

Sarazen Gets Away in Lead for St. Paul $10,000 Prize

BEATS COURSE RECORD AT 67

Farrell and Hackbarth Are Close Behind; Hagen, Armour Off Game

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Gene Sarazen, a great money player with his eyes focused on another bag of gold, led a spectacular assault on par over the Kähler county course today and snatched a one shot margin in the big struggle for the $10,000 St. Paul open golf championship.

The stocky New York Italian professional whose big clubs carried away the largest cash prize in golf's history at Agua Caliente, Mexico, last winter, whizzed around the championship course today with a brilliant 67, five lusty strokes under par, which not only netted him his scant advance but gave him a new competitive record for the course.

One stroke behind him at the end of the quarter way juncture of the 72 hole medal struggle were Johnny Farrell of New York, like Sarazen, a former national open champion and Otto Hackbarth, the veteran professional from Cincinnati, who made his first appearance in championship play in three years.

Other Notables in the 69 Class

Three other well known shot makers scored 69's to land among the leaders. They were Johnny Goodman, the Omaha youth who upset Bobby Jones in the national amateur at Pebble Beach last year; Tony Manero of White Plains, N. Y., and "Light Horse" Harry Cooper, of Chicago. Manero muffed a five foot putt for a 68 on the final green.

Four others toured the 652 yard stretch in 70's—Horton Smith of New York, one of the big favorites went out today with a 63 and then slumped slightly to take a 37 on the way back; Charles Lacey, young Briton from Cleveken, N. J., who scored the national open field during its second round; Harold McSpaden, a dark horse from Bethel, Kans., and Willard Hutchison, the lanky professional from Chicago.

Four big favorites had perfect 72's. They were Walter Hagen and Tommy Armour of Detroit, Bill Mehlhorn of New York and Ed Dudley, the big pro from Wilmington, Del. Harrison (Jim) Johnston, of St. Paul, national amateur champion, experienced considerable trouble, but ended his journey with a 74, two over par.

CURT COMMENTS

Three guesses—where would we like to be right now? You'll need only one guess.

It's this way with us—we can pass the conventional seasons and the parades including the one at midnight this morning, we don't care a whoop for the all night noise sessions. Not a very big whoop, anyway. But oh, how we'd like to be on hand and see Frisco Edwards and Fod Mason running 250 yards! As for the ball games Thursday and today, you know us, Al.

Kitchen, Hibbard and Rudekicker were the hitting stars for Silverton Thursday, with Holman and Craig close behind. The boys made quite a few errors, probably due to the rarified atmosphere we have previously mentioned.

That relay team which won for Salem against all the other legions in the state must have been just to Oliver Huston's liking; Frisco and Fod got just far enough behind so Oliver could show his real form. A scratch race wouldn't have any attractions for him. We wonder how Spec Keene came out on his lap?

One question the dispatches from Baker haven't answered—whether Frisco will stay with his boys and go on to Colorado Springs, provided they win, or come back and help the Senators humble Albany Sunday. Those Alcos may be all primed to set the Solons down a peg.

We don't know how you feel about it, but our sympathy sort of clings to Big Bill Tilden as against the so-called fans who razzed him Thursday when his leg was hurting and a young unknown was taking his measure. Seems as though Bill deserves better than that after what he has done for tennis in this country.

Sharkey passed up Carnera and is going to take on Campolo. That's the best compliment for the Alp we've heard yet.

Helene Madison Enters Portland Swimming Event

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Seventy-five swimmers have been entered in the Pacific northwest swimming and diving championships to be held here Saturday afternoon.

Leading the entry list is Miss Helene Madison, Seattle, famous school girl swimmer. Ray Daughters, her coach and trainer, has not announced the events Miss Madison will enter.

Hack Cody, Multnomah club coach, said Portland's title hopes in most of the events has been weakened by the ineligibility of several first string men who are serving as life guards.

Jewish Baseball Star From Coast 'Goes Big' In New York ... Yoi, Yoi

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Every rookie dreams of the day when he will be lined under the big baseball tent of the major leagues. A few succeeded, more fail.

Harry Rosenberg, young Jewish outfielder who went up to the New York Giants after three months of professional ball with the San Francisco Missions, is one recruit who will be given every chance to make good. A few million Jewish citizens of the big city have waited long for one of their descent who could step up to the plate and belt out home runs, a la Babe Ruth.

