

Sydney Wood Beats Ellsworth Vines for Seabright Title

UPSET VICTORY MARKS FINALS

Sensational Pasadena Lad Fails to Show Usual Speedy Rallies

SEABRIGHT, N. J., Aug. 1.—(AP)—Sydney B. Wood, Jr., 18 year old former resident of Pasadena, Cal., won the Seabright tennis bowl today in a spectacular upset victory over Ellsworth Vines, Jr., another 18-year old star from Pasadena, 6-2, 6-2, 6-0.

Wood, who calls New York his home, disposed of Vines in 47 minutes in a match that was a shock to the experts who had picked Vines as an almost certain winner.

Vines' rating as an overwhelming favorite was due to his triumphs over Frank Shields and Frank Hunter in the Metropolitan turf court championships last week and his successive victories over Shields, Richard N. Williams and Hunter in the Seabright Invitational.

Today Vines made more errors than he had scored placements in previous matches. From the outset Wood played a calculating game that had Vines baffled. Wood's "soft" shots forced Vines into frequent nets and outs.

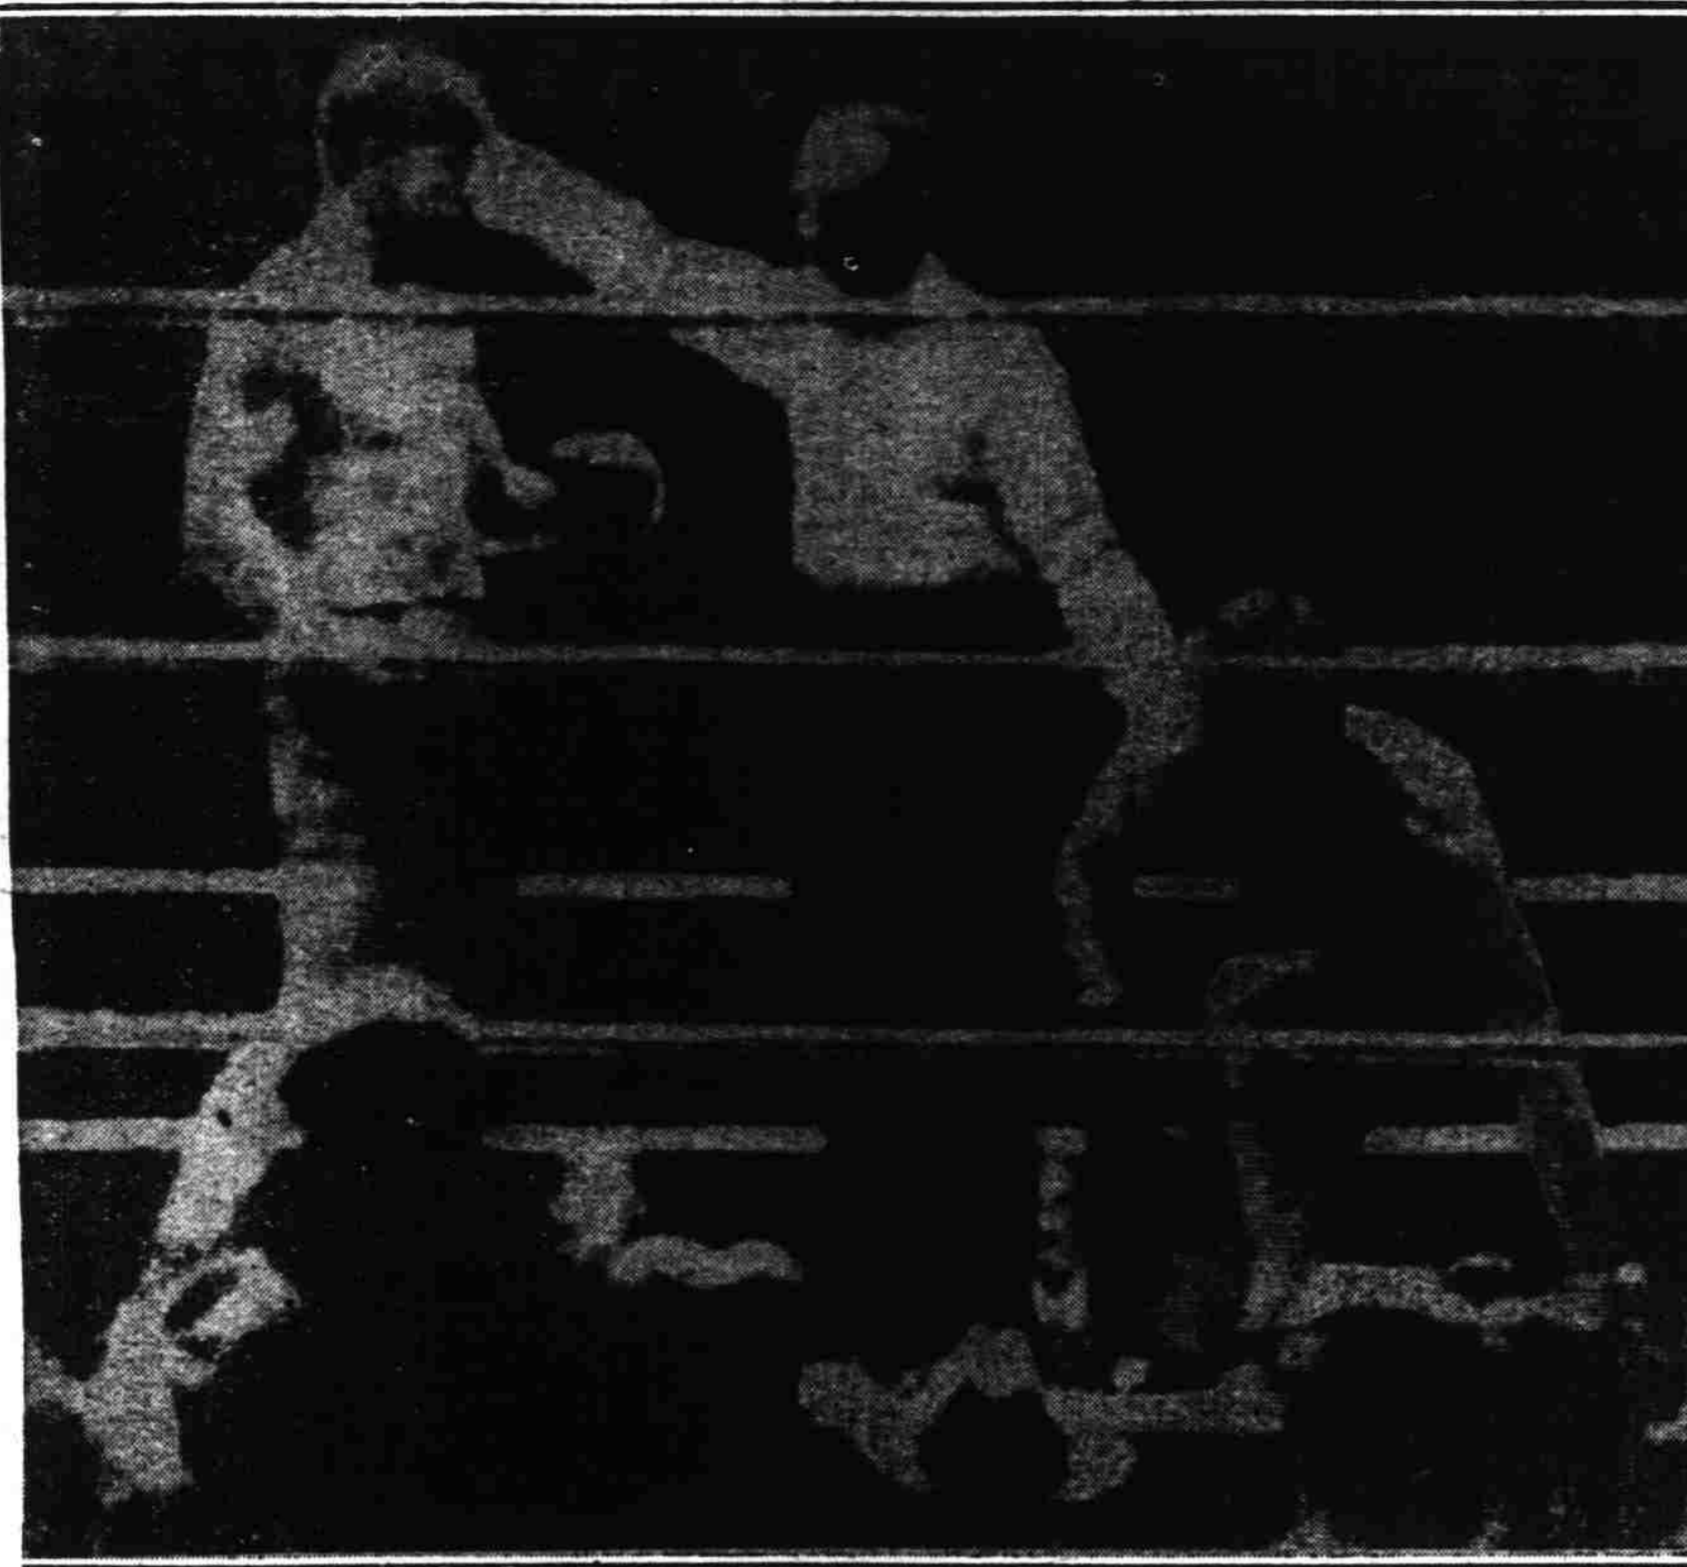

Vines Believed Somewhat Stale

The gallery was stunned by the lack of sensational rallies and many wondered if Vines had not played too much tennis the last two weeks.

