Prescott Gardens Scene of Gala Affair

On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Prescott were hosts at their home on Oak street to Joshua Smith, Camp No. 6, Sons of Union Veterans and their auxiliary, for a potluck supper, which was held in the attractive yard adjoining the Prescott home. The guests, seated at one long table under the large oak trees, which had been electrically lighted, made a most pleasing picture. Following the supper an informal evening of games and outdoor sports consisting of croquet, horseshoe pitching and various competitive fetes were enjoyed by those in attendance which included Mrs. Lizzie W. Smith, for whose husband the Camp was named, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fessenden, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Remington, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hagadorn, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Blevins, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. McWhorter, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bennett and sister, Mrs. Grace Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Yantis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McShane, John Thompson and mother, Mrs. Lena Robinson, Mrs. Georgia Shearer, and granddaughter June Buckels, Mrs. Mettie Schram, Mrs. Jessie Crossan, Mrs. Hattie B. Cameron, Mrs. Minnie Baker, Miss Elsie Lorain Robbins, Mrs. M. Lausch, Fred Remington, Dwight Adams, John Robbins, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Prescott. Others came later. The party dispersed at a late hour, all having had a most delightful evening.

Guests From East Leave For Home

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Ruffner, who have been guests of Mrs. E. E. Carrier and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Miles, left a few days ago for Banff, Lake Louise and points north of the west, where they will visit, continuing on to their next interesting point, Yellowstone National park and from there to their home in New York.

Professor Ruffner is connected with the Stony Brook school for boys and they are making an extensive tour of the west.

Mrs. Charles Hays of Portland, who has been a guest at the Carrier home for some time, will remain with her aunt, who is convalescing from a recent illness, for the remainder of the summer.

Statesman Pattern

This stunning model, worn now without sleeves or cape, is perfect for early fall when the cleverly scalloped sleeves and graceful cape, are added. It is unusually easy to make, too, as all the raw edges may be bound for a smart effect. Note the harmonizing skirt line.

Pattern 1989 fashions delightfully of shantung, flat crepe, kasha, flannel or linen. A plain color... light or dark shade... or a print might be chosen for equally good results. The cape may be attached permanently or may be snapped on. Buttons add a chic touch.

May be obtained only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 40. Size 18 requires 3 7/8 yards of 39 inch material.

No dressmaking experience necessary. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given.

Send fifteen cents in coin, carefully wrapped, or stamps, for each pattern. Write clearly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

Out look of patterns for adults and children, also transfer patterns, fifteen cents; ten cents when ordered with a letter. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Patterns, Department 222, 223 and 224, Pine Tree City, Oregon.

Prominent Salem Couple Arrive Home

Mr. and Mrs. William Paulus, well known Salem couple, whose marriage took place recently, returned home a few days ago from an extended wedding tour which took them to the principal cities in the United States. Stops were made of several days each in Chicago, Washington, D. C., Atlantic City, New York, and Syracuse, where Mr. Paulus enjoyed the privilege of visiting some of the large clothing factories. Montreal, Banff and Lake Louise were also visited enroute home. At Banff, Mr. and Mrs. Paulus were met by Robert Paulus who returned with them to Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Paulus attended the Elk's national convention at Atlanta, Georgia, while in the east.

The West Salem W. C. T. U. held their regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Helen Prescott. The afternoon was enjoyably spent with a program which included humorous readings by Billy Mudd, piano solos by Geraldine Peterson and Maxine Holt and interesting articles read by several members "proving the success of prohibition." Plans were completed for the cooked food sale which will be held Saturday at the Southern Pacific ticket office for the benefit of the Children's Farm home at Corvallis.

The Knights and Ladies of the Macabees are making extensive plans for the meeting which is to be held Saturday evening, July 26 in the Fraternal Temple.

The Ladies Degree team of Portland will exemplify the public memorial service of the Macabees, while the main address of the evening will be delivered by Great Commander Sherwood. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl V. McMechan left Salem at 8:30 Wednesday morning by aeroplane for Yakima, Washington, where they will visit with Mrs. McMechan's brother, Morris McMechan, prominent Washington aviator. The McMechans expect to be gone about two weeks.

