Northwest Title Bout to be Headliner at Armory Tonight

"Roughhouse" Coggins and Terrible Turk Billed For Preliminary

wrestling championship and the belt offered by Salem and Albany matchmakers, is the menu offered to local fans at the armory tonight, with Ernie Arthur and Mervin Barrackman as the par-

Salem fans who have been following the mat game closely are inclined to list Arthur as the favorite by a sizeable margin, but there are others who recall the remarkable staying qualities of the Albany grappler and predict a warm match, at least, before Arthur takes the nod,

On numerous oceasions they have seen Barrackman take everything an opponent could throw at him, seemingly the under dog throughout; and then come back when an opening offered and pull out a victory. Coggins to Meet "Tecrible Turk"

Since signing up for the certificate. match here, Barrackman has given additional evidence that he s entitled to a shot at the chamonship belt by winning Monday night from Roughhouse Billy Coggins of Tacoma Coggins, by the way, will appear here tonight, having signed up for the preliminary bout against Ec' Hassan, a middleweight who drifted into town last week end. Hassan is said to be a genuine "Terrible Turk" from Turkey who gained his prowess as a mat mauler by countrymen, Matchmaker Harry putting up a real show.

Today's the big day for the American Legion junior baseball aspirants of Oregon—the day toward which probably a couple thousand boys aimed their ambitions early in the spring. Only ed that the Portland to'a m would win, and that was one of the guesses on which we were right. This year we're not mak-The first match in Salem of the elimination tournament for the northwest middleweight wrestling championship and the ing a regular practice of pick-ing winners. But we are again of the opinion at least that the Portland team has some advantages that the Silverton boys will have to overcome if they take the state champion-ship.

It's a considerable source of gratification to Salem people and especially those who had any part in the program, that four local boys are among the 28 figuring in the state championship, game, even though the team on which they are playing is Silverton's.

We've had our little say from time to time about this program and we're all for it, not only be cause it's a great factor in keep ing alive the interest in baseball throughout the nation, but be-cause it's a great big institution in itself, with boys all over the nation participating—and it's Many Hits, Few know anything about. NEW YORK, Aug. 5.—(AP)—
After three years of intensive training campaigning and unsuecessful challenging for the Davis cup, American tennis officials indicated today drastic changes in policy are under consideration. As he stood on the pier awaiting the arrival of the American team that returned from France emptyhanded, Louis B. Bailey of New York, president of the United States Lawn Tennis associaton, said if he has his way next year's quest for the cup will be undertaken without the long months of arduous preparation now involved. Joseph W. Wear, chairman of when at last the United States succeeds in recovering the trophy. he favors holding the competition every two years instead of annu-

Wear said no such suggestion would be considered until the cup has been regained, as the French campaigned cheerfully year after year before they finally attained their goal and now are entitled to dictate terms. Wear, however, expressed confidence the United States would recapture the cup

"in a couple of years." Both Wear and Bailey believe the United States must depend largely upon her young playersthose still in their 'teens-to regain the cup.