The women's doubles title went to Edith Cross, San Francisco, and Mrs. L. A. Harper, Los Angeles, who played superbly to overwhelm the Palfrey sisters, Sarah and Minanne, Brookline, Mass., 6-4, 6-2.

Mrs. Harper and Phil Neer, Portland, Ore., gained the final round of mixed doubles by eliminating Josephine Cruikshank of Santa Ana, Cal., and Edward W. Flebleman, New York, 3-6, 6-3, 8-6. They were joined in the championship round later by Miss Cross and J. Gilbert Hall of South Orange, N. J., who defeated Virginia Hilleary, Philadelphia, and Clifford Sutter, New Orleans, 5-7, 6-3, 9-7.

SEATTLE BEATS MISSIONS AGAIN

Dismal Ducks Lose Eighth Straight; Angel Team Noses Out Victory

SEATTLE, August 1.—(AP)—Seattle nosed out the Missions here tonight 4 to 3 in nip and tuck contest. The Indians counted two in the first inning and held the Missions scoreless until the fifth inning when Bigelow drove a homer over the right field fence.

The Missions went into the lead 3 to 2 in the sixth on Monroe's homer with Kelly on, only to lose it in the seventh, when the tribe put over two more tallies.

The last two innings were scoreless.

BUSINESS MEN WIN OVER LEGION TEAM

STAYTON, Aug. 1.—The Legion-Business men baseball game was one that will long be remembered.

The score was 16 to 4 in favor of the latter. However, had the original line-up been played the score would have been more even. As it was some of the young fellows played were those who had been playing the past season, either in school or other teams.

These lads are working in stores at present and were legitimate entries, but their playing did not give the spectators the thrill they would have had from the "has-beens."

The battery for the Legion was Fred Albus, local druggist, pitcher, and Joe Spaniol, truck driver, catcher. They did themselves proud as did the B. M. battery, Leo Rock, rural carrier, and Lyle Shelton, meat cutter. Some of the used to be players who surprised their friends by playing a good game were Dr. G. F. Kornak, George R. Duncan, attorney, and O. M. Baker, local car dealer. One casualty occurred when a Charles Burmeister, local shoe doctor for the B. M., and Sim Etzel for the Legion bumped heads. As a result Burmeister received a bad rash above his left eye and injured his ankle most painfully. Taking it all in all everybody including the players had a good time and many hearty laughs, because the worse they played the more the crowd cheered. Another game is promised after the boys have recovered from some of their bruises.