Miss Mildred Johnson of Portland, is a house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner for a few days. Miss Johnson and Mrs. Steiner are Pi Beta Phi sorority sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Delano are again in the city after having enjoyed a recent motor trip to Tacoma.

Salem Musicians Presented in Recital

All Salem music lovers have a real treat in store for them Tuesday evening, July 23, at 8 o'clock, when Professor E. W. Hobson will present several advanced students in concert recital in the Nelson auditorium. Professor Hobson is being assisted by his son, Master Emery Stewart Hobson, at the piano, and by the Salem Madrigal club and the Salem Civic Male chorus. He has also chosen as accompanists, Mrs. Kenneth Rich and Miss Ruth Bedford.

The students being presented are well known in Salem, having appeared at various times during the season. Miss Josephine Albert, opens the program with a delightful number, "Death of Joan of Arc" (from the opera) by Bembridge, which is followed by "As Sung in the Waters" and "Whither."

Mr. Wendell Robinson has selected "O Sleep, Why Dost Thou Leave Me," (from the opera "Semee") for his opening number.

Master Emery Stewart Hobson will make his first appearance in concert work with his interpretation of "Nocturn in G. Minor" by Chopin.

Miss Lillian Scott in her pleasing manner will sing "My Lover He Comes on the Skiff," written by Clough-Leigher.

Mr. Ronald Craven, popular tenor, will delight the audience with "The Bird of the Wilderness," which will be followed by an ensemble number "The Long Day Closes," sung by the Salem Civic and Male chorus. Miss Smith and Mr. Robinson each again appear, after which the Madrigal club and Civic Male chorus will sing two English folk songs, "A May Day Carol" and "Was-sail." English folk songs, are numbers which have never been presented in Salem and music lovers are greatly anticipating the presentation of these two numbers.

Mrs. Palmer MacDonald charmingly entertained the members of her bridge club with an attractive 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday afternoon in her home on Center street. Yellow and white were the colors chosen by the hostess which were used effectively in floral decorations and table appointments. High score for the afternoon were awarded Mrs. W. E. Scandling and Miss Helen Adelsperger.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis West and little daughter, Nancy Lou, arrived in the city a few days ago from their home in San Francisco, California, to be the guests of their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wassam and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. West, for a fortnight.

Turner — The Woman's Work club of Surprise grange met Tuesday with an all day meeting held at the home of Mrs. Clifford White. The ladies are working on their second quilt which they hope to sell at some future time. The usual potluck dinner was enjoyed. There were 18 members present besides a number of children.

Minnesota Picnic Playmore Park Sunday

Sunday, the 27th, is the day selected for the annual Minnesota picnic which will be held this year at "Playmore Park," a point midway between Woodburn and Hubbard. This organization has made rapid growth to the point that now nearly reaches the 700 mark. The Woodburn Minnesotas, a group of 100 members, will act as hostess for the day. They are arranging individual tables for the various parts of Minnesota and extensive plans are being formulated for some kind of a "stunt" from each group represented.

Another more formal program of interesting talks and musical numbers is planned which will help to make the day a pleasant one. N. E. Springer, president of the organization, John P. Winter, prominent Portland attorney, and P. F. Mackenzie will be the main speakers of the day, while the Gideon quarter of Salem will furnish the musical numbers.

All Minnesotans and their families are invited to come and enjoy the day. Each one is asked to bring his own basket and table service, while coffee and cream will be furnished. These picnics have proven very popular in the past and this one promises to be even more interesting.

Mrs. S. J. Butler Honors Guests

Mrs. S. J. Butler was hostess Thursday at pretty work bridge luncheon in her home on High street, when she entertained in honor of her sister, Miss Erma Botsford, of Honolulu, Hawaii, Mrs. Roselle Richardson and Mrs. Wetzel, friends of the honor guest.

Dainty pink and white were the colors selected for the table decorations which consisted of an artistically arranged centerpiece of beautiful pink and white sweet peas, flanked by shell pink tapers.

