

Local News Briefs

Former Pastor Here—Rev. J. Evans, formerly pastor of the First Christian church here but now pastor of the First Christian church in Sacramento, Calif., will occupy the pulpit of his former pastorate Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, announced D. J. Howe, regular pastor here. Evans will also address the Men's Bible class which he built to a large membership under his instruction, at 10 o'clock. Rev. Evans came down this week to be with Mrs. Evans, whose father, Thomas W. Lewis, North 14th street, is quite ill.

Sale of slightly used Radios—Philo High boy Reg. $179.00, now $137.00, 1 only; Majestic '22 Reg. $179.50, now $145.00, 1 only; Spanton '21 Reg. $189.50, now $149.00, 1 only; Brunswick '14 Reg. $147.00, now $115.00, 1 only. Imperial Furniture Co.

Seek Support Funds—S. E. Benschhof is lodged in jail and there is attempting to gain funds to support his wife and family. Benschhof was haled into justice court here this week charged with non-support after he was arrested at Lebanon, Oregon. Benschhof has been out of the state two years and has thus avoided the non-support charge.

Cole McElroy's dance—"Tumble Inn" 3 miles N. of Albany, tonight, Fri., Aug. 1st.

Visits Old Friend—Mrs. W. W. Sawyer of Nampa, Calif., where she is president of the Y. W. C. A. board, visited this week with Mrs. Elizabeth Gallaher, local Y. W. secretary. The women were friends in California, the Nampa association being under the Vallejo office, for which Mrs. Gallaher was general secretary prior to coming to Salem. Mr. Sawyer was also in the city.

Eat at the Green Lantern, home pastries, home style, nice cool place, 1326 State.

Warden to Speak—During the absence of Rev. George H. Swift, pastor, P. G. Deckebach, senior warden and lay-reader, will deliver the address Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Paul's Episcopal church. Morning prayer will be read by the other lay-readers, Norman Perbrick and Robert Melmyer. The 7:30 a. m. Holy communion service will be omitted.

Pillow-armavenport, Kolster radio, Spanish desk, rug, mattress and other household goods for sale, 322 Ambassador apt. Tel. 3611-J.

Leaving for Conference—J. M. Comer, pastor of the Seventh Day Adventist church, and his family will leave this morning for Gladstone park to attend the annual conference and convention of the church. The Adventists have purchased that park for their annual meeting place and dedication will be held Sunday. A large choir of 200 voices will be a feature of the occasion.

Dance, McElroy's Band, "Tumble Inn"—3 miles N. of Albany, tonight, Aug. 1st.

Printers to Picnic—Members of The Statesman mechanical department will hold a frolic at Riverdale park this afternoon, the group to leave town at 1 o'clock. Included in the group will be linotype operators, men and women, stereotypers, pressmen and foreman of the "back office." The employees work into the wee small hours each morning to bring forth the paper.

Good New Baled clover $10. R. 9, Box 61, Tel. 44F24.

Seeks $450 Damages—An automobile accident which occurred at Scotts Mills, May 25, 1929, is basis for a damage action filed in circuit court yesterday by Lorin Wolstead against Walter and Joseph Hessel. The complaint says Walter Hessel drove the car carelessly while under influence of liquor.

Dollar dinner every night 5:45 to 8 at the Marion hotel.

Leaving on Vacation—Miss Helen Bristow, secretary in the office of the city school superintendent, will begin her annual two weeks' vacation Saturday. She plans to spend the time in Eugene and on a trip to Crater lake. Miss Vera McCune, secretary to the principal at Parrish junior high, will substitute for Miss Bristow.

Tune in on KEX tonight at 8 o'clock and hear some startling truths about chain stores.

Picnic Well Attended—Around 150 members of the Sunday school of the First Christian church met at Hager's grove yesterday afternoon and evening for the annual picnic of the congregation. A big supper featured the frolic. O. J. Hull is superintendent of the Sunday school.

