

Hogan's Brilliant Putting Wins Northwest Championship

HE'S YOUNGEST TITLE HOLDER

All-Portland Final Ends in Decisive 8 and 7 Victory For Youth

By FRANK G. GORRIE
VANCOUVER GOLF CLUB, Vancouver, B. C., June 21.—(AP)—The golfing firm of "Hogan and Hogan" today accomplished its greatest stroke in business in the Pacific northwest amateur golf tournament.

Wielding a magic putter and a pile driving driver, Eddie Hogan, 19-year-old Portland boy, conquered his young friend and townsman, Johnny Robbins, 8 and 7 to succeed Frank Dolp and northwest amateur champion and become the youngest titleholder in the history of the 23-year-old organization.

Under the watchful eye of his 15-year-old brother, caddy and coach, Johnny Hogan, Eddie captured eight birdies in the 29 holes he played against Robbins, and brought the match dormie-10 in spite of sparking play by his opponent. With ten holes to go and ten holes down, Robbins won the 27th and 28th with birdies before he bowed to defeat with a half at the 29th. Hogan was four under par for the 29 holes while Robbins was six over.

Mrs. Hutchens Wins Fourth in a Row
Mrs. Vera Hutchens of Vancouver won her fourth northwest championship and her second in the last two years, when she waltzed through her final match with Mrs. Fred Jackson of Seattle, 11 and 9.

After going five down on the morning round to some of the most spectators in the history of the tournament, Robbins started out strong in the afternoon to win the first hole with a birdie three. He sank a 40-foot putt on the big rolling green to reduce the count to four down.

The loss did not bother the new champion in the least. Someone the right back to drop an eight foot putt at the second hole after a win and then sunk a 60-footer at the fourth for another birdie to lead by six holes. The marvelous putts seemed to take the heart of Robbins and he dropped the next four holes to go ten down and ten to go.

With the result then only a matter of time, Johnny stepped out and picked up a par win at the ninth and a birdie at the tenth to make it dormie. Robbins putted for win at the 11th balanced on the lip of the cup, but would not drop, thus giving Hogan an eight hole lead with only seven to go.

Looks Familiar -- Huh?

Now where have we seen that face before? Oh, sure, it's Harry Elliott, the referee! What's he doing in tights, trying to break into the chums? Nope, he's a wrestler as well as a referee and a wrestling instructor at the University of Oregon. He meets Tommy Ryan of Medford at the armory here Wednesday night. The way Harry yanks the boys around, he must be good. Al Karasick never tried to pull anything on him.

Something Will Be Doing Monday on Heavyweights' Rematch for Next Autumn

By EDWARD J. NEIL
NEW YORK, June 21.—(AP)—Conferences bloomed all over town today and Madison Square Garden promised something important in the way of announcements concerning Max Schmeling's return bout with Jack Sharkey by Monday afternoon.

The final conference between Garden officials and Arthur Buelow, deposed manager of the German who won the heavyweight championship on a foul from Sharkey June 12, is scheduled for Monday. After that is over the Garden hopes to be able to announce that the last bar to a return match in September has been removed.

Schmeling is ready if he can get a release from Buelow's manager, until October 13. Otherwise he insists he will remain idle until the entangling alliance with Buelow is wiped out by time. Sharkey is so anxious to remove the stain of his defeat on a foul he is already on record at the New York State athletic commission as willing to pay Buelow's 20 per cent share in Schmeling's wages.

Apparently the unfortunate sailor from Boston bought something when he made that offer, Frank Bruen, general manager of the Garden, left for Boston tonight to talk with Sharkey and his manager, John Buckley, as to the terms of the purchase. Sharkey's answer probably will be enclosed in Monday's proclamation.

Buelow is said to be willing to tear up the contract for about $50,000 which would approximate his share in Max's profit from a return match.

Alcos Await Fence Busting Senators Today

LAST HALF OF SEASON OPENS

No Babe Ruths in Valley League; Zeke Girod Best Sacrificer

Today's Games
Salem at Albany.
Corvallis at Eugene.

ALBANY, June 21.—(Special)—Those fence-busting Salem Senators, who dislodged the Albany Alcos from first place when they pounced on two Albany pitchers for a total of 13 hits last Sunday, will be the Alcos' foes on the home lot tomorrow. It will be a second half game.

Thus far the two teams have clashed three times in the league race this year, with Salem taking two games and Albany one. The Alcos are determined to even the count here Sunday and perhaps land back in first place if Corvallis should happen to defeat Eugene, now in top place.

Stritmater Learns His Finger Broken
Jimmy Stritmater, Alco shortstop sustained a broken finger in the Salem game Sunday, although he did not know it until a day or two afterward. But he is now carrying the injured member in a splint and will be out of the lineup for a few weeks.

Jimmy grabbed a hot ground-out of the dirt in the fourth inning that did the dirty work. The hard hit ball hurt him at the time but he got his man at first base just the same. He played the game through but a day or so later he suffered pain and consulted a doctor.

Gill Leads League in Three Beggars
Wilkinson of Albany is the only player in the Willamette Valley league who has managed to pole out two home runs so far this season, and the first half is rapidly drawing to a close. Five other players, two of them Salem Senators, have taken a home run each.

