SIMPSON RITES ON WEDNESDAY

Mrs. James B. Simpson Had Spent Her Life in and Near-Salem

ZENA, July 23.—Funeral services for Mrs. James B. Simpson, Salem, 70, who died Sunday, July 20, were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday, July 23, from the Clough-Taylor funeral parlors at Salem. Interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery. Reverend D. J. Howe, pastor of the First Christian church had charge of the services.

Mrs. James B. Simpson was born near Salem, June 4, 1860. She was formerly Miss Mary Jane HeckerSmith and married James B. Simpson, April 1, 1880. They celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary April 1, 1930. Most of their married life was spent in Salem although the first four years they resided in the Waldo Hills. Her death ended a beautiful Christian career of unselfish devotion to her family and their friends. She was beloved by a large circle of friends, both young and old to whom news of her death came as a decided shock. She suffered a paralytic stroke Thursday, July 17, and never became conscious again. Surviving her are her widower, James B. Simpson, a daughter, Mrs. Archibald M. Matlock (Mrs. Marie Simpson) of Veneta, Oregon; two sons, J. Clyde Simpson and Noel