Angst Transferred—R. L. Angst, salesman for the General Petroleum corporation here, has been transferred to Longview where he will have a similar job with the company.

Suit Stoles—George Hulet Thursday reported to police the theft of a suit of clothes from his room at 945 Broadway. The suit disappeared Wednesday, he said.

Business Visitor—W. R. Kaser, Portland real estate man, was a business visitor in the city yesterday.

Moving to Los Angeles—Arnold Olson, 2234 North Liberty street, is moving his family to Los Angeles.

Guardian Appointed—W. L. Cahill has been appointed guardian of the $2,000 estate of Walter G. Reite, an incompetent person.

CHICHESTERS PILLS
SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

Purchases Tract—F. S. Chaplin, who comes to Salem from Myrtle Creek, has purchased a tract in the Alderbrook addition and has started construction of a home. Chaplin's son, F. L. Chaplin is operating the Red Lantern service station and restaurant, located on the highway south of town. The Alderbrook addition project, with golf course and other recreation features, steps to that end being under way now.

Kodaks, developing, prescriptions, Woolpert & Hunt, Court at Liberty.

Attend Picnic—Among Salem people who attended the all-day Shrine picnic Wednesday at Jantzen beach in Portland were Mrs. and Mrs. Bert B. Flack, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Henty, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Russell, Miss Louisa Gullford, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Peetery, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Blodgett and son Bill. This group enjoyed luncheon at the beach, and was joined by the evening dinner by Mr. and Mrs. David Wright.

All makes of radios repaired, Majestic radio sales and service, Vibbert and Todd, 466 State St., Tel. 2112.

Defendants File Answer—Defendants Della Schellberg, Grace Holford, C. C. Wilson and Lee Brown yesterday filed answer in the case of A. D. Gardner, et al, against Anna Stayton, et al. The defendants named ask that plaintiff be handed by A. C. Bohmstedt, no judgment for costs be entered against these defendants.

Tune in on KEX tonight at 8 o'clock and hear some startling truths about chain stores.

Colorado Man Buys—W. J. Magill of Colorado has purchased the J. J. Dorst 40-acre tract in the Silverton hills and moved his family on it this week. The deal was handled by A. C. Bohmstedt, local real estate dealer. Dorst has gone back to California to reside.

Sale of slightly used Radios—Philo High boy Reg. $179.00, now $137.00, 1 only; Majestic '22 Reg. $179.50, now $145.00, 1 only; Spanton '21 Reg. $189.50, now $149.00, 1 only; Brunswick '14 Reg. $147.00, now $115.00, 1 only. Imperial Furniture Co.

Briefs Ordered—Case of R. F. Larson, former Kansas resident, who seeks an embalmer's license in Oregon, against the state embalming board was brought in circuit court yesterday. The judge ordered briefs submitted by each side.

Woman's Union, First Congregational church, will hold a rummage sale Saturday at No. 337 Court street.

Amaranthus Sponsors Show—Through courtesy of Frank Bligh the Amaranthus club is sponsoring the showing of Will Rogers in "The Captive" at the Capitol next Monday and Tuesday. Members of the club are handing tickets for the event.

Spot Dance Sat. Hazel Green.

Licenses Issued—Marriage licenses have been issued here to Ernest Klohs, 24, Canby, mill worker, and Alice Barneko, 17, 749, Columbia, Salem, student; and to C. E. Wunders, 23, Independence, and Leta Wilkinson, 22, Turner.

Dance—with McElroy's Band "Tumble Inn"—Albany, tonight, Aug. 1st.

Petition Granted—Application of C. E. Sullivan for a permit to haul logs on the Mehama-Gates road has been granted by the county court and Albert W. Miller has been granted license to operate at two-table billiard hall at Monitor.

Dance every Sat. night, in cool pavilion, Legion Park, Stayton.

Assets Turned Over—Order was issued in probate court yesterday allowing petition that assets of the estate totaling $15,857 in notes and judgments be turned over to Sophie Meyer, executrix of the estate of Louis Meyer.

