

DEMETRAL AND KARASICK ARE MATCHED HERE

Chicago Light Heavyweight Meets Oregon Bruiser Wednesday

Many of the wrestling shows that have been billed here in the last eight months have been billed as the "biggest ever," but that classification appears to apply fully to the one coming up Wednesday night.

Against Karasick is matched Harry Demetral, reputed "tough guy" who has been winning a majority of his matches on the Pacific coast. He has already beaten Karasick, but not by a decisive margin.

Demetral, whose reputation is already known to most wrestling fans here, will have the weight advantage by about five pounds, so that Karasick will be on the short end in this respect for a change.

Karasick's last achievement here was a defeat of Ernie Arthur, local middleweight favorite, who put up a game battle but found the "Russian Lion" just a little too much for him.

The main event isn't all of the attraction Wednesday night, for Art Reilly and Sammy Vangler, who grappled in whirlwind fashion to a draw last week, have been rematched for a longer duration bout—six 10-minute rounds. That makes a full hour of wrestling, barring falls, which probably will be sufficient to determine the supremacy of one or the other.

Approximately 205,000 motor vehicle licenses for the year beginning July 1 had been issued when the state motor vehicle department closed its doors Saturday night for the weekend. It was estimated that there are 360,000 cars in Oregon subject to registration.

The work of issuing licenses was expedited this year because of the new law which authorizes sheriffs to grant temporary permits pending the receipt of plates. As a result of the prompt response by applicants, 45 extra employees of the motor vehicle division were released Saturday.

In previous years the bulk of licenses were issued until several weeks after the license date. Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state, said the motor vehicle force would be reduced to normal before the end of this month, which will establish a new record in the history of the state motor vehicle department.

Forty-Foot Putt Clinches U. S. Title for Bobby Jones

FEAT QUASHES CHALLENGERS

Thrilling Climax Given to National Open With Champ Reowned

By ALAN GOULD INTERLACHEN CLUB, Minneapolis, July 12.—(AP)—The king of all the golfers, flushed with the heat of one of the greatest battles of his career, the professional light brigade in hot pursuit and a 40-foot putt over the rolling turf before him.

While close to 10,000 spectators held their breath, Bobby stepped up bravely and hit the ball true into the cup for a birdie 3 that closed the door to all challengers, clinching his fourth victory and successful defense of the open golf championship of the United States.

The reverberating roar that greeted the final stroke of the master shot maker, sounded the knell of what few lingering hopes remained as the all-conquering soiree of the south completed his third major golfing triumph of the year at home and abroad.

All that Bobby needs to do now to make it a clean sweep for 1936 with all four major British and American titles dangling from one man's belt for the first time in history, is to capture the United States amateur crown at Philadelphia in September.

Within a Stroke of Meet Record Jones, with successive rounds of 71-73-68-75, finished his conquest today with a 287, the second lowest total in the history of the American open and only one stroke short of the record set 14 years ago by Chic Evans at the nearby Minnikahda course.

Mac Smith, alone of the star pros to stand the gaff of the final day after Jones had burned up the course with a record breaking third round, finished with rounds of 70-74-70 for 257 to clinch second place.

Horton Smith, the 22 year old professional who shot himself into the lead at the half way mark only to crack today, wound up in third place, five strokes behind Jones with 72-70-74, 292. Fourth place went to Lighthouse Harry Cooper, Chicago, with 72-73-75, 293.

Jones, as it turned out, really clinched the championship he has won four times since 1923, by shooting an almost flawless 68 on a course that might just as well have been as low as 65, but for some shoddy work on the last two holes.

BRAD HARRISON IS WINNER AT TACOMA TACOMA, July 12.—(AP)—Bradshaw Harrison, representing the Tacoma lawn tennis club, for the second time captured the men's singles championship of the Pacific northwest tournament by defeating Theodore McDonald, Tacoma, in straight sets 6-3, 6-3, 6-0, in the final here today.

Mrs. Golda Myer Gross, Berkeley, sprang an upset by defeating Miss Charlotte Miller, also of Berkeley, in the women's singles final 6-3, 6-3.

Jack Cosgrove, San Francisco, waged an uphill fight to capture the junior boys' championship from Don Lewis of Portland in five sets 6-3, 6-3, 1-6, 6-1, 6-3. Cosgrove was seeded first in both the men's and junior boys' singles but was eliminated in the quarter finals of the men's event.

Caroly Fringess, young Tacoma star, won the junior girls' championship, defeating Betty Turner, Berkeley, 6-3, 6-1.

