Gould - Livingston Nuptials Slated For Today

Probably the loveliest of weddings of the mid-summer season will be solemnized in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Florence Gould will become the bride of Edward Porter Livingston of Baker, Oregon.

The bride who will be given in marriage by an old family friend, Thomas Flagler, of Hood River, will wear a formal afternoon gown of printed chiffon of autumnal tones, touched with shades of lavender, ivory and deep gold, with small lace hat to match. Her shower bouquet will be of yellow roses, old lavender and pink sweet peas.

The bride's sister, Mrs. John Dayton McLucas, Jr., of Hood River, will attend the bride as matron of honor. She will wear a formal afternoon frock and carry an arm bouquet of summer flowers to blend with her costume. Little John Dayton McLucas, III, will be the ring bearer.

James Burgess of Salem, brother-in-law of the bride, will serve as best man.

Rev. Geo. Swift will read the impressive ring service before a bower of salmon-pink gladioli and harmonizing summer flowers, flanked by tall candelabra and cathedral tapers. Miss Alice Tompkins of Portland will play the wedding march from Mendelssohn and Lobengrin.

Ushers will be William Paulson of Heppner, Oregon, and Dwight Houghton, Portland.

Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Burgess, on Chemeketa street. The spacious living rooms will be effectively decorated with baskets of summer flowers and ferns.

Assisting about the rooms will be Miss Marjorie Crites, Miss Rowena Eyre of Salem, and Dwight Houghton of Portland, sister of the bride. Mrs. Jesse Crites, Mrs. Thomas Flagler of Hood River and Mrs. Edward H. Shepard of Portland will assist with the cutting of the cake which will be first cut by the bride.

Only relatives and close friends of the bridal couple have been hidden to the ceremony and reception.

Miss Gould has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Burgess, since her arrival in Salem last December, and has been a member of the staff at the state library. She was a former Portland girl where she was associated with the Portland Central library, in the children's department and since has been children's librarian in Klamath Falls, Oregon. She is a graduate of the Carnegie library school in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Mr. Livingston is manager of the Western Union Telegraph office in Baker where the couple will make their home after a brief wedding trip to the Oregon beaches.

For her going away costume the bride has chosen a dark blue ensemble with hat and accessories to match.

Mrs. G. P. Livingston and daughter, Miss Barbara, mother and sister of the bridegroom, will motor from Portland to attend the wedding.

Mrs. LaVerne Winkler was an interesting dinner hostess in her home Friday evening when she entertained members of the Zonta club. The tables were attractively decorated with summer flowers whose covers were placed for Mrs. Ella Wilson, Miss Kathryn Gunnell, Mrs. Grace Crater, Mrs. Ora McIntyre, Mrs. Ruby Morris, Miss Hazel Cook, Mrs. Winifred Herrick, Mrs. Leon Gleason, Miss Nellie Schwab and the hostess, Mrs. Winkler. An informal evening followed the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Wheaton and sons, Charles and Donald arrived in the city Saturday morning from Netarts, where they have been vacationing for the past two weeks to attend the Wood-Wheaton family picnic held Sunday.

Mr. Wheaton states that his brother-in-law Chesley Campbell who underwent a major emergency operation at the Tillamook hospital, is resting as easily as could be expected. Mrs. Wheaton will return to Tillamook to be with her brother until he is able to be moved to Salem.

Independence. — A reception for the new pastor of the Methodist church was given in the church parlors Wednesday, by the members of the congregation. A program was given by the young people of the church. Rev. Sibley gave an interesting talk, which was followed by others that were present. Light refreshments were served.

Summer time is visiting time, and Salem homes have received their share of guests, some of whom occupy most of the limelight in our pictures today. Reading from left to right, the photos show: Upper row—Mrs. Wolcott Buren, charming hostess of the past week; Miss Helen Adelsperger of Marshfield who has been the house guest of Miss Dorothy Livesley; Miss Maxine Buren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren, home from Seattle for vacation. Lower row—Mrs. William Douglas and children, Page, Isabell and Jean, guests from Berkeley, Calif., at the Gordon McGilchrist home; Miss Lorraine Pierce, former Salem girl, house guest of Miss Beryl Holt; and Mrs. Charles Ruffner, of New York City, house guest of Mrs. E. B. Carrier and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Miles.