Lamb of Corvallis is first in runs scored, with 8 to date. Riddings of Eugene has 6.
Other statistics of the league are:
Runs scored—Lamb, Corvallis, 8; Wilkinson, Albany, 7; Riddings, Eugene, 6; Gill, Salem, 6; P. Girod, Salem, 6; D. Stritmater, Albany, 6.

Stolen Bases—Lamb, Corvallis, 6; Wirth, Eugene, 3; Amy, Corvallis, 3; Torson, Corvallis, 2; Favors, Salem, 2; D. Stritmater, Albany, 2.

Sacrifice hits—P. Girod, Salem, 4; T. Girod, Salem, 2; Riddings, Eugene, 2; Johnson, Eugene, 2; Johnson, Eugene, 2; Wirth, Eugene, 2; Gould, Eugene, 2; Quisenberry, Corvallis, 2; Edwards, Salem, 2.

Home runs—Wilkinson, Albany, 2; J. Stritmater, Albany, 1; Kellogg, Corvallis, 1; Peterson, Salem, 1; P. Girod, Salem, 1; Hasenfeldt, Corvallis, 1.

Three base hits—Gill, Salem, 3; Lansing, Albany, 2; Coleman, Corvallis, 2; Lamb, Corvallis, 2.

Two base hits—Olinck, Salem, 3; Husband, Eugene, 2; McReynolds, Albany, 2; T. Girod, Salem, 2.

JEDDA, Arabia (AP)—Mecca, holy city of Islam, is to have a public library, the funds having been given by a rich pearl merchant of Bahrein, who recently made a pilgrimage to the tomb of Mohammed. The library is to contain works on science and art.

CURT COMMENTS

"Will exchange flying instruction for light car."—Is terra firma safer?

Harry Plant's kitchen won the grand prize at Camp Clatsop again. Harry knows his stewpans.

It's all right to speculate about night baseball and what would happen if the lights went out suddenly, but what we want to know is—what chance has a financially embarrassed youngster to get into the game by retrieving a ball batted out of the park, if he can't see it after it drops out of range of the flood lights?

Then again, in view of the tender age at which ball players are being signed up now in the Coast League—does the curfew law apply? Supposing one of these 16-year-old stars started hoofing after a fly ball and the curfew siren sounded, would the batter get credit for a home run? Nothing in the book about that.

One more—with no glaring sun to dodge, how do the Oaks get rid of their high priced grandstand seats when the bleachers afford equal comfort at night with a fine view of the stars to boot?

Night sports are here to stay, however, and all these trifling problems will be adjusted in time, including what the ball players are to do all day when the cabarets are closed—or do they still have cabarets in California? We haven't been there since Volstead.

The decade-old football game between Willamette and Pacific universities will be played at night next fall in Multnomah stadium, Portland. That ought to be the salvation of football for the smaller colleges, and no doubt it will be. Who'll volunteer to illuminate Sweetland field so the home games can be played at night?

PORTLAND BEATEN BY SAME OLD 2-1

OAKLAND, June 21.—(AP)—Oakland nosed out Portland, 2-1 today in a bitterly contested ten inning game featured by a pitching duel between Herb McQuaid of the Oaks and Junk Walters of the visitors.

The Oaks tied the count in the sixth after Walters had held them runless for five frames and hitless for the first four.

McQuaid, recently signed by Oakland after his release by the Missions, received snappy support from Walters and the edge in pitching, allowing five hits while McQuaid was nicked for eight.

SALESMAN ONCE GRAYHAIRED USES LEA'S TONIC--LOOKS YOUNG AGAIN

Marvelous Change Shown by Photos, Before and After Using a Famous Hair Tonic THOUSANDS BANISH GRAY HAIR THIS WAY

"I started getting gray at twenty years of age and finally became so gray people often called me the gray haired chap, when they didn't know my name. It actually was hard to get a new job. Every time I looked in a mirror I felt years older than my real age, but I swore I would never use a dye. Finally three years ago some friends of mine began using Lea's Hair Tonic and I was amazed the way it worked for them. They urged me to begin using it too which I did. Gradually day by day my hair began changing back to its natural color. Just like magic it changed until folks who hadn't seen me for several months hardly could believe their eyes. For years I passed the good word along to scores of gray haired friends. It is safe and easy to use and gives a natural youthful appearance to the hair that is gray. I'm sending a free trial of Lea's Hair Tonic and one taken afterward and you can see for yourself."

W. W. Atkinson, Salesman, 8166 St. Hoover St., Berkeley, Calif. The result Mr. Atkinson obtained can be equaled by anyone it seems in the easiest sort of a way at home. Just a drop on the scalp, tip, rubbed into the scalp here and there each evening begins stimulating the circulation and day by day notices a delightful change. Once the scalp is rid of dandruff hair is growing vigorously and gray is gone—just an occasional application, once a week or so keeps the scalp and hair in beautiful condition, no matter how old one may be.

Made by the nationally known Lea Tonic Co. It is sold by drugists most everywhere now, 21 per cent on positive guarantee that money will be refunded if results after sixty days are not entirely satisfactory. If your own druggist hasn't Lea's Hair Tonic send dollar bill, check, money order or money order to Lea Tonic Co., Brentwood, Md. For bottle return mail postage paid.
