President of War Mothers Will Visit

MRS. VIRGIL McCLELLAN, national president of the American War Mothers, has made her name an outstanding one in the history of the organization in the east and especially in Kentucky. Mrs. McClellan is from Lexington, Kentucky.

Just at present she is on tour of the United States visiting the various chapters in the states. She will arrive in Portland this morning and from there will come to Salem probably Tuesday evening to be a guest of the Salem chapter of War Mothers.

A banquet has been planned for her which will be held in the social rooms of the Masonic temple. This will very likely be Wednesday night although plans are not yet definite.

The reception committee appointed by the president, Mrs. A. L. Lee, is Mrs. Mary E. Watson, Mrs. Carrie Beecher, Mrs. Minnie Humphreys, Mrs. Mae Meyers, Mrs. Flora Abbott, Mrs. F. A. Erickson, Mrs. Luella Legge, Mrs. Jennie Vincent, and Mrs. Elizabeth Waters will greet the guests at the door.

The decorating committee will be Mrs. Rose Hagedorn, Mrs. Elizabeth Ryder, Mrs. Carrie Lindsay, Mrs. Cora May Prime. The committee to arrange the menu for the banquet is Mrs. Laura McAdams, Mrs. Nettie Schramm and Mrs. Norma Terwilliger.

In addition to these plans three new members were taken into the organization Tuesday afternoon. These were Mrs. Nora Bussey, Mrs. Bessie Martin, and Mrs. Helen M. Southwick. Several memberships were renewed at this meeting in addition to the new ones entered.

Club Picnic At Hazel Green
PICNICS are now a very popular diversion and one of particular interest was the one held Friday evening at Hazel Green, when members of a local bridge club chose the way of bringing to a close the year's meetings. Swimming, and outdoor sports made the evening most enjoyable. Those included in the guest list were:

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Poorman, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Malson, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Becke, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. McMechan, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Pierce and Mrs. Velma Farmer.

Statesman Pattern

Although July is vying with June this year for wedding honors, we present today three prominent June brides, a July bride, a visitor and a local woman active in Y. W. C. A. circles. Upper row, from left to right: Mrs. Roy Harrington of Santa Barbara, Calif., who is a guest of Mrs. Wayne Bonesteel (nee Mamie Victor), who has been extensively entertained upon return from an extended wedding trip. Lower row, left to right: Mrs. Oscar White (nee Helen Moorehead, who will be in Gearhart this week to direct music for the Y. W. C. A. business women's council meeting; whose wedding occurred July 5; and Mrs. Edward C. Nash (nee Helen Mintonberger).

Mrs. Sam Tyler Is Complimented

Mrs. Sam Tyler of Bend is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scott for a few days. Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Scott entertained with a social evening in compliment to Mrs. Tyler. At the tea hour Mrs. Scott was assisted by Mrs. Tyler in serving.

Those present were Mrs. Tyler, the honor guest, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Emmons, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kietling, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Haag, and Mr. and Mrs. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Ludwick Mickelson left Saturday for Bend, Oregon, to attend the annual convention of the United Spanish War Veterans. They plan to go by way of The Dalles and return by way of McKenzie Pass. Mr. Mickelson is commander of the local post and Mrs. Mickelson, president of the auxiliary.

Independence—The U-Go-I-Go club met at the home of Mrs. Elmer Bushy in North Independence on Friday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in conversation and needlework. Mrs. Mary Beal was the honored guest of the afternoon. The club ladies celebrated her birthday and presented her with a gift at the close of the afternoon. A dainty lunch was served, the table being beautiful with a bowl of sweet peas.

Those present were Mrs. Mary Beal, Mrs. Mary O'Kallie, Mrs. Pearl Hedges, Mrs. Percy Dickinson, Mrs. Bess Craven, Mrs. A. Busby and Mrs. A. L. Wilson of Salem and the hostess, Mrs. Elmer Bushy.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Percy Dickinson and will be the last meeting of the summer.

William Jones Dies Following Brief Illness
SILVERTON, July 12.—William H. Jones died here this morning following an illness of three weeks. Funeral arrangements have not as yet been made. The body is in charge of Jack and Elman.

Mr. Jones was born in Illinois in 1855. He with his family moved to Silvertown 33 years ago and has followed his trade as carpenter here since. He is survived by his widow, Mary Jones, and four children, Harrison Jones of The Dalles, Gale Jones and Mrs. Ruth Hall of Salem, and Mrs. Velma Thompson of Silvertown.

Tourist Camps All Subject to Inspection, Held
Tourist camp grounds, regardless of whether they are equipped with tents or cottages, are subject to state inspection and regulation, according to an opinion handed down by the attorney general here Saturday.

