

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Prominent Couple Announce Date of Betrothal

Of interest to many Salem young people will be the announcement of the date of the approaching marriage of Miss Olive Barnard and Leonard Chadwick, formerly of Salem but now living in Oakland, California, August 7, at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Barnard, 208 South 19th street.

The announcement was made known Tuesday evening when the bride's mother, Mrs. A. R. Barnard entertained for her daughter with an evening of bridge. The high score for the evening was awarded to Miss Dorothy Franks and the second award went to Miss Mildred Johnson. "Last, but not least," the third prize, which was hidden about the room and the finder was to share it with the entire group, was an attractive box wherein the sewing was first place in the award bearing the date of the wedding.

Guests for the evening of cards included Miss Marguerite Farmer, Miss Betty Eloffson, Miss Mildred Judson, Miss Benietta Edwards, Miss Dorothy Franks, Miss Olive Falk, Miss Mable Currie, Miss Harriett Adams, Miss Vera McCune, Miss Lulu Eastridge, Miss Bessie Tucker, Miss Leila Parks, Miss Helen Richardson, Miss Marie Piffitt, Miss Elizabeth Welch, Miss Anona Welch, Miss Carolyn Braden, and the honor guest, Miss Olive Barnard.

Miss Barnard and Mr. Chadwick are well known young people, both having been graduated from Salem high school. Since his graduation from school, Mr. Chadwick has won much recognition for his musical talents, having won first place in the Atwater-Kent radio audition last year. He is now taking advanced work in California under the supervision of Miss Eva Atkinson, National Broadcasting star, preparatory to future radio work.

The wedding will be a quiet affair with only relatives and intimate friends being invited. Rev. H. C. Stover, pastor of the Knight Memorial church will read the service. Miss Lulu Eastridge, has been chosen for maid of honor, the bride's only attendant, Donald Barnard, brother of the bride elect will be best man.

Donald Allison will play the wedding marches and a vocal duet will be given by Miss Benietta Edwards and Ronald Craven. Assisting with the serving will be five intimate friends of the bride, which will include the Misses Velma Simpkins, Dorothy Eastridge, Carolyn Braden, Harriett Adams and Vera McCune. Several pre-nuptial affairs are being arranged for the bride-elect.

Miss Barnard has a large circle of friends, through her association with the Commercial Book store where she has been employed for the past few years.

Mrs. M. K. Hall, accompanied by her two daughters, Mrs. Richard English of Los Angeles, California, and Miss Gwendolyn Hall of Portland, will be guests today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Briggs.

Mrs. English will leave by train for her home in California Thursday evening while Mrs. Hall and daughter will return to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Miller and daughter, Jewell, returned Tuesday night from a three days stay at Siltcoos lake, where they were met by Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Stevenson of Eugene.

Independence—Mrs. Hank Mattison entertained with cards Monday afternoon for some ladies who had birthdays in the month. The honored ladies were Mrs. A. L. Thomas, Mrs. George Garbray and Mrs. Mattison. The afternoon was spent playing bridge. At the close of the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cooley and children, Joan and Bobby, arrived home Tuesday evening from an extended motor trip through the east.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Thursday, July 31
United Artisans Capital assembly No. 34—regular meeting, Fraternal Temple—pot luck supper at 6:30.
Ladies of the W. R. C. All day sewing; be at home of Mrs. Rose Hagedorn. Members are requested to bring their own baskets.

Tuesday, August 5
W. C. T. U. all day picnic, August 5, Fairgrounds—Bring own basket and table-service. Coffee, sugar and cream furnished.

Statesman Pattern

1995

By ANNE ADAMS
Just as easy to make as can be, this adorable frock of simple line and detail. Shoulder caplets are added from the square neck line, taking the place sleeves, although there are sleeves with the pattern in case you want to use them. The skirt flare gains grace and fullness through several rows of gathers. The narrow belt ties in a pert bow at the side.

