Floyd Query, who is now at Cloverdale, Oregon, spent Sunday at his home here.

SUMMER GUESTS AT AMITY NUMEROUS

AMITY, July 30.—Mr. and Mrs. John Zahler and family are spending the weekend with Mrs. Zahler's parents at Silverton, from there they will go to De Lake for three days.

Theodore Barber returned home Sunday after a three months' motor trip in California.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rogers and daughter, Elsie, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rogers visited at the home of H. J. Rogers at Salem, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Kingrey, Alan Kingrey and sister of Oshkosh, Nebraska, visited last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Rogers.

Mrs. Frank Smith of Portland spent the week with her mother, Mrs. R. Wallace.

Barbara Stimpson, who has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Anna Stimpson, returned to her home at Pasco, Wash.

Bill Rosenbalm of Medford, spent three days visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rosenbalm.

Fall From Horse Injures Wrist

JEFFERSON, July 30.—Monday evening as R. A. Chapman was riding a horse home from work, the horse in some way threw Chapman off, hurting his wrist.

It was at first thought the wrist was fractured but an x-ray was taken by the local physician and it showed it was bruised and sprained. Chapman is in the employ of D. H. Looney.

OLD AND NEW SOVIET CHIEFS

George Tchitcherin (left), who recently resigned his post as Soviet commissar for foreign affairs following a brilliant career as statesman. The resignation is said to have been necessitated by the commissar's poor health. Maxim Litvinoff (right), who has for some time been acting commissar, has been appointed by the central executive committee to succeed the retiring head of foreign affairs.

LEADERSHIP SCHOOL IS WELL ATTENDED

HAZEL GREEN, July 30.—Rev. Lella Luckey, her father, James Luckey, Miss Iola Luckey and G. G. Looney have returned from leadership training school at Philomath.

The attendance was considered good for a small denomination. This being the first attempt in this district to hold a summer school. Of fifty-seven present, forty were young people, who are very enthusiastic about coming again next year. Much attention was given to recreation.

Peter Zelinski returned to Salem General hospital for another operation. He is improving, but it will be some days before he can be brought home again.

Mr. and Mrs. Crowe left Monday for their home in Moscow, Idaho. They were guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Van Cleave. Mr. and Mrs. Crowe may return later in the summer as they are expecting the return of a daughter from China.

CALIFORNIA GUESTS AT WACONDA HOME

WACONDA, July 30.—Guests at the A. W. Nusom home Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Thurmon, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Nusom and daughter Shevally, and Major Towne, all of Forest Grove and John Brook of Oakland, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Cramer had as their Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Keene and children. Recent overnight guests at the Allan Nusom home were: Mrs. Grace Hooper and daughter, Laurine of Madera, California; and Mrs. Willard McCulloch of Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goffin attended the funeral of Mrs. Harry Brook at Oregon City last week.

PICNIC HONORS FAMILY GUESTS

Harvest Season in Full Swing in Waldo Hills This Week

WALDO HILLS, July 30.—The Kaufman family together with many relatives and friends motored out to the Abigona creek Sunday where they enjoyed a picnic dinner. The affair was planned to honor Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Shurter and two sons, William and Harland who are spending the summer with Mrs. Shurter's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Shurter. The Shurters motored from their Illinois home in June. They formerly lived in this neighborhood, moving to Illinois 12 years ago. Many delightful social affairs are being planned in their honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fuller of Cuba were weekend guests at Fred Kaiser's. Mrs. Fuller will be remembered as Edna Klopfenstein. After an extended visit with relatives they will return to their island home.

The Juvenile order of Neighbors of Woodcraft, their parents and friends numbering 40 met at the Drift Creek picnic grounds Sunday for a social time. Miss Olive Ottaway is their leader and plans many happy hours for the youngsters.

Harvesting has begun in earnest in the hills. At every farm you hear the hum of the binder. LeRoy Roe is shocking for Mrs. Maude Haberly, Roger Comstock for John Goodknecht, Philip Rue for Karl Haberly, Norman Naegle for L. B. Haberly, Loren Thompson for C. R. Riches.

The John Goodknecht family have been ill with "flu" but are now able to be about. Harold Hoop, Jr. is recovering nicely from injuries received last week when a hay fork fell on him piercing his side and groin. When the accident occurred his mother was ill in the Silverton hospital, but she has been brought home.

Nothing an article about so many sheepards being on a school board was remembered that the Haberly name was seen many times in the Centerview school. Karl Haberly is clerk of the board. On his head are L. Haberly and Mrs. M. M. Haberly. Witnesses are Mildred Haberly and Burnett Haberly. Kermit Hawthorne of Portland has been spending a week at Frank Egan's. Kermit likes to come to the farm and seldom misses a summer outing for the other small boys from the city, the country has a wonderful attraction.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dye and daughter Juanita of Oregon City spent Sunday at P. J. Neuswander's.

Work on the road in this district is progressing nicely. They are now at work making the new strip through the Rue farm. The covered bridge over Drift creek is no more. Just now a mile detour is necessary until a temporary bridge can be put in.

Mrs. Mand Haberly and daughter, Miss Mildred motored to The Dalles Thursday, returning Sunday. Mildred taught in The Dalles high school and will be there again next year.

Mrs. Ted Finley and children Teddy and Norma, spent Sunday with relatives at Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. Edson Comstock, Roger and Janet Comstock motored to Playmora park Sunday to the Minnesota state picnic. On their return they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sylvester and daughter, Shirley, of Silverton, who were supper guests.

BEACHES ATTRACT JEFFERSON FOLK

JEFFERSON, July 30.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKee, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McKee, Mr. T. O. McKee, Mr. Alpha, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lyles, Dick Hitt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Knight and son Billie, Mr. and Mrs. A. Brown, and family, Mrs. R. C. Thomas and Mrs. D. Y. Hammill motored to Yachats Sunday morning returning in the evening.

They reported having a fine time. The fishing was good, having caught a goodly number of tom cod.

Mrs. Roy Hixson and daughter Loraine, and Mrs. L. D. Workman spent Tuesday in Salem. The two ladies are sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. August Kroshell of Eugene spent Sunday with Mrs. Kroshell's mother, Mrs. R. A. Buchanan.

DEEPENING OF RIVER CHANNEL, PROSPECT

LAKE LABISH, July 30.—A large U. S. government car, trailing a great flat boat laden with measuring instruments, engine motors, cables, survey instruments, grappling hooks and cables of all sizes passed south on the Pacific highway here today.

They were bound for the upper Willamette rivers to make a map of the river for the federal government.

"All this points to deep water for the Willamette" said one of the survey experts with the party.

HERE FROM TILLAMOOK

BRUSH COLLEGE, July 30.—Mr. and Mrs. George Winslow and daughters Pauline and Harriett and small son, George Jr., of Tillamook were in Salem Monday morning where Mr. Winslow had a business engagement. Later in the day the family went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Whitney of Brush College, brother-in-law and sister of George Winslow where they were guests until Tuesday when they returned home. George Winslow is a lawyer and represents Tillamook county in the legislature.

Jefferson People Attend Jennings Lodge Meeting

JEFFERSON, July 30.—Rev. and Mrs. A. W. Oliver and son Wilfred, Nettie Reeves and Laurita Kils returned home from Jennings Lodge Saturday for the regular Sunday morning service and also to attend the district Sunday school convention at Marion of which Rev. Oliver is president.

They all returned to Jennings Lodge Sunday evening for the remaining of the camp meeting. They report a large crowd in attendance and many camps on the grounds.
