Methods to Prevent Misuse Of Power Rights Held Already at Hand

The California-Oregon Power company's big consumption of power is in California, and it already generates much of its power in this state for use in its California distribution system.

Key Opposed to Extra Expense

Thomas B. Kay, state treasurer, and member of the state reclamation commission, pointed out that the proposed special legislative session, even though it completed its work within a week, would cost the taxpayers of Oregon approximately $50,000. In case of a more prolonged session, the expense might be increased to $100,000, Kay said.

The argument was advanced by Mr. Kay that the state engineer, who administers the water code, is an employee of the state reclamation commission, and that this commission would not exceed its authority in ordering that action on all applications for water power rights now on file, be deferred until after the regular legislative session next January. Even though mandamus proceedings were filed to compel the state engineer to set on file the applications, it would require several months for the courts to hear the cases and hand down a decision.

Kay declared that he was ready and willing to go on record favoring delay on all water applications now on file in the office of the state engineer until the legislature has convened in January.

Whether other members of the state reclamation commission would agree to such order could not be determined until Friday. The reclamation commission is composed of the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer.

FOLDING AIRPLANE FORESEEN BY BYRD

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd is in the market for a new airplane—a ship that can fold its wings like a bird and carry its motors in the wings.

Coming from the conclusion of a New Hampshire retreat to be the honor guest of the National Aeronautic association tonight, he offered to place his order for such a flying machine, adding: "But I will not tell you for what purpose I would use it." His order for the plane was part of an indictment of aviation progress which, he said, in the two years he has been gone in the antarctic has not been sufficient to produce a tri-motored ship better than the one in which he flew over the south pole.

"The three-engined plane" he said, "is only 50 per cent as efficient as the single motored ship. The public is no longer afraid to fly and it is now up to manufacturers and operators to improve design and decrease the cost per mile."

He prophesied that within three or four years aviation would be well under other forms of transportation in cost per minute of travel.

ROW OVER SMALL FEE ENDS FATALLY

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Danville Rowland, 21, Huntington Park, was mortally wounded tonight in a fight in a garage over a 25 cent fee asked for work he considered unsatisfactory on his automobile.

George Knoblock, garage owner, alleged to have plunged a screw driver into the youth's left lung, was arrested and booked on suspicion of murder.

Janette Ferguson, also of Huntington Park, Rowland's companion, caused Knoblock's arrest.

The girl said she and Rowland drove to Los Angeles to go to a show, and enroute the horn ceased to function. They drove into Knoblock's garage. Rowland objected to paying Knoblock because he believed the horn was not repaired properly. The two men grappled, Miss Ferguson said, and rolled about the floor. Knoblock eventually reaching a screw driver with which he stabbed Rowland.

Rowland, despite his wound, entered his automobile and drove several blocks with Miss Ferguson before slumping over the wheel dead.

government troops defending Nanning, capital of Kwangsi province. Four Americans, names unknown, were reported endangered by the opposing force.

Meanwhile, Kowlin was left in the rebel possession as the besieging government soldiers were off to prevent the fall of Nanning. Since July 21 Cantonese aviators had dropped bombs intermittently upon the town. These attacks were ineffective upon the rebels but a few civilians were killed and the servant quarters of the Baptist mission were damaged.

WINGED VICTOR FOR THE "ENTERPRISE"

Sailing true to her name, Harold Vanderbilt's small white-sparred sloop, The Enterprise (extreme left), captured the Astor Cup in this race for the four yachts aspiring to defend the America's Cup against the challenge of Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock V. The Enterprise has had three decisive victories out of six days' sailing and is said to have greatly improved since her first competition with the other aspirants.

OUTSIDER WINS IN AQUATIC MARATHON

TORONTO, Ont., Aug. 22.—(AP)—A distinct outsider, Margaret Ravor of Philadelphia, splashed her way to victory in the ten-mile aquatic marathon for women, opening event of the Canadian national exhibition today.

Finishing the waters of Lake Ontario much to her liking, Miss Ravor, always a contender, took the lead after eight miles and crossed the finish line nearly three minutes ahead of Mrs. Ruth Towse Goran of Toronto, former Denver girl, and with Ethel Herlie Gary of New York, an outstanding favorite to win the event. Mrs. Gary finished third, nearly 10 minutes behind the winner.

