CHICAGO GRAIN CHICAGO, Aug. 1-(AP)-Prospects of the scantiest corn crop since 1868 with only two exceptions listed corn today to a new top price record for the season.

Monthly unofficial crop estimates showed a sensational drop of 405,000,000 bushels in the forecasts of 1930 corn production as compared with similar private estimates a month ago.

Today's indications were for continuance of the drouth that has been rav-sging fields thoughout the corn helt, and that in Illinois was officially re-ported today as being for the last five months the severest in 58 years. Closing quotations on corn were un-seltled 3-8-1 5-8c a bushel higher than yesterday's finish. Wheat closed 7-8-1 3-8c off. Oats 1 J-8 to 1 3-8c up.
