

Yank Supremacy Almost Sure This Year at Wimbledon

THREE TITLES ARE IN SIGHT

(That Not Including Chance Tilden May Beat Cochet in Singles)

By FRANK H. KING
WIMBLEDON, Eng., June 28.—(AP) When the big canvas cover that protects the precious turf of the famous center court was drawn into place tonight at the close of the first week's play in the Wimbledon championships, the names of American players dotted the final stages of the draw sheets. Unless untoward events occur next week at least three 1930 Wimbledon titles are likely to go to the United States.

And that isn't counting on a possible victory for Big Bill Tilden over Henri Cochet, reigning singles champion, but only on Helen Wills Moody winning her fourth women's singles title in as many years, Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn repeating their men's doubles triumph of 1929 and the new firm of Mrs. Moody and Elisabeth Ryan taking the women's doubles crown.

The Tilden-Cochet final is in prospect for next Saturday and although Tilden was given a stiff fight during some stages of his match today against Ed Andrews, equally tall and considerably more massive New Zealander, Tilden's rare gifts for the game were his sallies in tight corners and he won 6-4, 6-4, 6-2.

TOWNIES LOOK FOR TIGHT ONE

Baker and Peterson Likely Mound Opponents in Game At Eugene

EUGENE, June 28.—(Special) —A real pitchers' battle is in prospect here tomorrow when the Salem Senators come for their last game with the Townies in the first half of the Willamette Valley league schedule. Bill Baker will be on the mound for Eugene and Andy Peterson is expected to pitch for Salem.

Here is how they stack up for the season to date:

Peterson, a recruit to the Senator lineup for Spec Keene's Willamette university variety, has pitched three games. He struck out 23 men for an average of 7.6 strikeouts per game. He allowed only 16 hits, for an average of 2.3 hits per game.

Baker has pitched eight games, striking out 68 opposing batters for an average of 8.5 strikeouts per game. He has the edge over Pete there. He allowed 61 hits, however, for an average of 7.6 hits per game, and Peterson has the advantage there.

Team's Near Seven
In Defense Work
Batting and fielding averages show the Eugene and Salem teams to be very closely matched and at or near the top of the league in these departments.

Eugene has been at the bottom of the league in hitting this season, but now has begun an upward climb and is in third place, just six percentage points behind the hard-hitting Albany Alcos. Salem, which one week ago was just above Eugene in hitting has now increased its percentage until it is out in front with a respectable margin.

In fielding the local club has tipped up its heels to the balance of the pack from the beginning of the season but the oncoming Senators have bettered their defensive work to such an extent that they are now but five percentage points behind the Townies in this department.

Oregon Tennis Tourney Opens With One Seeded Star Beaten First Day

PORTLAND, Ore., June 28.—(AP)—The Oregon state annual tennis tournament opened here today with seven of the eight seeded players still in the running at the end of the first day's matches.

The eighth man, Don Lewis, of Portland, succumbed to Ken May, Portland, 6-7, 7-5, in the outstanding match of the day. May ran up an early lead but Lewis did not lose heart and drove the set into extra games. In the second set May again ran into the lead and at one time held Lewis at 6-3. Lewis again rallied and tied the games 6-5. May put forth every effort and captured the next two games.

Of the other seven seeded players several had trouble in finding their opponents. Bradshaw Harrison, 1927 and 1928 champion, won by default because his opponent, I. Intyre, stayed home. Ray Casey, San Francisco, 1924 state champion, won in the same manner. His opponent, F. H. Creamer, had other business and didn't appear. Jack Corngrove, California junior champion, was seeded next in order, but his opponent was playing in the finals of a tournament at Victoria, B. C., today. They will meet Monday.

May and Lewis both had advanced two rounds. May eliminated Bob Knappenberger, 6-1, 6-1, and Richard Montgomery, 6-0, 6-1. Lewis beat Hollis Goodrich, 6-0, 6-2, and Dave Morris, 6-0, 6-0.

Irving Weinstein, Portland, seeded fifth, had not trouble in his first round match eliminating George Mead, University of Oregon star, 6-0, 6-1.

Charlotte Miller, national girls' hard court champion, won by default over Marjorie Nelson, Oakland, Cal., in the women's singles. Old Myer Gross, first seeded player, will meet Mrs. Rogers MacVeagh Sunday.

CURT COMMENTS

Seems like Salem and Eugene are getting closer together all the time, in the matter of sports. Almost every time we pick up a Eugene newspaper and glance at the sport page we find something of direct interest to Salem.

Wildcat Pete used his old "dead man" trick to beat Yaqul Joe, just as he did in winning from Salior Watkins here. Pete pretended to be half "out" and when the Indian came after him, crawling and under him for several minutes after the clang. The battered referee raised the arms of both wrestlers for a draw.

NEW YORK, June 28.—(AP)—First inning rallies enabled the Yankees to win both games of a doubleheader from the Cleveland Indians today. The scores were 13 to 1 and 14 to 2. New York scored seven runs in the first inning of each game. Babe Ruth hit two home runs in the second.

GALLANT-KNIGHT IS WINNER AT LATONIA

LATONIA, Ky., June 28.—(AP)—Gallant Knight, owned by the Audley farm today won the Latonia derby by easily running away from a small field of seven entrants.

Winner also of the Fairmount derby, Gallant Knight added $22,175 to his earnings by finishing two and a half lengths ahead of Playtime in the 48th renewal of the Latonia derby.

The derby was over a mile and a half course and featured the opening day's program of Latonia's summer meeting. The time of 2:35 was slow compared with the track record of 2:23 3-5 set by Handy Mandy three years ago. Culloden finished third about the same distance behind Playtime that separated the winner from second place.
