"SKEEZIX" IN TROUBLE THE STAIRS WERE HARD

WOODBURN, July 22.—"Little dogs that insist upon chewing at the top of the stairs," is an axiom that George Keyes wants every householder to observe. Here's why—"Skeezix," Keyes' fox terrier house dog, has a very peculiar yen for chewing lead pencils. But the other day, instead of chewing his pencil into nice soft sawdust,

"Skeezix" left it only partly chewed, lying at the head of the stairs. The next morning the master of the house stepped on the pencil as he was going downstairs. Result—Mr. Keyes finds himself lying at the bottom of the stairs wrapped artistically about his neck. Mr. Keyes will live, but "Skeezix's" life is not so certain.

RELIABILITY ECONOMY GOOD PERFORMANCE

THE NEW FORD TUDOR SEDAN

YOU are buying proved performance when you buy a Ford. You know it has been built for many thousands of miles of satisfactory, economical service.

Letters from users in every part of the world show the value of its sound design, good materials and accuracy in manufacturing. You sense a feeling of sincere pride in the oft-repeated phrase—"Let me tell you what my new Ford did."

Further tribute to the sturdiness, reliability and general all-round performance of the new Ford is shown in the repeated and growing purchases by government bureaus, by police departments, and by large industrial companies which keep careful day-by-day cost records. In most cases, the new Ford has been chosen only after exhaustive tests covering speed and power, safety, comfort, ease of control, oil and gas consumption, low yearly depreciation, and low cost of up-keep.

They have found, as you will find, that the Ford embodies every feature you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.