Defaults Ordered—Orders of default were signed yesterday by the circuit judge in the divorce actions brought by Loriel Gillette against Clarence J. Gillette; and Cassie Willoughby against James E. Willoughby.

Estate Worth $48,000—Estate of the late Dr. L. F. Griffith has been appraised at $48,493 by D. W. Byre, William S. Walton and E. F. Slade.

Final Account Okeh—Final account of Hazel Ulrich, administratrix of the estate of George Glen Ulrich, has been approved and the administratrix discharged.

On Way to Spokane—Mrs. R. K. Strike, who has been spending some time visiting in this city, left yesterday afternoon for Spokane.

Leaving on Trip—Mrs. Irma S. LeRiche of the Marion county child health demonstration, will leave today for a vacation trip to Banff, Alberta, Canada.

Estate Appraised—Estate of Jane Bellinger, a minor, has been appraised at $500 by Joseph Albert, L. P. Adrich and H. V. Compton.

Suer for Money—Associated Oil company has filed suit for judgment on a bill against A. E. A. Branch.

SHORT TIME INVESTMENT
12 Months Note $1000.00 Cost $940.00
6 Months Note $1000.00 Cost $970.00
Amounts $500.00 to $2500.00
Ample Secured and the highest type of Investment
LOANS INVESTMENTS INSURANCE
Hawkins & Roberts Inc.
208 Oregon Bldg.

Permits Issued—The following building permits were issued Thursday by the city building inspector: C. Anderson, re-roof dwelling at 2754 Center street, cost $55; Leo N. Childs, repair house at 2397 Center street, cost $20; Leo N. Childs, repair dwelling at 576 South Winter street, cost $20; E. E. Canada, re-roof and repair dwelling at 1413 North Capitol, cost $100; Emil Fraszch, erect garage at 458 North 14th street, $200; J. A. Gamble, re-roof house at 390 South 18th street, cost $50.

Free Toy Gilder and candy for every child attending Saturday's Matinee at Bligh's Capitol.

Get Fellowship—A teaching fellowship in the Spanish department has been awarded to Mary Louise Aiken, a graduate with the class of 1929 at Willamette university, according to word received at the school. Miss Aiken, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Aiken, 157 South Winter street, taught Spanish in Independence high school last year. She will work toward a master's degree in the department while teaching.

Free Toy Gilder and candy for every child attending Saturday's Matinee at Bligh's Capitol.

Organ Remodeled—Remodeling of the pipe organ in Walter hall at Willamette university is under way by the Guenther Organ company of Portland. About $400 is being expended on the project when completed the organ will be one of the best in the state, authorities at the school believe. Revoicing of the instrument and raising of the console to a level with the stage are the principal charges being made.

Ladies' Free! Old time dance New Park Hall Friday night.

Concrete Poured—Concrete for footing of the new South Winter street bridge was being poured Thursday, while excavation for footings of the North Commercial street bridge was begun. Work is progressing satisfactorily on both structures according to Hugh Rodgers, city engineer, who keeps daily watch on the work. The north abutment wall on the South Winter street bridge will be poured Friday, he said.

More Oil Applied—Another coat of oil was put on the surface of the slough west of Fairmount hill Thursday when City Sanitary Inspector Batty Cooper and Harry Sinks, county sanitary inspector, put new apparatus into use. The slough was a breeding place for mosquitoes until some time ago when the first oil was sprayed on the surface.

Resurfacing Progress—Resurfacing of 16 blocks on South Commercial street by the county paving crew will be completed next week, according to Street Commissioner Walter S. Low. New black top 1 1/2 inches thickness is being put on the street up to where the Oregon Electric tracks intersect at Mill street.

Driver Arrested—J. F. Davis of Yakima, Wash., is cited to appear this morning in police court to answer to a charge of reckless driving filed upon his arrest Wednesday night. The arresting officer said Davis turned the corner at Court and Court at a dangerous rate of speed. Bail was set at $10.

