

Events of Interest in Social - Musical - Club Circles :-

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor.

THE past week drew to a close in lively fashion for warm August weather. For some reason the weddings got such a start in June that it seems there is an overflow for the late summer and fall, and between complimenting the brides of June and honoring those of August and September there is no dearth of society events. With these setting the pace and many lovely things being planned for visitors one hardly realizes that so many folk are out of town and that really it is supposed to be vacation time.

The attractive week has seen attractive affairs given for Mrs. Ernest Bonesteel, Miami Victor, and Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel, Pauline Gravel, both brides of the spring, with Mrs. Don Pritchett and Miss Claudia Plank as hostesses. The wedding of Olive Barnard to Leonard Chadwick was a pretty event of Thursday. The affair given by Miss Irma Bolander and those planned by Mrs. T. A. Rafferty and Miss Betty Shipley for Miss Helen Campbell, who will become a bride August 19 are holding attention.

Approaching weddings in August in addition to that of Miss Robertson to Mr. Vincent and Miss Moore to Mr. Pearson today, are Miss Margaret Morgue to Charles Kaufman, and Miss Catherine Barbyto to Virgil O'Neil.

Then there are the affairs for visitors. Saturday night Mrs. Evelyn Paddock Smith, daughter-in-law of Mrs. William Dillmon-Smith, and a guest from Santa Monica, was presented in a delightful musicale at the T. S. Roberts studio. Mrs. Ray Smith and Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith will entertain Tuesday for Mrs. Ralph W. Walton of Montclair, New Jersey.

Many other events are being planned both formal and informal for the coming week, both for brides, brides-to-be and for visitors. It is a busy time for all the vacationing.

Tea to Compliment Former Salem Woman

Miss Elnora E. Thompson, well known in Salem through her work with the former Marion county child health demonstration, is being feasted with a tea between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock on the campus of the University of Oregon medical school in Portland, August 23. The Oregon State Graduate Nurses association is the hostess.

Miss Thompson is director of public health at the University of Oregon now as well as professor of applied sociology. She has just recently been elected president of the American Nurses' association.

Friends of Miss Thompson are being invited to come and greet her at this tea.

Mrs. C. K. Haynes Dinner Hostess

Mrs. C. K. Haynes entertained with a dinner in compliment to Mrs. O. H. Pickens and Mr. Haynes whose birthdays came Friday, and Ollie Pickens whose birthday will be today, Friday night at the Haynes home.

Guests for this event were the honor guests, Mrs. O. H. Pickens, C. K. Haynes, and Ollie Pickens, Miss Dorris Pickens, O. H. Pickens, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pickens, Mrs. Emma Webster of McMinnville, Mrs. Van Allison and Miss Jean Allison of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Van Allison and Miss Allison, former Salem folk, will be the house guests of Mrs. Haynes for the coming week.

Legion Auxiliary Is Anticipating Convention

SALEM American Legion Auxiliary members are anticipating the tenth annual American Legion convention which will meet in Baker Thursday morning.

The delegates which will go from Salem are Mrs. F. N. Waters, president of the local unit, Mrs. William Watkins, Mrs. King Bartlett, Mrs. M. J. Melchior, Mrs. Allen Cleveland, and Mrs. A. M. Lockard.

This party will leave here Wednesday morning by motor and will take the Columbia river highway to Baker. The return will be made by way of McKenzie pass.

It is anticipated that there will be much excitement in the election which will come Saturday morning following the week of many activities, both and pleasure.

According to Mrs. Wesley Bowen, this convention will be the largest and most satisfactory one yet to be held.

The auxiliary session will be called together at 10 o'clock which will be followed by a joint meeting of the legion and the auxiliary, with addresses by Commander Sidney George, and a response by Mrs. Chaney.

Friday morning there will be the breakfast for secretaries and treasurers, the presidents' dinner will be given at the Getser Grand hotel Friday night; there will also be a "miner's breakfast" served at 5:30 o'clock for which both legion and auxiliary delegates are invited. Sheriff Cy J. Bingham will be in charge and it is expected that this will be one of the social highlights. Friday night there is being planned a midnight matinee for the auxiliary.