Miss Ravor swam the rectangular course in five hours, 31 minutes, 29 1-5 seconds to win first prize money of $5000. Mrs. Goran's time was 5:34:31 3-5 and Mrs. Gary's 5:51:15. Second place carried a cash award of $2,500 while Mrs. Gary's share of the prize money was $1000.

publican party adheres to the principle of majority rule," and added: "I am a republican."

Her democratic opponent, former Senator James Hamilton Lewis, is an avowed wet and has asked election on a platform calling for repeal of all national prohibition laws and putting all liquor regulation up to the states.

The party platform, like the senatorial candidate, was neither wet nor dry, stating merely that the party will abide by the vote on the referendum in November, asking three questions: shall the 13th amendment be repealed, shall the Volstead act be modified, and shall the state prohibition law be repealed.

Mrs. McCormick asserted that, both as a public officer and as a citizen, she stood for enforcement of all law in a way which would justify respect for all federal laws. She condemned enforcement which encroached on constitutional rights of citizens.

Receiver Asked For Warner's 2 Picture Firms

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Appointment of a receiver to administer the pending litigation for Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc., and Renwar, Inc., a holding company of the Warner concern, were asked in a petition filed today in the court of chancery here.

The suit was filed by Ira I. Nelson, of Boston, a stockholder of the Warner Brothers Pictures, who charges mismanagement on the part of the officers and alleges excessive prices have been paid for theatres and real estate. Renwar, Inc. the petition avers, bought the theatres and theater sites and sold them to Warner Brothers.

GARY MAN REVEALS LETTERS' MEANING

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—(AP)—The Daily News today quoted Frank Gross of Gary, Ind., as saying the names of Florida state officials found in the effects of Jack Zuta, slain gangster, were those of persons he (Gross) had planned to approach in connection with the projected establishment of a gambling house in Miami.

Gross was quoted by the News as saying he sent Benjamin Laube, a Gary attorney, to Miami to purchase a hotel to house the proposed gaming place, but the project fell through when his emissary was refused an audience with any of the officials.

Gross said, according to the News he had enlisted the financial backing of Zuta in the project and the papers and letters bearing on his plans were given the gangster for perusal. The officials named, Gross said, were totally unaware of the use of their names.

The letter given out by state attorney's offices have reported to be from Laube to Gross and told of futile efforts to secure audiences with Governor Doyle Carlton, Attorney General Fred H. Davis and State Senator John Watson of Dade county.

MAMER NOW AHEAD IN CHICAGO DERBY

BILLINGS, Mont., Aug. 22.—(AP)—With the main race and the many angling spurs of the Rocky Mountains safely passed, five Seattle-Chicago air derbyists tonight were resting at Billings in preparation for three more days of comparatively easy flying.

Nick Mamer, Spokane flier to whom the route is like a well marked trail, led the pack tonight in elapsed time. He led the flight into Spokane last night and was second into Billings tonight. John Blum, Seattle flier, is only three minutes behind.

Few untoward occurrences marked today's flight across the state. Floyd Keadle, Portland, went into a ground loop as he headed the procession into Butte and was an hour late in leaving. Neither he nor his passenger, Mrs. Edith Feltz was injured. One wing of the plane was slightly damaged.

Crossing the Crazy mountains, west of here, Bert Ruff, Seattle, who was following Mamer, climbed so high he lost his course. A storm came up. He circled it and landed here without mishap but with considerable damage to his time record. Keadle came in behind the storm and the three other pilots beat it in.

Whale Cruises With Taillight Tied on Behind

SHELTON, Wash., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Believed to be trailing a light buoy in its wake, the whale which entered the bay here today was presumably cruising along somewhere in Puget Sound tonight.

The whale, a 60 footer, was first seen thrashing around in shallow water at the head of the bay. The great animal was harpooned by a log driven and tied to a raft of logs, but when it began towing the raft around, it was shot several times with a high powered rifle.

