SPRING VALLEY GROUP PICNICS

Missionary Society Sponsor Affair For Families and Guests

ZENA, July 7.—Fifty-three members of the Spring Valley Missionary society and their families and guests from Salem had an enjoyable social evening and 7 o'clock dinner at the spacious country home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Barker Saturday, July 5.

The society gave the picnic instead of having the regular meeting July 9. The buffet dinner was served at a long table placed on the lawn under the huge oak trees which add greatly to the charm of the grounds.

Mrs. Charles Purvine was the recipient of a delicious birthday cake which was baked by Mrs. L. F. Matthews in honor of her birth anniversary, July 4, and which Mrs. Purvine cut and served.

It was also found that W. N. Crawford's birthday was July 4, and much merriment was had at the expense of both.

The committee in charge of the picnic was composed of Mrs. Roy E. Barker, Mrs. R. C. Shepard, Mrs. Charles Purvine and Mrs. Frank Windsor. Visitors present Saturday evening were: Salem—Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. C. Baum, Mrs. L. M. Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Henderson, and daughter, Mary Frances, Mr. and Mrs. B. Woelke and small daughter, Ursula, Ralph Reid, Zena—Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie and two sons, Lloyd and Jack and Herman Sawatzky; Lincoln—Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Ruble and son Russell and Miss Enora Edwards and brother, Kenneth.

Members and families present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Scott and children, Barbara and Donald; Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Barker and son, Sammy; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Purvine, S. H. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Shepard and children, Julia, James, Ardon and Joe; Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Matthews and daughter, Marjorie; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Windsor and daughters, Irene and Doris; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crawford and daughters, Alice and Wilma and son Robert; Mrs. T. J. Merrick and son Vernon.

Fruit Fly Ruins Black Cherries in Hubbard District

HUBBARD, July 7.—(AP)—The cherry fly is causing a great loss to fruit growers in this vicinity. D. A. McArthur, manager of the berry house, has received orders from the canneries to receive no more black cherries because the fly has already begun working on them. So far the Royal Annes have not been harmed by the pest.

W. H. WHITE RITES AT MONMOUTH

Resident of Oregon for Many Years Passes Away in Portland

MONMOUTH, July 7.—Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the Walter L. Smith funeral chapel for William H. White, 72, who died Thursday at the home of his sister Mrs. V. E. Allen at Portland.

He was born July 2, 1856, at Victoria, Illinois, and came to Oregon with his parents at the age of two. Most of his early life was spent in Polk county. He was married November 28, 1880 to Martha Jones, and they settled at Aurora, where Mr. White was a member of the I. O. O. F. for 30 years. He lived at Hood River for several years until Mrs. White's death in 1923, when he removed to Portland. Surviving are two sisters: Mrs. Allen, Portland; and Mrs. Sarah A. Howell, of Monmouth.

Rev. L. H. Willard of the Monmouth Evangelical church officiated; with graveside services in charge of the Odd Fellows order. Burial was made beside the remains of his wife in the Monmouth Knights of Pythias cemetery.

MRS. A. OLSEN IS INJURED BY FALL

SILVERTON, July 7.—Mrs. Albert Olsen, who was 75 years old Saturday, fell and injured her left hip. It is feared that the bone is fractured as she is practically helpless after the fall.

SILVERTON MAN KILLED BY TRAIN

James Lawrence Loses Life Under Wheels of Logging Cars

SILVERTON, July 7.—James Lawrence was killed here Sunday evening shortly after six o'clock just as he was returning to the Silver Falls timber company logging camp.

Lawrence had been out of the woods for the fourth of July holiday week and was planning on returning with the loggers on the Sunday evening train. He had just crossed the tracks and stepped on the last car of the train. He was carrying a pack sack, a fishing pole and basket and it was said that he was a little hazy. He evidently did not notice that two oil cars were being coupled and the jar of the coupling made him lose his balance, throwing him under the moving car ahead. The car only moved 10 or 12 feet after he fell. Joe Bonn, who was the head witness, pulled him out but he was dead and it is believed that he was killed instantly.

He is survived by his widow, Faye Shepard Lawrence, a daughter Helen Elizabeth, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lawrence, a sister Mrs. Thersie Davidson of Portland and two brothers, Richard and William Lawrence of Scotts Mills.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of Jack and Eckman of Silvertion. Services will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday in the Church of Christ at Scotts Mills. Interment will be in the I. O. O. F. cemetery at Scotts Mills.

STAYTON FAMILIES RETURN FROM BEACH

Visitors Are Entertained in Many Homes During Holidays

STAYTON, July 7.—Mr. and Mrs. Allan Harrington, former Stayton residents spent the week end here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Tate. The Harringtons are now living in Spokane, where he is in the cleaning and pressing business.

Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Pfitler and Mrs. Pfitler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Clark, with their daughter, Miss Norma and son, Paul returned Sunday from several days spent at Nelscott and other beach resorts.

Alva Smith and daughter, Miss Ellomae were here from Estacada for the week end visiting relatives and old friends. The Smiths were for many year residents of Stayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Dawes, of Mill City are the parents of a daughter, born July 4th at the Stayton hospital. Mrs. Dawes is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Deidrich of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mayo and their daughters, Misses Patsy and Jean and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Smith and small daughter Paula were among those who spent the past several days at Newport.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Brewer returned Sunday evening from several days stay at Newport. They were accompanied to the beach by Mrs. Brewer's sister, Mrs. Esther Stamp.

The Stayton co-operative switchboard association have decided to build a small building adjoining the present telephone office to house the generating motors and other equipment. This equipment has been kept in the woodshed heretofore, and as soon as the new building is completed this and other miscellaneous equipment will be installed.

Harold Richardson has so far recovered from his appendicitis operation as to be removed to his home in Salem.

Hunt and Tate have purchased a fire hose that will reach to any part of their garage. This will no doubt greatly lessen the fire hazard.

Mr. and Mrs. Wirth Smith and

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Taylor.
