FEE QUESTION RAISED HERE

Legality of Collections by Fruit Inspector to Be Probed

That is the question which district attorney John Carson is investigating at the present time, based on complaints that have come to him regarding the collection of fees by Fruit Inspector S. H. Van Trump. The complaints did not come from the Woodburn area as surmised in the news story in last night's Salem evening paper, nor was the complaint lodged by Hyde and Co., as there is stated. Carson has checks made out by growers of strawberry plants in favor of Mr. Van Trump and cashed by him personally. These checks cover a period from 1925 to 1929. The proceeds were not deposited to the credit of the county. The total amount of the checks in hand is $68.50.

Van Trump asserts that the collection of such fees was authorized by the state board of horticulture in 1924 to be collected by the inspector and retained by him as compensation for the work. The inspection covered the tagging of strawberry plants for shipment outside the state there having been a threat of embargo against untagged Oregon plants.

C. A. Park, who was a member of the board for this district at the time, is cited as being familiar with the order of the board. Present members of the state board of horticulture on the other hand have no recollection of such an order and a search of the minutes has been called for to determine if it is a matter of record. Mr. Park, when queried, had a recollection of the matter.

Weekend at Neskowin—Among weekend visitors from here at Neskowin were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blinnhorn, Dr. and Mrs. V. A. Douglas and Mr. and Mrs. Mike Panak.

Rae in City—Arne Rae, field secretary for the Oregon State Editorial association, was in Salem on business Monday.

At Breitenbush—Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Krueger were Sunday visitors at Breitenbush springs.

TEXTBOOK COSTS SHOWN IN REPORT

Textbooks for children in the grade schools of Oregon last year cost an average of $1.06 per child, while the cost of books for students in the high schools was $1.63. This information was contained in a report prepared by C. A. Howard, state superintendent of schools.

These figures cover the cost of only those books included in the state adoptions for the schools. There were 142,054 children enrolled in the grade schools of Oregon in 1929, and 43,872 in the high schools. A total of 210,128 grade school books were sold in 1929 at a cost of $151,263.90. High school books sold during the year numbered 58,143, representing $82,602.10.

PIPE AND CIGARETTE TOBACCO
LLOYD & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Smokers:

Test this for yourself:
VELVET Smoking Tobacco is different—different in aroma, different in flavor. It is an all 'round tobacco for pipe and cigarette—note the cut, just right for rolling.

Say what you please, there is nothing that mellows leaf tobacco like ageing in wooden casks for two years or more.

If you roll your own, you'll find in every tin of VELVET the makings of about 50 of the best cigarettes you ever smoked. VELVET tobacco is made and cut just exactly right for rolling.

If you prefer to smoke a pipe, then here's a tobacco that hits the mark.

Test it out for yourself!