Pattern 1995 fashions delightfully of voile, dimity, georgette, lawn, batiste or chiffon. A shadow print in blended pastel tones looks so cool and refreshing in warm weather. Other favorite colors are yellow, red, chartreuse, orange and leaf green, combined with white or black.

May be obtained only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 40. Size 16 requires 4 5-8 yards of 39 inch material.

No dressmaking experience necessary. Yards for every size and simple, exact instructions are given.

Send fifteen cents in coins carefully wrapped, or stamps, for each pattern. Write plainly your name, address, size, number and size wanted.

Our book of patterns for adults and children, also transfer patterns, fifteen cents; 40 cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 245 West 17th Street, New York City.

Miss Pauline Johnson entertained Miss Martha Wetzel of Portland over the week end. Miss Wetzel and Miss Johnson are Delta Delta Delta sorority sisters at Oregon State college.

Luncheon Honors Birthdays of Two Guests

One of the prettiest of mid-summer bridge luncheons was given Monday afternoon when Mrs. Charles Bauer entertained in her home honoring the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. E. J. Scellars whose birthday occurred on Monday, and Mrs. William Evans whose birthday came on Tuesday. The luncheon table was most attractive in its color scheme of pink and white, which was centered with a lovely pink and white floral bouquet, flanked by pink tapers. Covers were marked for the honor guests, Mrs. E. J. Scellars and Mrs. William Evans, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Mrs. Fred Stump, Mrs. George Barnard, Mrs. E. F. Smith, Mrs. George Alexander, Mrs. J. Lyman Steed, Mrs. Flora Thomas and the hostess, Mrs. Charles Bauer.

Mrs. William Gosser and young son, Clayborn, will be guests at the Ernest Thom cottage for the coming week end. Mrs. Gosser and son, will accompany Mrs. Thom and small son, Ernest Jr., to their summer home at Necotich Beach, Thursday, Mrs. M. A. Thompson and Mrs. H. R. Hopkins, both of Portland, will be additional guests of the Thom's for the coming week end.

Mrs. Cedrick Heighe, niece of Mrs. E. C. Goodwin of this city is expected to arrive today from Cannon Beach, where she has been enjoying a beach outing for the past two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Goodwin accompanied by Mrs. Heighe will leave Sunday for Newport where they will spend the coming week. Mr. Goodwin will return home Sunday evening.

Miss Kathryn Sisson and Miss Genevieve Vale of Sudbury, Canada, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Sisson and family for the past few days, left Tuesday for their northern home. Enroute they will visit a part of Alaska, Banff and Lake Louise before returning to their home in Canada.

Mrs. John A. Carson returned home Tuesday evening from Portland where she has been the guest of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCammon for the past week. She was accompanied home by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Carson, who motored to Portland Tuesday.

Miss Genevieve Thayer was hostess Tuesday evening for an impromptu "after the concert" party in her home on Capitol street, to the participants of the Hobson recital. The group enjoyed an informal time of conversation and music after which refreshments were served. The party was brought to an end by the singing of the "Wassall Song" the concluding number on the recital program.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howard and children, Mildred, Ruby, Denton and George of Estherville, Iowa, arrived in Salem Wednesday morning to visit with Mr. Howard's sister and brother, Mrs. W. E. Milburn, and L. L. Howard of this city.

Mr. T. G. Finley arrived in the city Wednesday from his home in The Dalles, to visit with his sister, Mrs. E. C. Goodwin for a few days.

Pretty Wedding Arranged For Thursday

One of the loveliest weddings of the mid-summer season will be solemnized in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Thursday morning at 8 o'clock, when Miss Lillian De Mytt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. De Mytt will become the bride of Henry Kropp, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Kropp of Albany. Rev. J. B. Buck will officiate at the nuptial mass.

The bride has selected a becoming frock of beige georgette with attractive hat to match for her wedding attire and will carry a shower bouquet of sweet peas, roses and lilies of the valley. Her maid attendant will be her sister, Miss Marcel DeMytt, who will wear a powder blue dress with hat to match and carry an arm bouquet of pink sweet peas and roses. Ferns, palms and large baskets of summer flowers have been chosen for the decorations at the church which will make a lovely setting for the marriage ceremonies.