John McGraw, Giants manager, thought his troubles over when he picked up Andy Cohen, second baseman, but that young man failed to click. While the crowd, the turnstiles hummed from increased attendance. Money talks in any language and McGraw never has been accused of not being a good interpreter. Therefore, when he heard that a

Silverton-Pocatello Game is Postponed Because of Heavy Downpour

BAKER, Ore., Aug. 15.—(AP)—Heavy rain today caused the postponement of the Silverton-Pocatello American Legion Junior league baseball game until 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Silverton and Pocatello battled their way to the finals of the regional tournament. The winners of Saturday's game will be sent to Colorado Springs for the all western championships.

STOCKTON, Calif., Aug. 15.—(AP)—"Dutch" Hille, throwing a puzzling curve ball, pitched Long Beach into the regional championship of the American Legion's Junior baseball tournament here today, defeating the Salt Lake City entry by the score of 10 to 4.

Hille whiffed 12 batters and yielded but five hits. After the third inning he was complete master of the Mormon youngsters. The Salt Lake squad used three pitchers against the hard hitting Californians and all of them were touched for scores.

The victory qualified Long Beach to play in the all western finals at Colorado Springs next week, when six regional champions from states west of the Mississippi river will compete. The Colorado Springs winner will participate in the "Little World Series," at Memphis on August 29.

What a man! You can hit two or three over the fence and he won't look at you but make the least bit out. The (the players) have to answer 'yes sir' and 'no sir'.

DEER SEASON MAY NOT BE DELAYED

As a result of Friday morning's light rain and lower temperatures, Governor Norblad said he was hopeful that he would not be compelled to postpone the opening of the hunting season which opens September 15.

Reports received by Lynn Cronemiller, state forester, indicate that the shower was spotted, and that there was no general rain throughout the state. The state forester said the fire situation had improved materially, and there were no serious fires at the present time. Weather forecasts received by Cronemiller indicated showers in western Oregon during the next few days.

SHARKEY SIGNS UP TO FIGHT CAMPOLO

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey dropped negotiations for a heavyweight engagement with Primo Carnera, the Italian giant, and signed with Madison Square garden to fight Victorio Campolo, the Argentine, in Yankee stadium September 25. The bout is for 15 rounds.

In the Sharkey-Campolo battle Madison Square garden paves the way for a bout between the winner and Young Stribling in the annual battle of the palms in Miami next winter. The 25-year-old Georgian is considered almost certain to be matched with the victor.

A last-minute discovery of an obscure clause in contracts between Sharkey and the garden gave the New York promoters control of the heavyweight situation, which until today was thought to be ruled by Mike Malloy and his Chicago association. Attorneys for the Boston fighter and the garden simultaneously found that the garden still holds an option on Sharkey for one more fight, providing the garden is willing to guarantee Sharkey $100,000 for the match.

At that, only two heavies would now seem to have a reasonable chance of whipping the ponderous Primo—one is the ring-wise Sharkey and the other is the equally skilled Stribling. Also, it looks at this writing as though the powers-that-be will deport Carnera, as least as far as his championship chances are concerned.

As to night baseball, so successful in certain minor leagues, the New York Giants are experimenting with it. By 1931 or 1932, flood lights may be doing O'S's stuff and blindin' the umpires 'round the big league circuits!

Schneider reported the trip from Columbus was uneventful. He left there at 3:21 p. m. Schneider's flying time since leaving Westfield, N. J., has been eight hours and 35 minutes.

The youthful aviator said he would spend the night here, probably leaving for Wichita, Kans., tomorrow morning.

BASEBALL NOTES

MIDSUMMER sporting scenes had their moments, sad as well as glad, especially when the Sport Bug's gamey friends, Bill Tilden and George Lott, fell before the classic onslaughts of Henri Cochet and Jean Borotra to leave the Davis Cup, symbol of the world's tennis championship, in France. We'd almost favor cancelling those war debts if our U. S. team won, but as a 1914-1918 veteran of the Franconian guards might say it: "The frogs were just a bit too good." And so—vive la France!

Many Americans had scarcely donned mourning for that Davis Cup defeat when it came sport-don's craps thanks to "Yeone" (he's

CHAIN STORE FIRM FACING INJUNCTION

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—(AP)—A suit asking for a receiver for S. H. Kress and Co., chain store operators, and for an injunction restraining three directors from disposing of the assets of the company has been filed in supreme court by three minority holders.

The three stockholders, Otis A. Knight, Emil Mayer and Fred Cunningham, charge "Samuel" H. "Charles" W. and "Robert" H. Kress, whose first names they did not know, with conspiring to defraud Kress and Co. in the purchase of $15,000,000 worth of store sites.

The petition alleges the three Kresses, owners of 90 per cent of the stock of the John Franklin corporation, gave confidential information regarding the proposed purchase of sites. The John Franklin corporation, the petition alleged, then purchased the sites and sold them to Kress at greatly enhanced prices.
