GENERAL DECLINE HOLDING SWAY CONFIDENCE IN WOOL PREVAILING

Trading Is Active in Some Grades With Prices Firm

Confidence in wool values confinues to be prevalent among the dealers although actual trading during the past week was slow and limited to a few lines of domestic combing wools. Woolen wools were generally very quiet, although some business was reported on wools suitable for the manufacture of women's dress goods. According to private cables, the fine wools offered at the London auction were fairly active at firm to slightly higher

Sales were reported on practically all lines of domestic strictly combing fleece wools, with the exception of the 56's grade. These sales, while only of moderate quantities were at firm prices. The strictly combing 64's and finer Ohio and similar wools were firm at 30 to 31 cents in the grease with the better types bringing prices near the top of this range. The 58's, 60's grades sold at 29 to 30 cwt., delivered Portland, less 1 per cent; cents, in the grease and the 48's 50's grades were stronger at prices in the range of 30 to 31 cents in the grease.

Limited sales were reported on some 64's and finer original bag western grown wools. The better wools of this type brought around 73 cents scoured basis, while some average wools were sold at 70 to 72 cents scoured basis. More activity was reported on the 48's, 50's grades. Graded good 48's, 50's strictly combing territory wools brought 57 to 59 cents scoured basis, and average wools sold for 55 to 57 cents scoured basis. All other grades were slow. Sales were reported on moderate quantities of choice 12 months Texas wools at prices in the range of 73 to 75 cents scoured basis.

A few sales were closed on limited quantities of Australian merino wools. Although spot ofthe recent London sales were seemmon 1.00@1.50. from manufacturers on medium

Wheat, Hog and Lamb Prices Drop Here on Monday

A general decline seemed to hit Salem markets on Monday when wheat dropped one cent, hogs dropped one-fourth cent and spring lambs dropped one and one-half cents.

Trading was slow on Monday's market and there was no indication of a price advance in com-