Martin Kropp, brother of the groom, will serve as best man, Lawrence Alley will sing and Bernard Kropp will be the organist.

Following the wedding services a breakfast for the bridal party and intimate friends and relatives will be served at the Gray Belle, after which the young couple will leave on a motor trip north. They will make Salem their home, both having a wide circle of friends in this city.

Several informal pre-nuptial affairs have been given for Miss DeMytt. The girls employed in the office in which the bride-elect has been employed entertained with a shower honoring Miss DeMytt Friday evening, and a larger shower Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Row and daughter Miss Kathryn, in company with Mrs. Grace Thompson and Miss Paye Louise Thompson, returned Tuesday from a three weeks' vacation, the first week being spent at Yachats while the last two weeks were spent at Breitenbush Springs.

Mrs. A. M. Gardner and daughter, Miss Mary, left Wednesday for Portland, going from there to Fort Crook, Nebraska, where they will visit friends for a short time before going on to Newport where they will spend the coming week. Mr. Gardner is a cousin of G. A. Wood of this city.

Mrs. George Alexander, accompanied by friends, motored to Hillsboro a few days ago where she was a guest at a bridge luncheon.

Byrds Home From Long Motor Trip Through East

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Byrd and children, Peggy and Billy, arrived home a short time ago from a very interesting motor trip of two months' duration. The Byrds took the Old Oregon Trail route, going through eastern Oregon and Idaho to Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, Minnesota and Michigan, visiting all the principal cities of those states and returning home the northern route, touring both Glacier and Yellowstone National parks. They visited Glacier National park at a very busy time as President Hoover was expected to arrive any minute to spend his vacation there. All hands and the cook were working night and day to have everything in readiness for the president and his party.

The Byrd party were most fortunate in having escaped the extreme heat through the east, but experienced some nearly as warm in crossing Idaho, where the thermometer registered 113 the day they traveled the desert state which made them glad to be back in the cool and green of western Oregon.

They made the last lap of their journey by way of the McKenzie pass which was a lovely climax to their trip.

Afternoon of Bridge Compliments Guests

Miss Mary Eyre, assisted by her sister, Miss Pearl Eyre, entertained Tuesday with an afternoon of bridge in their home on Hill street, honoring Mrs. Ernest Stevenson of Burley, Idaho, Miss Laura Yantis of Grants Pass, Oregon, and Mrs. Van Greer of Phoenix, Arizona, who have been visiting friends in Salem recently.

Two tables were in play during the afternoon with high scores being presented to Mrs. Will Knower. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Miss Mary Eyre and Miss Pearl Eyre, at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. Kenneth G. Bailey, of Seattle, Washington, who has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Brazier Small for the past week, left Wednesday for Portland, where she will spend sometime before continuing on to her home in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Small accompanied their guest as far as Portland, returning home Wednesday evening.

Miss Elsie Miller, sister of Mrs. Dr. Lewis of North Winter street, expects to leave Thursday for Denver, Colorado, Omaha and points in northern Iowa. Miss Miller plans to be gone about six weeks.

Mrs. William McGilchrist and daughter, Miss Josephine, arrived home a few days ago from Newport, where they have been sojourning for the past few weeks.

Miss Florence Power Beta Chi Hostess

Members of the Beta Chi sorority of Willamette university met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Florence Power to make arrangements for the coming school year. Plans were also discussed for the picnic which is being sponsored by the alumni association of Portland at the country home of Mrs. Fred Tebbe, 258 Concord road, Portland, Thursday evening.

Those attending the meeting included, the Misses Mary Louise Aiken, Gaynelle Beckett, Loretta Fischer, Harriett Hageman, Norah Pratt, June Gaines, Rosalind Van Winkle, Evelyn High, Florence Marshall, Marvella Edwards, Margaret Morehouse and the hostess, Florence Power.

