Afternoon Tea is Delightful Affair

Miss Helen Pearce and Miss Derothy Pearce were hostesses for a charming tea given Wednesday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock at the Pearce home in compliment to the popular visitor, Mrs. Ralph R. Walton, of Montclair, New Jersey.

Music and delightfully informal conversation were enjoyed throughout the afternoon. At the tea hour the guests were seated at small tables and were served by the Misses Pearce.

Those invited to compliment Mrs. Walton were Mrs. William Dillmon Smith, her mother, Mrs. Paul Smith of Santa Monica, California, Mrs. Ray L. Smith, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mrs. Asa Fisher, Mrs. Guy Woods of Portland, Miss Lulu Heist, Miss Lina Heist, Miss Leila Rigdon, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mrs. L. C. Mitchell of Fulton, Missouri, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. Floyd Utter, Miss Mary Schultz, Mrs. M. E. Peck, Mrs. E. C. Richards, Mrs. Charles Sherman and Miss Frances Richards.

Interesting Picnic At J. C. Nelson Home

A happy event for the Writers' lar meeting Tuesday night on the lawn of the J. C. Nelson byterian church. The supper table was spread in the cool shade of bridge evening for a group of the spreading trees, and after the most intimate friends of the bride supper hour the members retired elect. to the broad veranda of the Nelson home and here the regular with Mrs. John Clifford, leader, inal and literary experiences were also given.

The next meeting of the group where and what will be the nature of the meeting. Those present for the Tuesday night meeting were Miss Grace Miss Lena Madler of Lebanon, Gilliam, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jelderks, Mrs. Nellie Green of Portland, Dr. Mary Rowland, Prof. and Mrs. Morton E. ### Birthday Party Is Gay Event

One of the jolliest birthday parties of the season was that complimented Mistress Roberta Paulus on the occasion of her fourth birthday Wednesday at the Spa when her mother, Mrs. Robert Paulus, entertained with a luncheon party followed by games in Willson park. The luncheon table was centered with a bowl holding pink larkspur and floating above the table were many balloons in pastel shades. Each child was presented with a balloon. The final note of glory for the table decoration was the great birthday cake decorated in pink and bearing candles. Mrs. Paulus was assisted in serving and in the games which followed the luncheon hour by Mrs. Carl Pope, Mrs. George E. Lewis, and Mrs. R. J. Hibbs. The young guests who came to

Mrs. Willard Marshall Is Informal Hostess

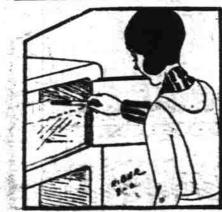

Mrs. Willard Marshall entertained with an informal tea at her home between 4 and 5 e'clock Wednesday afternoon in compliment to her house guest, Miss Elizabeth Merriam of Spokane. About 15 guests were invited to meet Miss Merriam. This tea was one of several informal things that have been and will be given for Miss Mer-riam who will be in the city for a few days longer. The past week end Mr. and