Default Divorce Day—Default divorce day is set for the circuit court today, and judging from the papers filed the judge will settle fates of those who are seeking divorces.

Hearing Set—Order was signed in probate court yesterday setting September 19 as time for hearing on petition of W. C. Kantner, executor of the estate of Anna A. Kantner, that certain properties of the estate be sold.

Go To Beach—Mrs. Madalene L. Cain, valley editor of The Oregon Statesman, and her small daughter Myra left this morning for a two weeks vacation which will be spent at their summer home at Klamanda Beach.

At Cutler City—Three Salem girls, Mildred Drager, Mary White and Lucille Wood, are spending the week at the Drager cottage at Cutler City.

Hearing In Set—Final hearing in the estate of Emeline K. Davis has been set for September 2. Ronald Glover is administrator.

Action Dismissed—On stipulation, action has been dismissed in the circuit court case of K. Breen against Nellie Harrington.

Births

Kouscher—To Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Kouscher, 2535 Brooks avenue, boy, Kenneth Burton, born July 28.

YES. PIANOS FOR RENT
Call 2102, Used Furniture Department, 101 N. High

PHOTOGRAPHY LECTURE SOON

Harry H. Haworth to Come Here Next Thursday For Address

Amateur and professional photographers in Salem are offered an exceptional treat Thursday evening, August 1, in the auditorium of the Salem chamber of commerce, when Harry H. Haworth, supervisor of visual instruction in the Pasadena city schools gives his illustrated lecture: "Through Our Deserts in the Wake of Spring," according to L. Earl Deane, manager of the Salem Descentes hospital, who is an experienced photographer himself.

Manager Deane, who is a personal friend of Supervisor Haworth, has made a hobby of photography all his life and was commissioned by the French government to make pictures of the sleeping sickness in Africa. He has also done newspaper and magazine photography and he is enthusiastic concerning the pictures to be shown by Haworth.

Deane is interested in arousing interest among Salem photographers.

Obituary

Schlag
Died at the residence 6 miles north of Salem on Route 2, July 31, Fred Schlag, 64. Survived by widow Caroline; five sons, Godfrey, Manuel, David, John and Benjamin; six daughters, Martha, Bertha, Rebecca, Mary, Pauline and Esther, all of Salem, Route 3; three brothers, Dan of Salem, John of North Dakota, and Chris of California; three sisters, Laura Bits of Oklahoma, Lydia Jane of North Dakota and Mary Burdette of Canada. Funeral announcements later by the Salem Mortuary.

Judson
Died in this city July 30, William H. Judson. Survived by son, Percy, Bremerton, Wash.; nephew, Lewis Judson of Salem. Funeral services Friday at 1:30 o'clock from W. T. Rigdon and Son mortuary. Interment Odd Fellows cemetery.

Close
Died at the residence, Rt. 4, box 29, Salem, July 31, Mrs. Caroline L. Close, 68. Survived by three daughters, Mrs. William Knight, Wapato, Wash.; Mrs. L. Gill, Seattle; and Mrs. Frank Conn, Salem, Rt. 4, and two sons, William Close, Donald, Wa.; and J. Close of Salem. Funeral services Friday, August 1, at 2 p. m. from Clough-Taylor chapel with Rev. Tibbit officiating. Interment City View cemetery.

Pinnell
Died at San Diego, Calif., July 24, James S. Pinnell, 64. Husband of the late Julia Bross Pinnell, Salem. Survived by sisters, Amanda Pinnell, Milton, Iowa; Mrs. J. Boyer, Canby, Ia.; Mrs. Mary Harrel, Enid, Okla., and brothers, A. J. of Milton, wa.; T. S. of Oklahoma, and I. H. of Salem. Funeral services Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Clough-Taylor chapel with Dr. W. C. Kantner officiating. Interment City View cemetery.

Kendall
Died in a local hospital July 31, Kendall Klann, age 44. Survived by father, C. K. Klann, Madras, Oregon. Remains shipped to Madras Friday by Clough-Taylor company.