The guest list for the afternoon included, the honor guests, Miss Erma Botsford, Mrs. Roselle Richardson, Mrs. Wetzel, Mrs. E. Botsford, Mrs. J. E. Graham, Mrs. W. I. Staley, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Mrs. James Lewis, Mrs. Anne Klein, and the hostess Mrs. S. J. Butler.

Miss Erma Botsford, who is visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. Botsford, 323 North Church street, left Friday morning for Portland where she will visit friends and relatives for a few days.

Mrs. Wynn Johnson who has been the house guest of Mrs. Karl Kugel for the past week, left Wednesday for her home in Portland.

Mrs. Alice Dodd Honored Guest At Luncheon

Mrs. Russell Catlin and her daughter, Mrs. Frank Spears, were hostesses on Thursday with a 1 o'clock luncheon in their home on Chemeketa street, honoring Mrs. Alice H. Dodd.

Large baskets of summer flowers were used effectively about the spacious rooms while smaller floral centerpieces were used on the luncheon tables, where covers were placed for Mrs. Alice Dodd, the honor guest, Mrs. George Waters, Mrs. George Pearce, Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. E. A. Greenwood, of Salt Lake City; Mrs. U. G. Shipley, Mrs. John Albert, Mrs. T. Geer of Portland, Mrs. E. C. Cross, Mrs. T. B. Kay, Mrs. Seymour Jones, Mrs. John L. Rand, Mrs. Frank Spencer, Mrs. Charles Robertson, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. H. B. Thiesen, and the hostesses, Mrs. Catlin and Mrs. Spears. A guest prize was presented to Mrs. Dodd at the close of the afternoon's bridge play.

Family Reunited At Lester Home

One of the interesting family affairs held recently was the family reunion held the first of this week, when Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Lester and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gies of Salem, were joint host and hostess to the out of town relatives. Three days of entertainment, the first of which being Monday was spent at Necanic beach, Tuesday was enjoyed with a general "get together" day in Salem and Wednesday the party motored to Silver Creek Falls for a picnic. Representatives from Illinois, Iowa, California, Colorado, Idaho, Oregon and Canada were at the Lester home which include—

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Lester, Streater, Ill.; Mrs. F. R. Glasener and children, Ruth, Virginia and Miriam, Davenport, Iowa; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lester and children Robert, Ja. and Orval, Struan, Sask., Can.; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Overman and daughter Jean of Modesto, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lester, Berkeley, Calif.; Miss Kate Lester, Sterling, Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. Robert McIlvanna and children, Raymond and Geraldine, Portland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. O'Neill and children Jim and Dan, Marshfield, Ore.; Parker Gies, Salem, Ore.; Catherine Gies, Salem, Ore.; Ruth Smith, Marshfield, Ore.; Mrs. Lella Craft and son Joe, McCalla, Idaho; Miss Prudence Atwood, Villisca, Iowa; Mr. Joe Atwood, Villisca, Iowa; Mr. Guy Page, Kewanee, Ill.; Mrs. Iva Covait, Marshfield, Ore.

These were the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Mrs. Lester.

Gervais — Miss Fern Wadsworth gave a dinner at her home Friday evening, having as guests Miss Winifred Gleason of Oakland, Calif., who is spending her vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Gleason, Mrs. Harold Aspinwall, who is spending the time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Manning while Mr. Aspinwall is in New York. Miss Monica Schwab was also a dinner guest at the Wadsworth home.

Miss Gertrude Van Flyke arrived in the city a few days ago from Wyona, Wisconsin, where she has been for the past few months. Miss Van Flyke is a former Salem woman and has decided to make Salem her permanent home instead, of Wisconsin.

Miss Georgia Merrifield arrived in the city Wednesday morning from The Dalles, to spend a few days at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Elliott.

Mrs. George Bernhardt arrived in the city a few days ago from her home in Lenor, North Carolina, to visit at the home of Mrs. Fred Stump of this city.

