Karasick Wins From Harry Demetral in Thrilling Final Coup

Two important announcements featured the wrestling show at the armory Wednesday night, somewhat rivaling in interest the main event itself, in which Al Karasick won in spectacular fa- zo though Latzo knocked him out shion after each grappler had won in their first engagement. The announcements were: 1. The much discussed main event for Art Reilly and Sammy Vangler is definitely on for next Wednesday night, according to Matchmaker Harry Plant.

2. Competition in a tourna-Matheny, Albany matchmaker, will ate terms. be at stake but a long series of bouts will take place before it is any grappler's property. It may be competed for anywhere in the northwest, and Salem will get some of the matches. Fans Get Money's Worth This Time The Karasick-Demetral bout was rougher and more convincing than the one they staged a week before. After an excessively rough 13 minutes and 2 seconds of grapand headlocks ending with Demetral's shoulders pinned to the Demetral seized a leg split opportunity early in the second round and converted it into a Boston crab, and Karasick pounded the mat for his first time in Salem, in three minutes, 10 seconds. In a grueling third round Demetral hung on numerous punishing arm holds, almost wrecking the Russian's stub of a hand, but Karasick broke each one though he seemed on the defensive most of the time. Finally after 16 minutes Demetral essayed the crab hold again but before he settle down on it, Karasick grabbed a double handful of canvas, rocked forward to throw the Greek off balance then toppled him over, tied him in a knot with the cradle hold and pinned his shoulders.
