

Moe, 1929 Champion, Eliminated in Western Amateur

LEHMAN BEATS PORTLAND MAN

35-foot Putt Wins For Ex-Purdue Star; Perkins Sensation of Day

By PAUL MICKELSON
BEVERLY COUNTRY CLUB, Chicago, July 24—(AP)—Don Moe of Portland, Ore., wearied by his long golfing wars in England, went down fighting today in his struggle to defend his western amateur golf championship over the narrow fairways and pitfalls of the Beverly Country Club course.

The smiling champion and Walker cup star fell before another fighting youth, Johnny Lehman, Chicago, one up, after their quarter-final battle had extended to the 37th green. The result forged another link in the chain of jinx that has followed champions of the western amateur. Not since 1923 has a title holder repeated.

A 35-foot putt, roaming down a treacherous course, accomplished the conquest for Lehman, who brought the big ten championship to Purdue just three years ago. Going to the 37th green both he and Moe were equidistant from the cup. Johnny putted first and dropped. The fading champion also tried but his ball stopped two feet short and it was all over.

Perkins Equals Course Record

Three other sharpshooters, T. Phillip Perkins, lately of King George's golfing forces; Ira A. Conch, Chicago, one up, after their quarter-final battle had extended to the 37th green. The result forged another link in the chain of jinx that has followed champions of the western amateur. Not since 1923 has a title holder repeated.

He didn't have to finish out on the final green of the round but he kept on going to post a startling 59, two big strokes under par, for the exceptionally rugged course. The mark tied the course record but it was not accepted as such because of a few conceded putts.

His remarkable comeback and par-fracturing game was the best of the day and made him the one big favorite to win the championship.

McCrack, known among golfers as the "fighting Scot" upheld his reputation to win today. He finished his morning round two down to the hard hitting Gus Novotny of Chicago and at the end of the third hole of the afternoon he was four down. But from that juncture on he staged a comeback equalled only by Perkins and shot sensational golf and pulled up all square again at the end of the 37th hole.

He went one up on the 35th and for good measure captured the final with another par. For the afternoon round he totaled 73, only one stroke over par.

Couch had the easiest fight of the day to defeat Charlie Fish, Rockford, Ill., 6 and 5.

VETERAN LEADING IN CANADIAN OPEN

LANCASTER, Ont., July 24—(AP)—A canny veteran of close to 50, Nicol Thompson, Sr., used his knowledge of the course to good advantage today to set the pace for the best professionals of Canada and the United States in the opening round of the Canadian open golf championship at the Hamilton country club.

Playing on his home course, the veteran Canadian pro shot a brilliant 66, equalling the course record in the first 18-hole round to lead Al Watrous, Detroit pro, by two strokes. In a four-way tie for third place at 69 were Leo Diegel, the defending champion; Ed Dudley, Wilmington, Del.; Tony Manero, Elmsford, N. Y.; and Charles Lacey, the English pro at the Pine Valley club in Pennsylvania.

Walter Hager went around with Charlie Hurray, veteran of the Royal Montreal club, and the largest gallery of the day saw them each travel the course in 70 strokes, as did McDonald Smith of New York and J. B. Heaney, Rochester, N. Y. "Long Jim" Barnes of New York, George Von Elm, Detroit, and Fred M. Lyon, Toronto, turned in 71s, the latter clinching a steady round with a sensational eagle two at the home hole where he holed out with an iron from 200 yards off the green.

Comes Back Here Again

MILLIONS SUFFER AGONY WITH PILES

New Method of Treating Is Only Effective Remedy

Found

A HOME TREATMENT GUARANTEED RESULTS

Everyone knows that piles and hemorrhoids are caused by swollen, dilated veins, but until the new method of internally treating piles was perfected nothing seemingly would relieve except an operation. Now, thanks to the chemists of today, piles and hemorrhoids should soon be a thing of the past.

Only a person who has suffered long and terribly with piles can imagine how glorious it is to be free of such troubles, yet it can be done now. The chemists said: "Why can't we put a coating on a pill that when swallowed will not dissolve until it reaches the bowels? Then let it melt into a healing, soothing, pain banishing liquid that will help nature banish all signs of the trouble. Research resulted in the making of Colace Pile Pills and tests in thousands of cases prove it almost infallible. As one sufferer recently said: "It is the only thing that ever helped me. For years I suffered terribly with piles. Could not work, stand up or lie down in comfort. It discouraged me to get no relief. Then one day a friend told me about Colace Pile Pills—something entirely new—and I was desperate enough to try anything. To make a long story short, I got relief in two days and was cured in five, and haven't had a touch of piles since." Mrs. John Quinlan, Glass Falls, N. Y. WHY SUFFER ANY MORE?