City View Cemetery
Established 1898 Tel. 1206
Conveniently Accessible
Perpetual care provided for
Prices Reasonable

Belcrest Memorial Park
A Park Cemetery with perpetual care
Just ten minutes from the heart of town

Schaefer Quality Butterscotch Wafers
Taken from our regular 40c a lb. stock
A Remarkable piece of candy made from Pure Creamery Butter
Friday and Saturday Only
Two lbs. for 40c

Schaefer's Drug Store
Salem's original yellow front and candy special store
125 N. Commercial St. Tel. 197
Home of Schaefer's Remedies
Familiar Agency

Gray Hair Distressed This Young Lady Not Yet Thirty
Four Bottles of New Hair Tonic Has Banished It and Gray Hairs Are Back to Youthful Color

READ HER DELIGHTFUL STORY TOLD HERSELF
"It was really embarrassing to be not over thirty years old and have gray hair and itchy, scaly dandruff. It was causing my hair to come out by the handful and my scalp seemed so dry and itchy all the time," writes Mrs. Gray, whose picture appears on the right. "I tried all the hair lotions and shampoos I could get, but they were short of a minute what it did for me. Four bottles and a week's shampoo with their powder did it. The first bottle made such a wonderful improvement I kept on and today I need it as lightly as can be. Not a bit of dandruff any more and you should have seen the gray hairs go back to the former color as a girl. I rubbed it every night and I can't say I every night as obtained quick results."

PHOTOGRAPHY LECTURE SOON

Harry H. Haworth to Come Here Next Thursday For Address

Amateur and professional photographers in Salem are offered an exceptional treat Thursday evening, August 1, in the auditorium of the Salem chamber of commerce, when Harry H. Haworth, supervisor of visual instruction in the Pasadena city schools gives his illustrated lecture: "Through Our Deserts in the Wake of Spring," according to L. Earl Deane, manager of the Salem Descentes hospital, who is an experienced photographer himself.

Manager Deane, who is a personal friend of Supervisor Haworth, has made a hobby of photography all his life and was commissioned by the French government to make pictures of the sleeping sickness in Africa. He has also done newspaper and magazine photography and he is enthusiastic concerning the pictures to be shown by Haworth.

Deane is interested in arousing interest among Salem photographers.

Obituary

Schlag
Died at the residence 6 miles north of Salem on Route 2, July 31, Fred Schlag, 64. Survived by widow Caroline; five sons, Godfrey, Manuel, David, John and Benjamin; six daughters, Martha, Bertha, Rebecca, Mary, Pauline and Esther, all of Salem, Route 3; three brothers, Dan of Salem, John of North Dakota, and Chris of California; three sisters, Laura Bits of Oklahoma, Lydia Jane of North Dakota and Mary Burdette of Canada. Funeral announcements later by the Salem Mortuary.

Judson
Died in this city July 30, William H. Judson. Survived by son, Percy, Bremerton, Wash.; nephew, Lewis Judson of Salem. Funeral services Friday at 1:30 o'clock from W. T. Rigdon and Son mortuary. Interment Odd Fellows cemetery.

Close
Died at the residence, Rt. 4, box 29, Salem, July 31, Mrs. Caroline L. Close, 68. Survived by three daughters, Mrs. William Knight, Wapato, Wash.; Mrs. L. Gill, Seattle; and Mrs. Frank Conn, Salem, Rt. 4, and two sons, William Close, Donald, Wa.; and J. Close of Salem. Funeral services Friday, August 1, at 2 p. m. from Clough-Taylor chapel with Rev. Tibbit officiating. Interment City View cemetery.

Pinnell
Died at San Diego, Calif., July 24, James S. Pinnell, 64. Husband of the late Julia Bross Pinnell, Salem. Survived by sisters, Amanda Pinnell, Milton, Iowa; Mrs. J. Boyer, Canby, Ia.; Mrs. Mary Harrel, Enid, Okla., and brothers, A. J. of Milton, wa.; T. S. of Oklahoma, and I. H. of Salem. Funeral services Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Clough-Taylor chapel with Dr. W. C. Kantner officiating. Interment City View cemetery.