Rodgers Clan Hold Reunion on Home Site

The descendants and relatives of Clark Rodgers and Sarah Rebecca Adams Rodgers who came to Oregon in the covered wagon train of 1852 held their annual reunion Sunday, July 20, on the old homestead, located seven miles south on the Pacific highway, the present home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. McIntyre. The forenoon was devoted to the arrival of guests and preparation of the picnic lunch served close to a lovely creek in the shade of the lovely big trees.

In the afternoon the following officers were elected for the coming year: president, Clarence M. Rodgers; vice president, Clayton O. Rodgers; treasurer, Roy W. McIntyre; secretary, Bert W. Macy.

Those present at the reunion were Mrs. J. E. Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Guy C. Newgent, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur McCune, Mr. and Mrs. Bert W. Thomas and three children, all of Portland; Mrs. Echo Read Payne of Madison, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Read, Mark Read, Mrs. Chas. Anderson and children, all of Corvallis. Regrets were sent by several who were unable to be present.

Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves left Saturday morning for Seaside, Oregon, where they will spend the remainder of July and the greater part of August in their beach cottage. They were accompanied by their three granddaughters Josephine, Sarah Caroline and Pauline Morse of Vancouver, Washington. Mrs. Paul W. Morse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steeves, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Morse of Kansas City, Missouri, who are guests in the city for the summer returned Friday to their home in Vancouver Friday.

Turner.—The ladies of the M. E. Aid society and friends held a very enjoyable "Silver tea" at the home of Mrs. C. A. Bear Thursday afternoon. At the opening of a short program, Mrs. Mary McKinney presided at the piano and led the singing. Mrs. I. H. Small, the president, conducted the devotions. Mrs. E. Q. Wetzel gave a reading. A piano solo was given by Mrs. Neal Edwards. A reading was enjoyed. Maple Leaf, by Mrs. B. B. Parks and Mrs. E. R. Back the Old Time Happiness, by Mrs. McKinney, delighted the audience. The program closed with a guessing contest which proved to be a pleasant diversion.

The rooms were decorated with gladioli and baby breath. Mrs. Bear and Mrs. E. R. Bear were assisted in serving a dainty lunch, by Mrs. I. H. Small and Mrs. J. Ransom. Mrs. D. B. Parks and Mrs. Neal Edwards will be joint hostess at the

Visitors Entertained At Jarman Cottage

At the Nekowia coast home of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Jarman this weekend are Mrs. O. W. Nordstrom and her daughter, Virginia, who came from Chicago, Illinois. Mrs. Nordstrom is a niece of Mr. Jarman. Mrs. E. Hall of Los Angeles and her three daughters, Betty, Marie and Margaret, are also here. Mr. Jarman and Sydney Elliott drove over this weekend to be at Nekowia over the weekend. During this week the Jarman and their guests will motor to Lake Chehalis, Wash., where they will visit Eddie Jarman, a nephew of Mr. Jarman. Eddie recently went to Lake Chehalis to take the management of a J. C. Penny store there.

A very enjoyable picnic dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Robbins, Friday evening, the participants being friends and neighbors from their former Canby home. Covers were placed for Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. John Webber, Mrs. Almon Johnson, Miss Lois Webber, Miss Margery Webber, Miss Helen Wood of the Monmouth Normal school faculty, Miss Lorraine Robbins, John P. Robbins, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. John Robbins, and Mrs. John Robbins. Miss Lois Webber drove to Monmouth after the picnic to visit friends for a few days.

Mrs. G. E. Hamilton and daughter, Miss Kathryn, of Myrtle Point, Oregon, are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wickberg in Salem Heights. They were joined later in the week by Mr. Hamilton and daughter, Miss Velma who will visit in Salem until Monday when the entire family will return to their home in Myrtle Point.

Mrs. Rose B. Hagedorn will entertain members of the Woman's Relief Corps Thursday with an all day garden party at her home 1408 7th street. A covered dish luncheon will be served at 12:00 o'clock after which a social afternoon will be enjoyed. During the afternoon a silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the Woman's Relief Corps.

Miss Ruth Fleck charmingly entertained at bridge Saturday evening at her home in the Royal Court apartments honoring her house guest Miss Ruth Harris who is here from her home in San Francisco, California.

Miss Harris will be the inspiration for a number of social affairs during her stay in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sehon left a few days ago for San Francisco, and Los Angeles, California, where they will spend the next two weeks on a combined business and pleasure trip. They are making the trip by motor.