Kingwood—At the home of Mrs. J. B. Smith Tuesday afternoon members of the Laurel Social Hour club enjoyed a talk by Miss Ella St. Pierre, a teacher home on vacation from the Hawaiian Islands. Miss St. Pierre exhibited a native skirt made of shredded palm leaves, a tapestry woven from fibers of tree bark, many strands of beads which are seeds of plants and trees native to the Islands. She also showed snapshots of Hawaiian places and people and other interesting curios and talked of her experiences in teaching Japanese and Filipino children.

Miss St. Pierre will be with her mother and sister, Mrs. E. W. St. Pierre and Miss Mabel St. Pierre, until past the middle of August when she will return to the Islands for another year.

Mrs. J. P. Smart showed some interesting hand woven pieces sent her by a friend from the Philippine Islands.

Club members enjoying the afternoon were Mesdames Edward Finley, B. B. Flack, G. E. Voburg, Albert Beckman, Eugene Krebs, J. P. Smart, J. A. Yantis, Bernard Benson, G. L. Adams, Theodore Bernard, George Steward, D. A. Williams, J. B. Smith, R. A. Blevins and A. L. Applewhite. Visitors were Miss Margaret Smart and Miss Catherine Applewhite both of whom assisted the hostess at the tea hour.

The club will have a picnic supper Wednesday evening on the lawn of the G. L. Adams home at which husbands and families of club members will be welcomed. The next regular meeting of the club will be with Mrs. George Steward of West Salem.

Silverton — Miss Rosella Richardson and Mrs. John Ballentyne were hostesses at their home on Collidge street Monday, honoring Mrs. E. T. Wetzel of Connecticut. Mrs. Wetzel and Miss Richardson were friends in Honolulu, Hawaii. Mrs. Wetzel is Miss Richardson's house guest during the month of July. Other lovely social events are being planned for Mrs. Wetzel during her visit here.

Monday afternoon, seven tables of bridge were in play in rooms made lovely with bouquets of summer garden flowers. Mrs. Wetzel received a guest prize while Mrs. H. R. Irish won first prize and Mrs. Fred Evenson scored low. Other guests were in for tea at which Miss Ruth Hubbs and Miss Eleanor Jane Ballentyne served. Out of town guests were Miss Erma Botsford of Salem, who was also a friend of Miss Richardson and Mrs. Wetzel in Honolulu. Miss Ava Darby of Vancouver, Washington was also an out of town visitor.

In compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deckebach, Jr., who are leaving Salem soon, to make their home in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolph will entertain at the home of the latter on Parrish street, Saturday evening with a few hours of bridge.

Miss Maxine Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers, has as her house guest, Miss Mary Gene Warner of Albany, Oregon. Miss Myers and Miss Warner are both members of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott is now meeting her friends at her home in the Roberta apartments on South Winter street where she plans to be located for the remainder of the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Power have just recently purchased a new home on the corner of Fir and Luther streets and will be "at home" to their friends after August 1.

Hollywood — The "Same Over club" which has been holding its meetings rather irregularly of late because of the busy season, held a meeting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kleeman. All enjoyed the evening's entertainment very much. At a late hour refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. R. A. Manson. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Forgard, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Fisher, Miss Mary Jean Fisher, Miss Monica Wilcox, Mrs. R. A. Manson and little son Lester. Miss Florence Kleeman, and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Kleeman.

Gervais — Sunday, July 20th marked the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Molsan. In the morning Mr. and Mrs. Molsan went to the Highland Catholic church in Salem where the wedding ceremony was read by Rev. Father Keenan. After the service they returned to their home where a wedding breakfast was served. A reception was held during the afternoon and hundreds of friends and relatives called to congratulate them and wish them many more years together. Refreshments were served to all callers. Mr. and Mrs. Molsan have lived at the home south of Gervais during their entire married life. Mr. Molsan is an uncle of G. J. Molsan, mayor of Gervais, who with Mrs. Molsan was among the callers Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. E. Hedrick and small son Danny left Wednesday for their home in Portland, after having spent the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Teed.