Kendall
Died in a local hospital July 31, Kendall Klann, age 44. Survived by father, C. K. Klann, Madras, Oregon. Remains shipped to Madras Friday by Clough-Taylor company.

City View Cemetery
Established 1898 Tel. 1206
Conveniently Accessible
Perpetual care provided for
Prices Reasonable

Belcrest Memorial Park
A Park Cemetery with perpetual care
Just ten minutes from the heart of town

Schaefer Quality Butterscotch Wafers
Taken from our regular 40c a lb. stock
A Remarkable piece of candy made from Pure Creamery Butter
Friday and Saturday Only
Two lbs. for 40c

Schaefer's Drug Store
Salem's original yellow front and candy special store
125 N. Commercial St. Tel. 197
Home of Schaefer's Remedies
Familiar Agency

Gray Hair Distressed This Young Lady Not Yet Thirty
Four Bottles of New Hair Tonic Has Banished It and Gray Hairs Are Back to Youthful Color

READ HER DELIGHTFUL STORY TOLD HERSELF
"It was really embarrassing to be not over thirty years old and have gray hair and itchy, scaly dandruff. It was causing my hair to come out by the handful and my scalp seemed so dry and itchy all the time," writes Mrs. Gray, whose picture appears on the right. "I tried all the hair lotions and shampoos I could get, but they were short of a minute what it did for me. Four bottles and a week's shampoo with their powder did it. The first bottle made such a wonderful improvement I kept on and today I need it as lightly as can be. Not a bit of dandruff any more and you should have seen the gray hairs go back to the former color as a girl. I rubbed it every night and I can't say I every night as obtained quick results."

PHOTOGRAPHY LECTURE SOON

Harry H. Haworth to Come Here Next Thursday For Address

Amateur and professional photographers in Salem are offered an exceptional treat Thursday evening, August 1, in the auditorium of the Salem chamber of commerce, when Harry H. Haworth, supervisor of visual instruction in the Pasadena city schools gives his illustrated lecture: "Through Our Deserts in the Wake of Spring," according to L. Earl Deane, manager of the Salem Descentes hospital, who is an experienced photographer himself.

Manager Deane, who is a personal friend of Supervisor Haworth, has made a hobby of photography all his life and was commissioned by the French government to make pictures of the sleeping sickness in Africa. He has also done newspaper and magazine photography and he is enthusiastic concerning the pictures to be shown by Haworth.

Deane is interested in arousing interest among Salem photographers.

Obituary

Schlag
Died at the residence 6 miles north of Salem on Route 2, July 31, Fred Schlag, 64. Survived by widow Caroline; five sons, Godfrey, Manuel, David, John and Benjamin; six daughters, Martha, Bertha, Rebecca, Mary, Pauline and Esther, all of Salem, Route 3; three brothers, Dan of Salem, John of North Dakota, and Chris of California; three sisters, Laura Bits of Oklahoma, Lydia Jane of North Dakota and Mary Burdette of Canada. Funeral announcements later by the Salem Mortuary.

Judson
Died in this city July 30, William H. Judson. Survived by son, Percy, Bremerton, Wash.; nephew, Lewis Judson of Salem. Funeral services Friday at 1:30 o'clock from W. T. Rigdon and Son mortuary. Interment Odd Fellows cemetery.

Close
Died at the residence, Rt. 4, box 29, Salem, July 31, Mrs. Caroline L. Close, 68. Survived by three daughters, Mrs. William Knight, Wapato, Wash.; Mrs. L. Gill, Seattle; and Mrs. Frank Conn, Salem, Rt. 4, and two sons, William Close, Donald, Wa.; and J. Close of Salem. Funeral services Friday, August 1, at 2 p. m. from Clough-Taylor chapel with Rev. Tibbit officiating. Interment City View cemetery.