The Can-Do class of the Leslie Memorial church will hold a pot-luck supper Wednesday evening at 5:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Greenwood, 1285 South Liberty street. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Greenwood, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Joyce and Dr. and Mrs. Ward Davis will be host and hostesses for the evening.

Mrs. A. M. Gardner and daughter, Miss Mary Gardner, expect to leave Salem the first of the coming week for Minneapolis, Minnesota where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Carrick and children Roberts and Albert of Anity, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wickberg.

Statesman Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Both collar and skirt flare point to chic in this ravishing summer frock. An unusual feature of the cape collar is the shoulder seam which may be closed entirely to the end if desired, thus covering the arm almost to the elbow. They are sleeves with the pattern also.

Pattern 1933 makes up beautifully in chiffon, georgette, voile, swiss or organdie. Pastel shades are cleverly combined to create the most gorgeous fabric that are cool and refreshing on warm days. Today's model has a narrow belt and bodice bow of black velvet ribbon that is indeed chic.

May be obtained only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 requires 5 1/2 yards of 39 inch material.

No dressmaking experience necessary. Yards for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given.

Send fifteen cents in color fully wrapped, or stamps, for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

Our book of patterns for adults and children, the transfer patterns, fifteen cents; ten when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 245 West 17th street, New York City.

Pretty Wedding at Moir, Home Saturday

A simple and impressive wedding was solemnized Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, when Miss Madeline Moir, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Moir, became the bride of Mr. Delbert J. White at the home of the bride's parents on North Church street.

The bride entered the living room to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march which was played by Miss Dora Medler, at the piano. Rev. H. C. Stover read the service in the presence of 45 immediate friends and relatives of the young couple, and a profusion of summer flowers arranged artistically about the spacious rooms of the Moir home.

The bride was attractively gowned in yellow georgette carrying a shower bouquet of pink sweet peas and yellow roses. She was attended by her sister, Miss Marjorie Moir who wore a becoming frock of pink taffeta and carried pink sweet peas.

Mr. White was attended by Mr. William Lewis of Salem.

Immediately following the wedding service a reception was held honoring Mr. and Mrs. White. Mrs. Moir was assisted about the rooms and with the cutting of the cake by Miss Marjorie Moir and Miss Eva Medler. Several friends, from out of town who were included in the guest list were, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Glover, Mr. and Mrs. John Moir, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walsh, all of Portland. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. White left for a week's motor trip to Crater Lake, after which they will be at home to their friends at 696 North Church street.

Mrs. C. E. Bowen Hostess to Circle

The Mary and Martha Circle of the First Christian church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Bowen, on North 5th street. ## Frank Deckebachs Complimented At Bridge

Perhaps the most outstanding social affair of the past week was the bridge party given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolp at the home of the latter, complimenting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deckebach Jr., who are leaving Salem August 1 to make their home in Portland.

Those hidden for the evening were, the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deckebach, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Milton Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Carson, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Wolcott Buren, Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Power, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pritchett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reinhart of Eugene, Dr. and Mrs. Gerald S. Backstrand, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. George Weller, Mr. and Mrs. John Coughell, Jr., Miss Mildred Johnson of Portland, and the host and hostesses, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chapman and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Adolp.

Guest prizes were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Deckebach at the close of the bridge play, after which Mrs. Wallace Carson and Mrs. Milton Steiner assisted the hostesses with the serving of a late lunch.

Concert Recital Event of Tuesday

A greatly anticipated event of the coming week is the concert recital in which Prof. E. W. Hobson will present his advanced students next Tuesday evening in the Nelson auditorium. Master E. W. Hobson who will be presenting for the first time in concert work will assist in the program. Two very interesting numbers which are entirely new to Salem musical people are the English folk songs which are being sung by the Madrigal club and the Salem Civic male chorus at the close of the program. Accompanists for the vocal numbers will be Miss Ruth Bedford and Mrs. Kenneth Rich.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flagler of Hood River, Oregon, are guests in the city to attend the Gould-Livingston wedding which is being held Sunday afternoon.

Tillamook.—Miss Lillian Boatright, a nurse in the Dr. Charles hospital, in Tillamook, Ore., is enjoying a vacation with home folk on the ranch each of town.

Former Salem Couple Home for Vacation

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reinhart and son Robert of Eugene, are the guests of their respective parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Reinhart and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. West for a fortnight. Both Mr. and Mrs. Reinhart are well known Salem people, having attended Salem high school. Mrs. Reinhart will be remembered as Miss Mary West. Several informal affairs are being planned for them during their stay in Salem.