The opinion was requested by Frederick Stricker, secretary of the state board of health, who reported that a number of persons having cottages for rent at beach resorts claimed exemption from state regulation.

Etiquette

By ROBERTA LEE

Q. Should a lady ever thank a man for any social favor?
A. No; if they have been to the theater together, she may tell him she has had a delightful evening, and has enjoyed being with him, but should never thank him.

Q. When a man calls upon a lady in a hotel, where should she receive him?
A. In the parlor or reception room.

Q. Is it necessary to wait until everyone is served before beginning to eat?
A. No; but wait until the hostess has begun to eat.

Gervais—The ladies of St. Louis parish will hold their annual chicken dinner Sunday, July 20, at the parish grove, one half mile west of the St. Louis church.

The Oklahoma society and Gervais chapter, O. E. S., will both hold picnics at Hazel Green Sunday, July 20.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Lyman Stead and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Smith are spending this weekend at Brettenbush springs.

The Housewife's Idea Box

For Your Sponge Cake
Have you ever admired the lovely brown crust on top of sponge cake in the bakery? You can have that, too, on your cake. Before you place your cake into the oven, sprinkle a little fine white sugar over the top. This will form that rich brown crust the bakers prize. The cake will be so nice.

THE HOUSEWIFE

DALTON SUFFERS ATTACK
SALEM HEIGHTS, July 12.—Kenneth Dalton, proprietor of Dalton's Grocery, suffered an attack of facial paralysis this week due to a head injury while swimming. He is gradually recovering from the effects of his accident.

AT BOY SCOUT CAMP
INDEPENDENCE, July 12.—Edwin and Ray Duncel, Marlow Butler and William Horton, have gone to the Boy Scout camp near McKenzie. They will remain for a couple of weeks.

What Paris is Wearing
By E. SPONKAY

PARIS—Jeweled shoulder straps that may be changed from one evening gown to another, are two of the points of a new three-piece evening ensemble shown in the better Paris fashion houses. A matching buckle that is easily adjusted in belt or neckline keeps the three pieces of this smart new evening dress.

The suit of three to be introduced in Paris was worn at a special fashion show in the new salons of the Hotel Ritz. They were made of a new fabric called "tulle" and were trimmed with beaded diamonds. The ensemble was formed of two pieces of tulle and with beaded diamonds, joined by a band of diamonds.

Other features of this set of jewelry include a pair of earrings, a necklace and a bracelet. The jewelry is made of a new fabric called "tulle" and is trimmed with beaded diamonds. The ensemble was formed of two pieces of tulle and with beaded diamonds, joined by a band of diamonds.

Miss Mildred Gehle To Leave for East

Miss Mildred Gehle, who has been an assistant with Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts, will leave about July 21 for her home in Chicago, where she will make an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gehle.

Before leaving the Roberts and Gehle will spend a few days at Lake Lytle.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McLellan, accompanied by their daughter and son, Sally and Dan Jr., are expected home today from Bend where they have been for the past week, calling on their former Bend friends. Mr. McLellan was called to Bend in the interests of the state land board.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Harris, and Mrs. Charles Moore who have been visiting friends and relatives in this city for the past ten days, left Saturday for their home in Walla Walla. They were accompanied on the return trip by Mr. Harris' mother, Mrs. C. C. Harris, who will be their guest for several weeks, convalescing from a recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Goodwin left Friday evening by motor for The Dalles, where they will spend the weekend visiting with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin are former residents of The Dalles and will be welcomed by their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Blake, accompanied by Mrs. Blake's mother, Mrs. E. Berry of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, who is the house guest at the Blake home for the summer, spent Saturday in Portland visiting with friends.

FLASHES OF FASHION FROM FASHIONETTE
New York, July 12.—Pastel fashions are having it all their own way this summer. Hat makers who early in the season thought they were well stocked with the delightful pastels have been forced to lay aside fall work to complete additional orders for summer fashions.

At the Fashionette the pastels are priced $1.95 to $3.95. Specially priced.

Hollywood, July 10.—At the Santa Monica Beaches they are wearing pajamas with as many colors as Joseph's coat. On the Boulevard of two-piece silk suits are the thing, especially those with pastel jackets.

Fashionette's price on two-piece suits $11.25 to $29.50. Values to $40.50.

Paris, July 5.—Coats for fall, while longer, still give much opportunity for the individual wearer's choice of length. Imported cloth and elaborate fur collars are the features.

Clearance Sale continues with wonderful reductions.