CURT COMMENTS

According to the screech-head on the front of yesterday's Portland Telegram, the independents are planning to "draft" Julius Meier as a candidate. Wonder if they'll have to call out the troops to round up the slacker?

Seems to us if the chamber of commerce wanted to do something to advertise Salem, it could at least organize a tree sitting spirited. We could get public spirit and do it, but we don't want any irate mothers pulling our hair: so boys, if you must climb trees, don't say we suggested it.

Don Upjohn completed four holes of golf in 122 strokes, so we are informed. But maybe he wasn't to blame. Maybe his mind was still dwelling on the puzzle of what that message was, waiting to him out of a hotel window. He hasn't been around to inquire.

Sunday, the Townies. Just why they were thus named, has not been explained here. Lots of towns still have the same old "town team" of days gone by, and others have picked out names for their teams to get away from that style of designation. In Eugene they apparently hit on a compromise—"retaining the best features of each."

Anyway, they'll be fighting for life Sunday, and it'll be worth seeing in spite of conflicting attractions.

Housekeeping list in the Woodburn Independent says "try sandwiches with open face for dainty lunch." We've seen lots of people try sandwiches with open faces, but can't say it was so dainty.

Heroic Death of Grid Star Told

PORTLAND, Me., Aug. 1.—(AP)—The duty to his charges, three young boy campers, uppermost in his mind, Al Lassman, former New York university football star, gasped out "hang on to the canoe" and sank beneath the waters of Long Lake, near Harrison, on July 6, an investigation by County Attorney Ralph M. Ingalls disclosed today.

The giant football player was able to give aid to but one of the boys after the four were tossed from the canoe as they tried to row to the shore. It was according to the story of the boys.

Ingalls' investigation was started by the statement by New York university authorities yesterday. Lassman was not alone in the canoe when he drowned as was reported by Isadore Zarakov, head of the Camp Zakelo and former Harvard football player, at the time of the accident.

Zarakov, in a statement from Boston today, said details surrounding the drowning were not made public "to save unnecessary worry" to the parents of the three boys.

"Ride 'em, cowboy, let 'em buck" is a sample of the familiar rangland cries shouted at this expert rider on bucking broncho at the $200,000 frontier carnival held at Cheyenne, Wyoming. Over twelve thousand Indians and whites participated in the revival of pioneer days in the West.

CARNERA LIKELY TO GET FURTHER LEAVE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The human alp from Italy, Primo Carnera, showed a group of feminine fight fans and a labor department board of review today why his manager thought he should have more time in the United States.

He displayed his towering physique, the immense feet and the huge hands that have combined to make him an uncomfortable ring antagonist—-but, aside from this, he confined his own arguments to a broad smile.

"He is the man who fights I say hit and he hits," explained Leon See, his manager.

See loudly joined in the contention of Representative Hartley of New Jersey that the sporting interests of the United States required that Carnera be granted a time extension of three or four more months to complete his campaign for a title bout.

The decision was taken under advisement by labor department officials, but the belief prevailed that Carnera would be given a six months extension of his time for leaving the country.

DEATH TAKES WIFE OF FAMOUS PITCHER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Mrs. Walter Johnson died today after a brief illness.

Weakened by a long vigil at the bedside of a son, the wife of the veteran Washington baseball player fell ill two days ago after a heat ridden motor trip from her husband's former home at Coffeyville, Kas.

A growing mass of flowers at the Johnson home gave evidence tonight of the wide sympathy with the man who as "the big train" became known from one end of the country to the other. Among them was a wreath from President and Mrs. Hoover. The game of the Washington team with the New York Yankees on Monday was postponed to permit his teammates to attend the funeral.

RAINFALL IS LIGHT BUT NOT A RECORD

Only .61 inch of rainfall fell during the month of July, but at that the month was wetter than about 11 other Julys since 1892 when the official precipitation records were established.

Since that year 11 Julys have passed without a trace of moisture being recorded, one had the same figure as July just passed, .61, three had .62, and four had more than one inch of precipitation.

July 2 was the only day during the past month in which rain was recorded, although on July 27, a few drops were reported in some sections of town.