Similar cases in thousands of instances have responded promptly to Colace Pile Pills. Druggists are authorized to refund money if any sufferer isn't relieved. Each bottle bears the name and is backed up by the nationally known reputation of the Colace Chemical Co., Brentwood, N.J., who gladly mail a full size bottle in plain wrapper to any address upon receipt of 75c in stamps. If your druggist hasn't

TILDEN DRAWS BASQUE FIRST

French Fans Jubilant With Confidence Borotra Is Due to Win

PARIS, July 24—(AP)—

French fans openly boasted tonight, while the native officials agreed with them in less boisterous fashion, the luck of the draw bids fair to bring France two victories in the opening pair of singles matches of the challenge round for the Davis cup Friday afternoon.

Big Bill Tilden, ace of the United States team, drew Jean Borotra, the bounding Basque, for the opening match which will start on the courts at Roland Garros Stadium. George Lott, Chicago, who will help the American veteran with the singles burden, faces Henri Cochet, world ranking star in the second match, the doubles teams, as yet unnamed will clash Saturday with the final singles, Lott vs. Borotra and Tilden vs. Cochet, Sunday afternoon.

While the French are bubbling over with optimism, the American colony feels sure Tilden's opponent, the Frenchman, seven consecutive victories on grass and hard courts—will be shown again tomorrow, giving the challengers an even break in victories for the opening day. No one, either French or American, appears to grant Lott a chance against Cochet.

Point to Basque's Near Victory

Four out of five Frenchmen believe Tilden's spell over Borotra will be broken tomorrow.

They point in support to the bounding one's duel with the top ranking American at Wimbledon, where Borotra, evening the count at 2 and led in the fifth set four to two without the advantage of the ten-minute rest which he will get tomorrow if the match goes beyond three sets. Tilden pulled the Wimbledon battle out of the fire but the French do not believe he can do it again.

Tilden appears to feel heavily the responsibility of his eleventh hour election as a member of the American Davis cup squad.

Likewise the morale of the team seems hardly to have been improved by the selection of Tilden. Although they openly welcomed him, the youngsters seem to feel the United States should sink or swim with the youthful element in the 1936 plan.

Lincoln Baseball Teams Defeat 14th Street Lads In Playground Contests

No, we never say "We told you so," but allow us at this point to recall that some time ago we said lack of ball players couldn't be responsible for all of the much maligned Portland club's woes. Now the suspicion that there was discord and bad blood somewhere in camp has proven correct.

Anyway, we didn't quite call the turn. In jocular mood we predicted that Jack Walters and Walter the Great Mails wouldn't be able to live in the same clubhouse. As far as we can learn those two haven't been spitting at each other, but Walters and Carl Mays erstwhile New York Giant chucker, have.

That particular war isn't the only one, however. A row between two pitchers couldn't spoil a ball team's morale, but Walters, at least, has been on poor terms with some of the others, and there may be more little cross circuits.

Jack Kentworth, not long since Salem's pride and joy, is coming back to fight Ted Rogoway at West Salem next Wednesday night. We'd like nothing better than to see what improvement the slugging southpaw has made, but if preliminary plans go through, that's also the night of the Reilly-Vangier mat bout. We're going to be torn between two loves. Wish these fellows could get together on their dates.

Vangier didn't find competition so tough among the home boys in Astoria. He chose one of them Tuesday night and won his bout in three minutes.

Sammy didn't remember the fellow's name, but broussing among the exchanges, we find it was Polkinhorne. We don't blame Sammy for forgetting.

About that Boston crab counter that Al Karasick pulled Wednesday night—after the Greek spoiled Al's back with a crab hold in the second round, an inquisitive fan asked Al if there wasn't some way to break that torturing grip.

"No chance after he gets it right," said Al. "But if you start working before he gets set you can dump him hard."

Whereupon Al went right out and demonstrated it.

That wasn't exactly a pretty match. There's something beautiful about most sport events—an optical delight, so to speak—but it was mostly missing Wednesday night. There was something gruesome about the grip Demetral got on the Lion's stump of a hand.

Apparently Silverton's American Legion junior ball team isn't going to have things all its own way in the home game with Eugene Saturday. Eugene claims it didn't have all of its regulars for the first game.

We Saw

She was only a painted lady as she sat in a Salem restaurant and idly blew rings of cigarette smoke into the air. It was the lovely cello quality of her voice that caused one to turn and look at her. The careful application of much cream and powder could not hide the worn hard lines in her face but there was confidence in her voice as she said, "I'm on my way to Hollywood and of course I'll get a part." MAYS AND WALTERS HAVE BIG FIST DUEL

PORTLAND, Ore., July 24—(AP)—Carl Mays and John Wallace (Junk) Walters, Portland pitchers, engaged in a 20 minute fist fight in the clubhouse just before the Wednesday night game, it became known here today.

Officials of the baseball club are trying to hush up the affair but it is known Walters was badly bruised about the eyes, face and lips and it is reported Mays suffered a broken nose and possibly a fractured rib.

Although the other players knew the fight was in progress they made no attempt to stop it. It is reported Mays and Walters have been unfriendly for some time and their teammates believed it better to let them "fight it out."

It is doubtful that either of the two will be able to pitch for several days, reports say.