Miss Maud Covington was dinner hostess Saturday evening in her home on Court street honoring her small niece, Miss Constance Bryant, who arrived in Salem Friday to spend about two weeks visiting friends and relatives. Those invited to meet the new little guest were the Misses Mary Kells, Dorothy Dale, and Peggy and Betty McLucas of Hood River.

Mrs. Gustav Ebsen assisted the hostess, Miss Covington with the serving of the dinner.

Tribute Paid Aged Salem Woman at Cottage Grove

Thursday evening, July 24 Mrs. Lydia F. Stouffer, for two years a resident of Salem, was the honored guest of Cottage Grove Chapter No. 4, Order of the Eastern Star, when that chapter celebrated the Golden Anniversary of its founding in 1880. Mrs. Stouffer is one of the oldest living members of the Eastern Star lodge in Oregon as she is 85 years old. While in Salem she lived with her granddaughter, Miss Belle Burkholder, who was employed in the State Industrial accident commission but who is now residing in Cottage Grove, together with her mother, Mrs. Clara Burkholder, also a former resident of Salem.

A very impressive march was put on by all women members of the lodge dressed in gold georgette over satin gowns and with slippers to match. Mrs. Della Richmond, associate matron, conducted Mrs. Stouffer to a position of honor through the line of officers who held sprays of gladioli in a floral arch over the two. Mrs. Stouffer wore a gown of gold crepe trimmed in gold lace. All decorations were in gold using huge floral baskets of gold-enrod, marigold, and other summer flowers of corresponding shades, to carry out the color scheme. Golden streamers hung from the chandeliers added to the color effect. A large golden cake built in tiers was brought from Cottage Grove and the first piece amid heavy applause. During the evening Mrs. Stouffer was presented with a gold lock- et bearing the Eastern Star insignia in appreciation of her many years of work in the order. Salem people in attendance for the anniversary celebration were, Mrs. Charles Pratt, worthy matron of Chawick Chapter, Mrs. Minnie Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and Mrs. Carlton Smith who gave two vocal selections in her usual charming manner.

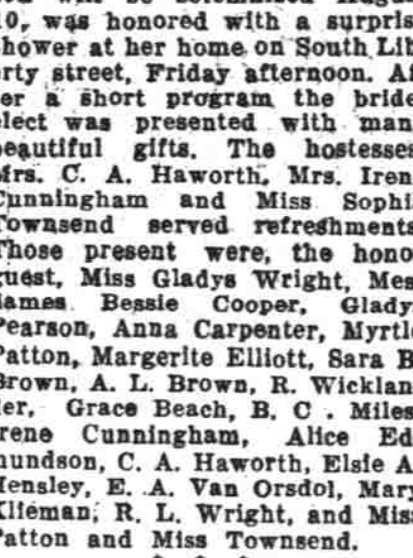

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Barkus entertained with an attractive dinner, Tuesday evening at their home on Saginaw street. The dining table was centered with the lovely bouquet of pink sweet peas and baby breath, where covers were marked for Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Moorehead and son Virgil of Salem, and their daughter, Mrs. Laurie Kinsey and son, of Burns. The evening was spent in visiting and reminiscing.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Becke and little daughter Miriam Jean are expected home Sunday evening after having been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk at their summer home at Agate Beach.

Mrs. Ida Shade, Miss Josephine Shada and Mrs. Josephine Davis are weekend visitors at Newport.

Miss Charlotte Zieher and her house-guest, Miss Virginia Vahey, are out-of-town guests over the week end.

The Housewife's Idea Box

Prevent Cream From Splashing

Is it not annoying to have the cream splash out of the bowl while it is being whipped? Here is an easy way to prevent this trouble: Cut a thin board, or stiff paper, to fit over your bowl. Cut a circle in the middle large enough to fit over the handle of your beater. There will be no more splashing. THE HOUSEWIFE.

Hamilton Home From Furniture Men's Meeting

C. S. Hamilton, Salem furniture dealer returned yesterday from Tacoma where he attended the Northwest Furniture Dealers association meeting and the July furniture market. A large number of dealers were in attendance and a fine exhibit of new merchandise was shown.

"The factories are now turning out better furniture at a lower price than a year or so ago. The tendency of the trade generally is toward better quality furniture and home furnishings, and also toward the purchase of western made goods."

Frank Litwiler of the Imperial Furniture store was also in Tacoma for the meeting.