M'KINNEY PLEA WILL BE FILED

Conspiracy Case Outlawed By Limitations Law, Lawyers Aver

leggers' association and the alliance the government charges was formed with the indicted prohibition officials for protection. Olmsted testified Hubbard was his "private secretary" whose duties included the disbursement of $85,000 for federal protection in 1925, 1926 and 1927 and that Olmsted himself never had made payments to anyone but McKinney.

The payments to the former assistant United States attorney began with a $3000 contribution to the gubernatorial campaign fund of Thomas P. Revelle, at that time McKinney's superior, Olmsted said, and continued in small amounts of $50 or $100 and a few bottles of gin until the first Olmsted liquor conspiracy trial in 1928.

Sullivan in cross examining Olmsted sought to show that McKinney's official acts were not affected by the alleged campaign fund contribution, which Olmsted had testified had been demanded of him under the representation that it was "federal insurance."

Planned to Trap Leading Citizens

During Olmsted's direct examination he testified he and his running associates planned a huge concert conspiracy to trap Seattle millionaires, including W. B. Boeing, airplane manufacturer, who bought liquor so that if the purported alliance between the liquor ring and the officials was discovered, the most prominent people in the city could also be drawn into the affair.

Olmsted corroborated the testimony of Hubbard that the whiskey importers' and distributors' association had been asked for a $6000 campaign fund for Senator Wesley L. Jones in 1924. Olmsted said he had left unable to contribute more than $3000 personally, when Hubbard told him about it, but that Hubbard had been told he could get the remainder from others in the ring.

Hubbard testified several days ago that he had given Lyle the $6000. Senator Jones, an outspoken dry and father of the strongest "vice and temperance" law against liquor violators, disclaimed any knowledge of this contribution. Olmsted said his first payment through Hubbard, for Lyle had been $250 to "pacify the dear old ladies of the W. C. T. U." Hubbard told him, he said, that Lyle was being pressed for contributions to the W. C. T. U. and he gave the money to Hubbard.

HITCH HIKER KILLS PORTLAND LAWYER

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 22.—(AP)—Charles V. Wigfall, 35, Portland attorney, died tonight from bullet wounds inflicted when a man he had given a ride attempted to rob him. A blood transfusion was performed in an effort to save him, but he died about an hour later. His assailant had not been captured late tonight.

Wigfall was returning from a visit to Vancouver, Wash., early Thursday night. He stopped to pick up a pedestrian, as he was in the habit of doing, and offered him a ride to Portland. The man entered the car and asked Wigfall for the time. Wigfall pulled out his watch and the man seized it and attempted to leap from the car.

Wigfall grappled with him. The man wrenched himself loose, pulled a gun and fired. Wigfall was able to drive his car to his home and friends took him to the hospital.

Wigfall was a graduate of Yale and Columbia universities. His parents live in Orlando, Fla.

The bullet that caused Wigfall's death was fired from a .33 calibre revolver. It passed through his body near the heart. A caddy today found a .33 calibre revolver near the Peninsula golf course. It had one empty shell.

MULTIPLE THEFTS OF AUTOS CHARGED

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 22.—(AP)—Police interrupted today the travels of Earl Munday, Memphis, Tenn., youth, whom they accused of stealing motor cars for interstate passenger business.

Police quoted him as outlining his recent history as follows: He stole a motor car in Denver, obtained some pay passengers and drove them to Memphis, there he sold the car for $50, then a man for $10 to re-steal it, and sold it again for $50. He then stole another car and obtained paying passengers to Kansas City. Here he intended to steal a car and take a "pay load" to the Pacific coast.

When Munday attempted to sell his present machine to a used car dealer, however, the dealer became suspicious and called police.

Bits of Personal News Gleaned About Interesting People

"Wheat in the Rickreal and Oak Grove district is turning out better than growers had anticipated," said C. E. Peterson, farmer from that district. The price is the only thing that is causing the growers trouble, according to Mr. Peterson. "I talked to a Kansas farmer recently who said that there was more wheat there this year than ever before, despite reports of crop failure," said Peterson.

Farmers and warehouse men are rushing wheat into storage as rapidly as possible in fear of rain. The Cherry City warehouse at Derry is going on a 24 hour basis and the grain is being brought in constantly. Wheat is of good quality this year and heavy yields have been reported, some running as high as 60 and 65 bushels to the acre.
