Our Need and Our Supply

By P. J. SEHNERT
Pastor of Center street M. E. Church

"My God shall supply all your need, according to His riches in the glory by Christ Jesus. Phil. 4, 19."

This man has been called, "The Believers Banknote." It is good for blessings for body and soul, for time and eternity. I. The Christian's need. "Shall supply all your needs."

This is not a promise that God will gratify all our wishes and whims. But He will supply what he sees to be our needs. It is the same thought as the Psalmist had, that the Lord being his shepherd he should not be in want for anything good.

Our real needs are: Needs for the body—Needs for the soul—Needs for our families—Needs for the present—Needs for the future—Needs for time and eternity; our needs are as many as our moments.

II. The source of supply. "My God shall supply. "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above and cometh down from the Father of lights." God will supply all our needs—No body else can. "He openeth His hand and supplieth the wants of every living thing."

III. The measure of supply. "According to His riches in glory." Whatever He does is done in a way worthy of Himself. He gives like a king. The riches of His grace—are the treasures of the bank of heaven, to which all believers have free access, and for all time.

IV. The medium of this supply. "By Christ Jesus." Christ is God's only begotten and well beloved Son, therefore nothing is too good, nothing too great to give for his sake. Through Christ we have atonement, we have a channel of communication with God. God is in Christ reconciling the world to himself. Everything through Christ, and nothing without Him. When that name is mentioned the gates of heaven fly open.

CONDITIONS HERE RELATIVELY GOOD

C. A. Kells Returns After Visiting in East and South

Salem and the surrounding country look good in contrast to the dried up Sacramento valley to the local Y. M. C. A., who has just returned from an eastern trip. He was in Cincinnati as a delegate of the Willamette presbytery to the 142nd general assembly of the Presbyterian church May 29 to June 5.

Among the striking features of the conference, he said, were the reports of various boards and committees in charge of various work of the church. During the trip east he visited a number of Y. M. C. A.'s and found that the local association is doing work comparable to much larger ones throughout the country.

After the conference he visited New York, Chicago, Detroit, Harrisburg, Pa., Boston and Albany, N. Y. His return route took him through Omaha, Salt Lake City and San Francisco.

Other delegates of the Willamette presbytery at Cincinnati were Rev. H. L. Grafton, Gervais; Rev. G. Monroe Everett, student pastor at Oregon State college; and L. R. McGinnis, Corvallis.

In addition to attending the church conference, Mr. Kells spent two days at the Y. M. C. A. convention at Detroit.
