrepid Brits on a play-off.

Daughter of a golf professional, H. E. Williams of the Leigh Country Club, Allentown, Pa., Miss Williams has been playing golf since she was a child in a refreshing, unsophisticated manner. She has dark, curly hair, unbobbed and worn hanging down her back. One of the most important assets is a pleasing smile, in evidence when she goes one over par just as it is when she gets a birdie.

The new champion lives at Pottstown, Pa., and she may do well at home town something approaching what Bobby Jones did in behalf of Atlanta and those of Glenn Collett for Providence.

The release of Grover Cleveland Alexander by the Phillies was something of a national baseball calamity. "Old Pete" had become an institution and hundreds never saw him pitch a ball were sorry to hear of his passing from the major league picture. Although Alex has passed his 43 birthday he leaves a pitcher behind him in the same town, his senior by several months if not years.

"Old Jack" Quinn is officially listed as 45 years next month, but it is generally believed that in birthdays were overlooked. Adolfo Luque, according to "the book" is not yet 40 but he may be several years older. Jack Quinn is very active in Connie Mack's baseball affairs, finishing three games in three successive days and going in to save another with only two days' rest. Luque won his first half dozen games and saved the game for two of his colleagues. Alex has gone but he leaves two able men to carry on for the seniors. And as Alexander passes he may reflect with pride that he was a "big leaguer" for 20 years.

MILL CITY BEATS LEBANON TOSSERS

MILL CITY, June 19.—(Special)—The Mill City baseball team won a Cascade league game from Lebanon here Sunday 5 to 4. Credit for the victory goes largely to Goar, whose pitching surpassed anything seen here this season. Only four hits were credited to the visitors.

Shelton and Ivan Fink with two each played a big part in scoring Mill City's runs. Bigbee, former big leaguer and now manager of the Lebanon team, starred at bat for the visitors.

The score:

Lebanon	4	4	2
Mill City	5	8	5

Kallio outpitched Louis Vinci and held the Sacs without a hit to the fifth. Mullers homer with one on won the game for the Indians.

Missions Clout Ball

LOS ANGELES, June 19.—(AP)—Emil Yde and George Hollerson presented the Missions with 19 hits today, enough to give the Reds an 11 to 7 victory over Hollywood in the third game of the series.

Cubs Beat Braves

CHICAGO, June 19.—(AP)—Concentrating their attack in the first three innings today the Cubs hammered out a 10 to 4 victory over Boston in the first game of the series. Hack Wilson hit his 19th homer of the season and Woody English also got one. Guy Bush held the Brave sluggers to six hits.

PORTLAND GOLFERS DOMINATE TOURNNEY

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 19.—(AP)—The Pacific northwest amateur golf tournament looked more like a Portland city meet when Frank Dolp, defending champion, Johnny Robbins and Eddie Hogan copped the places today for the semi-final round in the men's division tomorrow.

Alex Duncan of Seattle, last years Washington state champion, was the other survivor of the quarter finals today, conquering Forrest Watson of Seattle, former winner of the northwest crown, 5 and 3.

Dolp displayed a great assortment of brilliant shots to eliminate Ed Greenwood of Seattle, 10 and 9. Robbins defeated Freddie Wood, Vancouver City and British Columbia champion, 10 and 8, and Hogan downed Monty Hill, Vancouver youngster, 5 and 4.

Tomorrow Duncan will meet Robbins and Hogan will tangle with the champion over the 36 hole grind, womens division Mrs. S. C. Sweeney of Vancouver, Mrs. Fred Jackson of Seattle, Mrs. Brent Potter of San Francisco, and Mrs. Vera Hutchings of Vancouver, the defending title, survived the third round of play to enter the semi-finals tomorrow.

Mrs. Sweeney will clash with Mrs. Jackson and Mrs. Hutchings will meet Mrs. Potter over the 18 hole round tomorrow.

Miss Florence Sellers, Oregon state champion, gave Mrs. Hutchings one of her toughest battles when she carried her to the 18th green and only missed squaring the match there when she failed to down a six foot putt by two inches. Miss Sellers lost the 17th hole to go one down and had an excellent chance to win the 18th.

STRIBLING DENIES 'RUN-OUT' RUMORS

CHICAGO, June 19.—(AP)—Stadium and state boxing commission officials were accused of doing a Sherlock Holmes show today as the puzzling ten round heavyweight match between Otto Von Porat, the Norwegian bone crusher, and W. L. Stribling, Macon, Ga., neared a showdown.

Worried that Stribling, who claims his left hand was sprained and in no condition for the fight, may decide to run out, one of more of the interested officials appeared to check his every move causing fans and sport writers to think they were shadowing him.

Stribling and his father-manager laughed at reports they planned "run out" on the fight. They appeared before the commission physicians today for another examination of the hand and seemed satisfied that nothing was wrong with the fighting implement.

"My son will be there and he'll give Von Porat a licking he'll remember," said Pa Stribling.

Georgia legislators will go to school when the state university conducts its institute of public affairs July 7 to 16.

REALLY WONDERFUL. THIS USER DECLARES

"It is simply wonderful the way Lea's Hair Tonic restores the natural color to gray hair and leaves it so pretty and nice. It also banishes every sign of dandruff and makes the scalp so healthy I can't say enough for it," writes Miss A. L. Landeroer whose picture appears on the right.

"Before I began using Lea's Hair Tonic my hair was rapidly turning gray and I was constantly troubled with itchy scalp and dandruff. That was two years ago. In a few weeks with Lea's Hair Tonic work was done and just as natural as anything in the world my hair has all turned back to youthful color and since then an occasional massaging of the scalp with Lea's keeps it lovely," continued Miss Landeroer, whose address is 116 17th Avenue, North Nashville, Tenn.

Thousands of beautiful women distressed at gray hairs or off-colored locks, have learned Lea's Hair Tonic works so natural like when used at home that even experts fail to detect its use. One looks so much better groomed and it takes ten years off one's age, asers declare. Socially or in business, beautiful hair is an asset worth many times the trifling time and expense of using Lea's Hair Tonic. Freedom from dandruff is another blessing that users say always come from using it.