Miss Elizabeth Bell and Miss Margaret Natler who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton, for the past week, left Wednesday morning for their home in Palo Alto, California. The southern visitors and Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton were guests of the Hamiltons' (this past week) at Ocean-side, Oregon.

Dr. and Mrs. B. F. Pound, accompanied by their children, Jean and Bobby, will return to Salem, Monday 4, after having motored to Denver, Colorado, where Dr. Pound attended the National Dental convention. On Friday of last week they attended the round up at Cheyenne, Wyoming and at the present time are enjoying the wonders and beauties of Yellowstone National park.

Iowa Friends Visit At McCullough Home

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dodds and children, Parry, Mary and Kathryn, arrived in Salem Wednesday afternoon to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McCullough at the Royal Court apartments. Mr. and Mrs. Dodds are former schoolmates of Mr. and Mrs. McCullough, both having attended Ames college in Iowa together. They will be at the McCullough home until Thursday evening, going from there to Seattle where they will visit friends for a short time before returning home. They are making the trip by motor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin F. Smith returned home Tuesday evening from Portland, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Davis accompanied the Smiths' home to be their guests for a short time.

Mrs. E. J. Scellars Hostess at Illahee

Mrs. E. J. Scellars entertained in an unusual manner a few days ago, when she took a group of her friends out to Illahee country club for an informal afternoon of bridge and tables were in play on the verandah of the club house.

Those enjoying Mrs. Scellars' hospitality were, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Mrs. Willis Roughton, Mrs. Fred Stump, Mrs. George Bernhardt, Mrs. J. Lyman Steed, Mrs. James Humphrey, Mrs. Rex Sanford, Mrs. E. F. Smith, Mrs. Charles Bauer and the hostess Mrs. E. J. Scellars. High score for the afternoon was awarded Mrs. Charles Bauer.

A number of prominent Salem people motored to Portland Wednesday to enjoy the day with the Al Kader Shriners at Jantzen Beach, who are playing hosts to members and their friends and families for the entire day. Those making the trip included Mr. and Mrs. William McGilchrist Jr., and daughter, Miss Josephine, Mr. and Mrs. George Alexander and daughter, Miss Dorothy, and son, Corwin, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Scellars and Mrs. Scellars' mother, Mrs. Flora Thomas.

SPECIAL PRICES CONTINUED TWO WEEKS MORE

Owing to the splendid response to our advertisement and our inability to take care of all the work by August first we have decided to extend these prices two weeks more.

See For Yourself

Regular $25 Vulcanite Plate . . . $15
The Best Dental Plate Made . . . $25
(Many Charge as High as $50 for this Plate)
Silver Filling as low as . . . $1
Any Porcelain Enamel Filling . $2.00
(Regardless of Size)
PAINLESS EXTRACTION (2 teeth or more) 75c per tooth

- STEP ON IT -

Dr. F. C. JONES, and Associates

"Five Years Instructor at the Portland Dental College"

OVER LADD & BUSH BANK

FURNITURE SALE

Lower Prices - Greater Values / Benefit Now by Both

Sale opened Monday with a full and complete stock of Rugs, Draperies, Furniture and Ranges of all kinds. This immense stock must be reduced--if LOW PRICES have the effect we think they will--our objective will be attained in a short time.

We cannot list all the items here, hence we are not listing any. We have this to say--if it is furniture you want, we Have it at a SAVING of 25 to 50% Contract goods excepted

C. S. HAMILTON FURNITURE CO.
340 Court Street

August 1st will find us with a large selection of Summer Street, Sports, Afternoon, and Dinner Frocks

Nothing to do But Cut the Prices of This Desirable Summer Merchandise 'WAY DOWN...

All going at $10.

Many lovely Shantung Suits, formerly sold for $29.75 all going at $17.50.

Beautiful formal afternoon and evening gowns at prices that will astonish you!

2 for the price of 1 sale continues.

MACK'S
395 N. High St.