Word Received of Miss Mildred Roberts

MISS Mildred Roberts, who with her mother, Mrs. John Roberts, left Salem a year ago last October for Europe where she went to continue her violin study has written some interesting letters concerning her studies and experiences there to her former teacher here, William Wallace Graham, with whom she studied for six years. Miss Roberts' work in Europe was planned to last three years, and the enthusiasm with which she writes indicates that she will carry out her plans.

Letters also have been received by Mr. Graham from Mareau, the master with whom Miss Roberts is studying, which indicate that her work is developing in quite a superior way. Mareau would say that she is the best of the several students which have come to him from Mr. Graham, who is himself a pupil of Mareau. Mr. Graham studied under him in the Royal high school in Dresden and later taught under him.

Following the war the high schools in Germany, which correspond to our universities, were taken over by the government and were made into state schools, and that is where Miss Roberts is studying, at the state school in Dresden, which was formerly the Royal high school.

The letters which tell of the grief of getting accustomed to the moods of the master Mareau are most amusing. Miss Roberts began her work under him with the "Fifth concerto." This proved rather an ordeal with neither of the musicians in the least accustomed to the other. Now at last reports she was working on such things as the "Concerto in D minor," Bach; "Concerto in E minor," Vitti; and other such like work with many scales by Mareau.

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Gilbert entertained informally Saturday evening at their country home in honor of Mrs. Earl Shafer who is here visiting from her home in San Francisco, California.

Mrs. Clifford Farmer, accompanied by Mrs. Ray L. Farmer, and "Sonny" Farmer, left Saturday for Agate Beach, where they will spend the coming week in the Walter Kirk cottage.

Mrs. F. W. Ross, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. W. P. Blake of Portland, Oregon, returned to this city Friday after spending a week in Roseburg, with Mrs. Ross's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Ross and Mr. and Mrs. John Stimpson, will be included in a party of Salem folk who left last night for Breitenbush Springs where they will enjoy a weekend in the mountains.

Mrs. Wallace Carson will be a luncheon hostess on Monday complimenting Mr. Carson's mother, Mrs. J. H. Carson.

Mrs. William Walton of this city spent Friday in Portland with friends.

E. F. Smiths Entertain for Guests

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Smith entertained informally at their home in the Royal Court apartments, with three tables of bridge on Tuesday evening of this week, in compliment to their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Hicks, of Oakland, California.

Those hidden for the evening include: Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Hicks, Oakland, California, Mr. and Mrs. Willis J. Roughton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lyman Stead, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bauer, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stump and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks, in company with their small son, Harry, Jr., have returned to their home in California after a pleasant stay in the capital city.

Ruth Purdy Announces Betrothal

News of the engagement of Miss Ruth Purdy of Silvertown, Oregon, to Mr. Clifford Rue also of Silvertown has been received in this city. Miss Purdy was formerly a teacher on the commercial department of the senior high school of this city and has been prominent in many social affairs. Mr. Rue is connected with the Coolidge-McClaine bank of Silvertown. The wedding is to be an event of the early fall after which the young couple will make their home in Silvertown. Many social affairs are being arranged for the popular bride-elect.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy "Spec" Keene, accompanied by their small daughter, Madalene Gleen, will leave Monday for Portland on a combined business and pleasure trip. The Keenes plan to be away from the city for the entire week.

Robert and Jean expect to leave Tuesday for Denver, Colorado, where Dr. Pound will attend the meeting of the National Dental association convention. They are making the trip by automobile and plan to be gone about three weeks.

Miss Esther Benson, of Portland, will be a guest on Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Tom Wood, in her home in the Royal Court apartments. Miss Benson will be the inspiration for a luncheon which will include several sorority sisters of the guest of honor, and a few additional guests.

A group of prominent Salem people motored to Bend recently where they were the guests of Senator and Mrs. Jay H. Upton. Those included in the trip are Dr. W. H. and Mrs. Lytle, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Malson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bonesteel and Mrs. L. C. Farmer.

Mrs. Dolph Craig and small son, Robert, are expected to return Sunday from Mehama where they have been the guests for the past few days of Mrs. Noel Hoff at the Joseph Albert mountain cabin.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford are receiving members of the Salem writers' league at their home on Tuesday evening for a picnic supper and then a regular meeting following. Guests will bring covered dishes and table utensils.

Phillippi Program Announced For Wednesday

PROF. and Mrs. Roberts have the pleasure of presenting Mr. Daniel R. Phillippi in an invitational evening of outstanding music in their lovely residence on Wednesday evening of this week. Salem music lovers feel very fortunate in having the opportunity of hearing Mr. Phillippi, who is organist and choirmaster at Christ church cathedral in St. Louis, Mo. He will also play a program in the Portland First Presbyterian church Sunday at 4 o'clock. Mr. Phillippi has selected the following program for his recital here which will include:
