The "dodo" of baseball, a no-hit, no-run game, was chalked up by Andy Peterson, Salem Senators' loose-jointed mound ace, Sunday when he set the Corvallis Chicks down like clockwork for nine innings. He fanned 14, just half of the batsmen facing him, and not only allowed no safe singles, but kept the opposition from hitting the ball into outfield territory.

There was one breathless moment in the eighth, when Quisenberry, Chick third sacker, sent a grass-kisser exactly halfway between first and second and traveling fast. But the Senators were all on their toes to help Andy out, and Lou Girod, tearing over from his position, made a diving stab and came up with the ball in time to throw Quisenberry out at first. Peterson grinned, hitched up his belt, and made the next five men whiff the breeze.

It was a ticklish situation in the ninth. Ralph Coleman, Chick manager, sent in Disney to bat for Burmaster, and when Disney fanned, Coley himself, most dangerous pinch hitter in the league, strode to the plate—and walked away again after lancing the atmosphere three times.

Then came the last man—Hafenfeldt, almost as dangerous as Coleman. In organized ball, the last man up is a no-hit game as an act of courtesy, but the Chicks were only a run behind with the first half title at stake. Hafenfeldt did his best, but that was a foul tip.

Al Brown, Corvallis pitcher, was almost as stingy as Peterson. The Senators' success in their lone run in the third, Ted Girod getting a single after two were out, stealing second and scoring on Paul Girod's hit. Sullivan got a two bagger in the sixth with Olinger on first, but they were both caught at the plate on succeeding plays. In the ninth Ted Girod and Olinger chalked up hits, but again fell short of scoring. With two men on, Brown purposely walked Sullivan and the strategy worked, L. Girod popping out.

Quisenberry, who came so near spoiling Peterson's feat, also was safe on a batted ball in the fifth inning, but that was on a bobble which Peterson and L. Girod made up for by a speedy double play. The first inning was the only one in which more than three men faced Peterson.

Eugene Goes Ahead By Beating Alcos
ALBANY, July 14.—(Special)—The Eugene ball team climbed into the hotly contested leadership of the Willamette Valley league Sunday by winning a wild ball game from Albany here, 11 to 6. The Alcos out-hit the Townies but suffered an epidemic of butterflies, errors being chalked up against everybody but the second baseman and the left fielder.

Up until the time that Dave Stritmater's defense cracked wide open, the game was anybody's, being tied from the fourth to the seventh inning and the Alcos one run ahead at the end of the seventh. In each of the last two

Helen Wills Moody Back With French and British Titles; Welcomes Few

NEW YORK, July 14.—(AP)—Making a one-day back to San Francisco and the home and husband she last saw more than three months ago, the greatest woman tennis player in the world landed here today after the most successful of all her European tours. Dressed becomingly in blue and white from the soles of her navy blue slippers to the crown of her snowy Panama, Mrs. Helen Wills Moody stepped gaily down the gangplank of the Majestic with the unique record of ten straight major singles championships featuring lightly upon her youthful shoulder.

"Giving up tennis after this year? Oh dear no!" She smiled at the thought, "I shall go on playing tennis indefinitely." "It has been a lovely trip, but I am eager to be home plan to leave for California almost at once—probably the day after tomorrow. I will be back in New York a week in advance of the national championships at Forest Hills starting August 18."

Mrs. Moody, returning in triumph with the French and English championships in both singles and doubles, appeared even more healthily and happy than she did as Helen Wills.

There was none of the noisy welcome with which New York greeted Bobby Jones a few weeks ago. In fact, the welcoming delegation consisted entirely of six reporters, half a dozen photographers and movie men, and two representatives of the United States Lawn Tennis association. Conquering the world without loss of a set is getting to be almost a commonplace feat for this remarkable Californian, and there is little excitement about it.

innings Eugene scored three runs on only one hit, the numerous bobbles accounting for the tallies.

MANDELL, SINGER WIND UP TRAINING

NEW YORK, July 14.—(AP)—In two widely separated training camps Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion, and young Al Singer, the challenger, today finished their training for their 15-round title tilt in Yankee stadium Thursday night.

Mandell, the veteran, has done the least work in preparation for what promises to be one of the bitterest battles of his long career. Singer has plugged along in feverish fashion, a youngster gaining daily in ability, without fear of the weight bugaboo that has hung over Mandell for two years.

After concluding glove work today with six rounds of boxing, only his eighth sparring session in three weeks at Orangeburg, Mandell said he was below the class limit of 135 pounds despite general opinion he has two days of "boiling out" torture ahead before he can be certain of making the weight.

Singer, resting and exercising only enough to keep on edge, tipped the bean at 134½ at Delaware Water Gap, Pa. Both will exercise lightly tomorrow and leave for New York.

An air mail service between Chambers and Cologne is expected to save 24 to 48 hours for German mail sent to the U. S.

PUT IN BAY, Ohio, July 14.—(AP)—The angry roar of racing outboard motorboats tomorrow in Lake Erie here will be the start for four days racing of the 37th regatta of the Inter-Lake Yachting association.

Today, great lakes pleasure craft skippers who had arrived, paused amid the festivities to dedicate a memorial to the Commodore who have piloted the association since it was organized in 1855 and reorganized in 1924.

After the outboards have shown their stuff tomorrow the graceful sailing yachts, sloops and catboats will come in afternoon activity for their type of events, probably the most picturesque part of the regatta.

Mt. Angel Beats Turner 6 to 5 in 13 Inning Fracas Sunday

MT. ANGEL, July 14.—(Special)—The "little world series" for the Cascade league championship was tied up at one game each when the Mt. Angel team defeated Turner here in 13 innings, 6 to 5 Sunday. Turner had won the previous game on his own diamond by a similarly close margin.

Turner had visions of a championship in its grasp when it acquired a 5 to 0 lead, only to see the home team come back with a seventh inning rally to tie the score. From then on to the 13th it was a pitchers' battle, broken by the home team's score in the "hoodoo" inning.

The third game of the series will be played at Salem next Sunday.

Yes, sir, it's some pitching! But it won't take any of the honor away from Andy, if we had a rightful proportion to the old head, "Frisco." Did you say "huh"? Well, you fans who have been out there every Sunday, has any one of you noticed Andy shaking his head at the boss when he called for a certain pitch? Not this season.

Andy has the arm and the control, but Leo supplies the headwork—not that Andy hasn't a good head, too, but he lacks Leo's years of experience.

Silverton Swamps Astoria's Juniors SILVERTON, July 14.—The American Legion Junior baseball tossers of Silverton literally swamped Astoria Sunday when they rolled up a 32 to 0 score against the visitors on the Silverton diamond.

Silverton had 27 hits, 32 runs and 1 error, while Astoria had no hits, no runs, and 8 errors. Dankala, B. Wilson and Laback pitched for Astoria with Burstrom catching. Schwab and Rudhaar formed the Silverton batteries.

This victory made Silverton champion of district 1 and 2, as Thursday Silverton had defeated Astoria with a 7 to 5 score. Silverton will next play the southern Oregon team.

CURT COMMENTS

No-hit, no run! That's a lifelong dream for most pitchers, and here Andy Peterson has "arrived" at the youthful age of 19.

No question about it either—there wasn't anything that could have been called a hit, as only one man got on base as result of a fair hit ball and that one took a good bounce and wasn't hot. "Zeke" just muffed it, and we know he's glad to admit it under the circumstances.

But Lou Girod had a lot to do with that record—what a stop he made in the eighth to keep it good! And there's no question but that Andy had it coming. The Chicks are no workhorses at bat. Lamb was hitting .417 and Hafenfeldt .333 up to this game. But they bit the dust just like the rest. Not a fair ball hit past the infield, high or low!

Maybe some of you fans don't realize how rare no-hit games are. Well, there was just one in the major leagues last year—and it went to the credit of Hubbell, New York Giants twirler.

Yes, sir, it's some pitching! But it won't take any of the honor away from Andy, if we had a rightful proportion to the old head, "Frisco." Did you say "huh"?