Thursday there will be a picnic for the Gold Star mothers. There will be a number of trophies and awards presented for which the units of the state have been working this year. This presentation will hold much interest and will be made Saturday morning.

Mrs. Cheney, state president of the auxiliary, speaking of the coming convention has said:

"At the Baker convention will be seen the results of the year's rewards and chairman and officers will contribute the results of their year's experience. I hope to be able to greet personally many of you at Baker and express appreciation for your loyalty. We have made elaborate plans to have the convention sessions interesting and instructive. The Baker unit is leaving nothing undone to add to your comfort and pleasure. So we will 'make 'er to Baker,' where we anticipate the best convention yet."

It is expected that Mrs. Hollie Hieder of Sheridan will be the next state auxiliary president.

Missionary Group To Picnic

One of the anticipated events of the year so far as social activities is concerned for the Calvary Baptist Woman's Missionary society is the annual picnic. This will be held this year at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Gile at Boulder Knoll, Friday at 3 o'clock.

The afternoon meeting will be followed by a picnic supper at 6:30 o'clock to which the men are being invited. The members are asked to bring table accessories.

Miss Nina McNary will have charge of the afternoon devotions. Mrs. G. E. Ross has arranged the program which will be a book review of "Child Wives of India" with a special feature in connection with the review.

The picnic committee is Mrs. H. S. Gile, Mrs. Thomas Roen, Mrs. K. H. Pickens, Mrs. Elma McAllister, and Mrs. Loren Barnett.

Mrs. Ralph W. Walton of Montclair, New Jersey, who is here as a guest of her mother, Mrs. William Dillmon Smith; upper right, Mrs. Don Pritchett, who entertained Wednesday with one of the elaborate teas of the season complimenting Mrs. Ernest Bonesteel and Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel, brides of the spring; at the lower left is Mrs. W. W. Rosebraugh, who will leave September 1 for Paris where she will visit her son; lower center, Miss Helen Campbell who will become the bride of Ezra Webb, August 19; lower right, Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel, nee Pauline Gravel, prominent guest of honor this week, who has recently come to make her home in Salem.

Moore Pearson Wedding Will Be Quiet

A QUIET wedding of today will be that of Miss Dorothy Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Moore, and William Pearson, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Pearson of Turner, at four o'clock at the Moore home on Leslie street. Rev. E. Burgoynes will read the wedding service before only a few friends and immediate relatives.

A lovely altar of lattice twined with ivy and fern and banked with flowers has been created before the large windows of the living rooms. Many summer blossoms in ink and white will deck the guest rooms and complete the background for the solemn ceremony.

Miss Eleanor Moore will sing preceding the ceremony. Miss Moore will be unattended. She will be gowned in a soft coral pink chiffon ensemble with picture hat to harmonize, and will carry a shower bouquet of sweet peas and roses in pink shades.

Following the ceremony there will be an informal reception. Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. Gales Sidel, Mrs. M. O. Pearson, and Mrs. C. W. Pogue will assist in the serving.

Out of town guests are to be Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore of San Francisco, and Fred Smith of Roseburg.

The young people will make their home in Turner where they both graduated from high school. Mr. Pearson is in business there.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Underhill this past week were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. McClellan and daughter, Roselyn and Mrs. Kate Conner of Detroit, Michigan. These guests are on a long motor trip through the United States, having left their home last December. They spent the winter in California and are touring Oregon and Washington this summer. Miss Alice Marsh from Whitewater, Wisconsin, has also been a guest at the A. A. Underhill home and at the home of Mrs. D. Hemdricks for the past few days.

Members of the family of Mrs. William Dillmon Smith will enjoy today at Cascadia. Those who will make the motor trip will be Mrs. William Dillmon Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Smith, Mrs. Ralph W. Walton, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, and Mrs. Mary Reeves.

Mr. and Mrs. George Tucker, Clifford Tucker, and Audrey Tucker are leaving today for Yachats, where they will spend two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. E. Rinderman will make the trip with them, and will stay for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Al. Van Dahl and daughters, Alberta and Jennie, will leave today for Cascadia where they will spend a week.

An evening of cards and dancing was a delightful event in the home of Mrs. L. C. Farmer Friday, August 8, when a crowd of friends were present for a
