Turner Growers Will Hand Pull Much of This Year's Crop

TURNER, July 21 — Ball Brothers flax pulling machine after several years of service is on the job for the recent year's pulling. It began work last week, but will not have a long run in Turner vicinity as much of the acreage has to be hand-pulled, owing to growing conditions.

H. S. Bond was ill Wednesday evening and a doctor was called. Mr. Bond soon recovered his usual health and resumed his duties as Southern Pacific agent.

The M. E. Ladies Aid society will hold their monthly Silver Tea at the country home of Mrs. C. A. Bear, Thursday afternoon, July 24. All ladies cordially invited.

U. S. Talbot has been busy painting the residence of Mrs. Cornelia Davis.

B. Tucker had trouble with a truck load of wood at one of the bridge detours Saturday morning and had to unload, so great damage resulted from the mishap.

Little Bobby Hall is much pleased to be home after his two weeks, enforced stay at a Salem hospital, suffering from internal injuries, caused by a fall. He was able to be moved home Thursday, much to the joy of his parents and friends. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Ball.

Mrs. Deane Tucker was not able to leave the hospital and come to her parents' home as soon as was expected, but will remain at the hospital for some time.

Turner and vicinity can boast of several pairs of twins, the oldest being Henry and Harry Barnett who are old residents of Turner. They celebrated their 53rd birthday Sunday.

Mrs. W. T. Riche had the company of her granddaughter, Rachel Riches Sunday, it being the occasion of her birthday, and was pleased with her birthday cake, it being made by her young granddaughter.

Miss Mildred Martin who has a position in Salem spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Martin.

The men of the brotherhood of the M. E. church, announce they will serve a chicken dinner Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the parsonage. The meal will be prepared by the men, and the ladies are invited. The proceeds of the evening will apply to church improvement. At 8 o'clock all will assemble in the church for the evening's program. The general subject will be "Our Church's Future." Friends welcome.

Pipe in Tractor Provides Home for Wren SEARCH IS REWARDED

ZENA, July 21 — Old mother nature provides her feathered children with protective instincts which enable them to hide their young from a man's eyes and to build their nests in the safest locations so that man's eyes and ears will not find them.

Some of the smaller kinds such as the wren, Phoebe and Chickadee build their nests in the oddest places imaginable.

I remember one year hearing little birds somewhere in the woodshed and finally located the nest in an old teakettle which was minus a lid. But I found the strange location for a nest of them all recently.

My two girls, Alice, aged 12 and Wilma nine, are intensely interested in all wild life and often find curious things. One day they came to me and said, "Mother, come and help us find a nest in the tractor shed. We can hear little birds but can't find them."

I was just as much puzzled as they were when I looked in the shed until finally I said, "Children, be just as quiet as possible and then the mother will come to feed the little ones."

Mother Bird Returns Sure enough when all was quiet the mother, a tiny wren, fluttered into the shed. After chirping and hopping around to assure herself all was well, she flew away and soon came back with a worm in her beak. After some hesitation she perched on the clutch arm of the tractor, which is a round pipe about six inches in diameter. There was a hole about as large as a dollar in this pipe and in she dived to feed her babies.

We were astonished for we had seen sitting on the tractor seat and couldn't locate the nest as the hollow pipe muffled the little chirps.

Mehama Families Return From Motor Journey

MEHAMA, July 21 — Mr. and Mrs. H. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Nye Phillips and two boys returned the middle of the week from a trip to Kiowa and Denver, Colo. where they visited relatives.

While gone they visited points of interest in eight states—Washington, Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona and California. They stayed over a few days at Santa Monica, Calif., to visit with their daughter, Hazel Purser. They all agree that Oregon is the best of the eight states they visited. In Colorado the crops are almost a failure due to such a long dry spell.

These girls who are scattered all over the northwest and as far south as Los Angeles have returned to Vancouver for a vacation, and were united at a picnic Thursday evening, held in one of the beauty spots of that city.

Road Work Is To Be Delayed

VALSETZ, July 21 — Martin Rudy, called a meeting of the "Valsets Road club," Tuesday evening in the movie hall. The meeting was to decide if the people of the community wanted to gravel the now one into an 18 foot road.

Clarence Powell Wood, superintendent has been appointed to take charge of the road. It was decided that as the funds were rather low in the treasury that at present, the road crew would take the shovel and garden, only to the foot hills, or the forest ranger camp ground.

No gravel will be put on the road this year.

SIMPSON CLAN TO MEET JULY 27

INDEPENDENCE, July 21 — An airplane has been here for the last three days, taking up passengers.

The airport is just north of town on the old Nelson farm. L. H. Treat, 86 years old, and his great grandson, William Roger Baker, both living near Forestmead, came to take their first ride in an airplane, celebrating both of their birthdays.

The old gentleman is very spry for his age. He remarked he had driven an ox team, rode in a Ford, and thought this ride in an airplane would be the highest up he would ever get.