Pinnell
Died at San Diego, Calif., July 24, James S. Pinnell, 64. Husband of the late Julia Bross Pinnell, Salem. Survived by sisters, Amanda Pinnell, Milton, Iowa; Mrs. J. Boyer, Canby, Ia.; Mrs. Mary Harrel, Enid, Okla., and brothers, A. J. of Milton, wa.; T. S. of Oklahoma, and I. H. of Salem. Funeral services Saturday at 2 p. m. from the Clough-Taylor chapel with Dr. W. C. Kantner officiating. Interment City View cemetery.

Kendall
Died in a local hospital July 31, Kendall Klann, age 44. Survived by father, C. K. Klann, Madras, Oregon. Remains shipped to Madras Friday by Clough-Taylor company.

City View Cemetery
Established 1898 Tel. 1206
Conveniently Accessible
Perpetual care provided for
Prices Reasonable

Belcrest Memorial Park
A Park Cemetery with perpetual care
Just ten minutes from the heart of town

Schaefer Quality Butterscotch Wafers
Taken from our regular 40c a lb. stock
A Remarkable piece of candy made from Pure Creamery Butter
Friday and Saturday Only
Two lbs. for 40c

Schaefer's Drug Store
Salem's original yellow front and candy special store
125 N. Commercial St. Tel. 197
Home of Schaefer's Remedies
Familiar Agency

Gray Hair Distressed This Young Lady Not Yet Thirty
Four Bottles of New Hair Tonic Has Banished It and Gray Hairs Are Back to Youthful Color

READ HER DELIGHTFUL STORY TOLD HERSELF
"It was really embarrassing to be not over thirty years old and have gray hair and itchy, scaly dandruff. It was causing my hair to come out by the handful and my scalp seemed so dry and itchy all the time," writes Mrs. Gray, whose picture appears on the right. "I tried all the hair lotions and shampoos I could get, but they were short of a minute what it did for me. Four bottles and a week's shampoo with their powder did it. The first bottle made such a wonderful improvement I kept on and today I need it as lightly as can be. Not a bit of dandruff any more and you should have seen the gray hairs go back to the former color as a girl. I rubbed it every night and I can't say I every night as obtained quick results."

PHOTOGRAPHY LECTURE SOON

Harry H. Haworth to Come Here Next Thursday For Address

Amateur and professional photographers in Salem are offered an exceptional treat Thursday evening, August 1, in the auditorium of the Salem chamber of commerce, when Harry H. Haworth, supervisor of visual instruction in the Pasadena city schools gives his illustrated lecture: "Through Our Deserts in the Wake of Spring," according to L. Earl Deane, manager of the Salem Descentes hospital, who is an experienced photographer himself.

Manager Deane, who is a personal friend of Supervisor Haworth, has made a hobby of photography all his life and was commissioned by the French government to make pictures of the sleeping sickness in Africa. He has also done newspaper and magazine photography and he is enthusiastic concerning the pictures to be shown by Haworth.

Deane is interested in arousing interest among Salem photographers.

Obituary

Schlag
Died at the residence 6 miles north of Salem on Route 2, July 31, Fred Schlag, 64. Survived by widow Caroline; five sons, Godfrey, Manuel, David, John and Benjamin; six daughters, Martha, Bertha, Rebecca, Mary, Pauline and Esther, all of Salem, Route 3; three brothers, Dan of Salem, John of North Dakota, and Chris of California; three sisters, Laura Bits of Oklahoma, Lydia Jane of North Dakota and Mary Burdette of Canada. Funeral announcements later by the Salem Mortuary.

Judson
Died in this city July 30, William H. Judson. Survived by son, Percy, Bremerton, Wash.; nephew, Lewis Judson of Salem. Funeral services Friday at 1:30 o'clock from W. T. Rigdon and Son mortuary. Interment Odd Fellows cemetery.