CURT COMMENTS

Report says Bobby Jones at Interlachen hit the ball into one of the lakes for which the place is named, and the pellet bounced right out again. Funny, we've tried and tried to do that and never could make it. Shows how good these champions are.

Los Angeles has clinched the first half stag. Reports don't mention it, but we believe Portland is equally sure of holding its present place.

This big boy Harry Demetral, who wrestles Al Karasick here Wednesday night, looks like a good match for the Lion. Wonder who the bloodthirsty fans who howled at Karasick last time will root for this time? We're told, by the way, that Karasick is a nice fellow to meet, outside of the ring. And not nearly so dirty in it as some fans believe. Let's give him the benefit of the doubt, at least.

It's been pretty nearly a month since we've had a Willamette Valley league ball game here. Dunno whether we remember how to keep score or not.

The last home game was the one with Albany which started the Senators' winning streak—a rally that hasn't been broken yet, (knock, knock.) That day the Senators beat the Alcos 12 to 3 and showed them out of the leadership. We're nothing against Coley and the Chicks, but it's really the boys' duty to treat them likewise today.

However, it won't be so easy. Coley and Brown have been doing some neat mound work and the Senators will have to be on their toes. It wasn't much more than a month ago that the Chicks came here, minus Coley whose car broke down on a flaking trip; and this nonchalant led Brown held the Senator crew to six hits and two runs, winning 5 to 2. At that time the Solons were in the cellar hitting percentage; now they're at the top.

Midweek practice has had a lot to do with that. With a home guard team for the first time, "Prisco" has been able this year to get the boys out for regular hitting practice, and that has made a big difference. So too, have Harold Olinger, Billy Sullivan and Andy Peterson.

Andy's record would be clean now if it hadn't been for that Corvallis game, his first in this class of ball. Maybe he won't be out there trying to burn 'em next today?

Sande and Gallant Fox Win Arlington Classic By a Nose Over Knight

By CHARLES W. DUNKLEY CHICAGO, July 12.—(AP)—Gallant Fox, 1930 superb horse of the American turf, proved himself every inch a champion, like his master rider, Earl Sande, to win in the $70,000 Arlington classic today.

Before a sweltering crowd of between 60,000 and 60,000 the sensational son of the French stallion Sir Gallahad III-Marguerite annexed the richest three-year-old stake of the year by a neck in a desperate whipping finish with Gallant Knight. Ned O. was third, six lengths back in the field of six.

The sensational colt owned by William Woodruff, New York banker, added $64,750 to his winnings as a result of his victory the race had a gross of $78,750, including the bonus of $10,000 paid to the winner because he previously had won the Preakness, Kentucky Derby and Belmont stakes. His winnings to date including purses won as a two year old aggregate $274,830. In the last 60 days Gallant Fox has won $265,090.

The finish was a thriller to the crowd which for a terrifying second, thought Sande and Gallant Fox would lose. Earl Sande, knowing Gallant Fox for the courageous horse he is, knew he had the race won and with masterly horsemanship, kept him running straight and true, hugging the rail, while he smacked him with the whip a few yards from the finish to toss his head under the wire a winner.

Gallant Knight with the younger Herman Schutte, astride his crew, made a strong challenge to overtake Fox in the stretch and furnished the eastern three year old his toughest opposition in his sensational career.

Solons and Chicks Clash

SEASON CLIMAX AT HAND TODAY

Game Here to Have Important Bearing on First Half Championship

The climax of the Willamette valley league first half pennant race is at hand today, with Corvallis and Salem battling on the Olinger field diamond here and Eugene and Albany meeting at Albany. The game here will start at 2:30 p. m.

Of the four league teams, Salem is the only one not directly concerned with the pennant sprint. However, the outcome of its game with Corvallis will be all-important in the windup of the first half scheduled.

Corvallis and Eugene are tied for the lead with Albany half a game behind and Salem a game and a half behind, just out of reach of a possible place in the finish race. Today's games are the last scheduled for the first half, but Eugene and Corvallis will undoubtedly have to play off their early season tie in order to settle the matter.

Peterson Named For Mound Duty In the last game between the Corvallis Chicks and the Senators here, Corvallis won 3 to 2, but that was before the Senator had hit their winning stride. They have won three games in succession since, two counting on the first half and one on the second.

Andy Peterson, who has twirled the solons to these three successive victories, will be on the mound today, and the lineup will be the same that has engaged in recent games. DeVault, erstwhile utility man, will be seen in his new regular left field berth for the first time by local fans. He takes a lead of two matches to one in the European zone Davis cup final.

Having broken even in Friday's opening matches, the Italians need take only one of tomorrow's two singles to clinch the series and qualify to place the United States on the right to challenge the French.
