

Silverton Juniors to Play Senators Here at 5:15 Today

FAST CONTEST IS PREDICTED

Solons Will be shy Regular Moundsman; Kids may Put up Strong bid

Just how American Legion junior baseball stacks up against the semi-pro variety which prevails in this part of the United States will be demonstrated this afternoon at 5:15 o'clock on the field here when the Silverton Juniors will play the Senators.

Solons two weeks ago after winning the northwest junior championship the Silverton boys cleaned up on a Baker team, and before taking the Oregon crown they had won handsily from a crew of Twilight League stars here; but they are facing a different test today, for the Senators are one of the strongest semi-pro aggregations in the state.

Manager "Frisco" Edwards of the Senators, who is also coach of the Silverton team, says his Senators will have a hard time to show up the youngsters, with the idea of determining just what margin of difference there is between the two classes of ball.

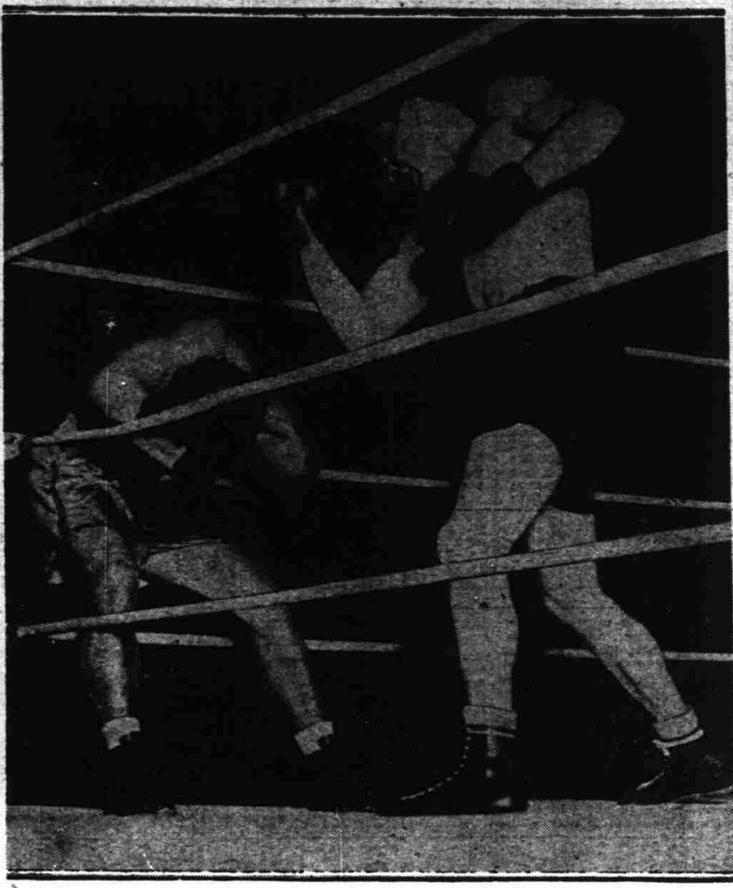

At the same time "Frisco" himself will be in a ticklish position, because through coaching the Silverton boys he knows their weaknesses at bat, yet won't feel like taking advantage of that information when he calls for high ones inside and low ones outside.

Facing a two-game series at Coquille Sunday and Monday, Edwards will save the best of his men and will also use Russell and Jones as little as possible this afternoon, depending largely on Schnell, pitcher for the American Legion twilight team, for most of the mound work.

And Schnell was hit hard by the juniors in the game here a month ago, so the Solons will have to watch out for the Silverton boys.

The Silverton team will be intact with the same lineup which defeated the Washington and Idaho champions for the northwest title and forced Long Beach into extra innings at Colorado Springs, losing only on the "breaks." Lefty Schwab who pitched Silverton to those victories as well as to the Oregon state championship, will be on the mound.

CONDUCTOR, FIRED, MURDERS SUPERIOR SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—(AP)—J. Donahin, discharged street car conductor, shot and killed Byron Gunn, superintendent who had discharged him, in the car barn here late today and then killed himself.

Donahin, witnesses said, ignored greetings of his former coworkers as he walked into the barn. A few seconds after he entered the superintendent's office six shots were heard.

A score of employees rushed into the office, Donahin and Gunn lay on the floor dead. Five shots had been fired into the superintendent's body.

Police said Donahin was apparently deranged mentally by his discharge from the Market street railway a few days ago. Railway officials said he was discharged for drunkenness.

Miniature Golf to aid Real Thing, is Verdict Of one Sports Observer

On the Sidelines By BRIAN BELL

Bobby Jones has taken his pen in hand to write of golf for the August issue of "The Rotarian," drawing on the wealth of his experience for some interesting comment.

The champion golfer is not a member of the Rotary club of Atlanta, but only because the club is restricted to one member from each profession and business and the lawyer classification was filled long ago.

If Robert Tyre should be called upon to address the Rotary club of Atlanta, he could take a tip from Jack Dempsey. The Mansa Mauler was the guest of honor at the Salt Lake City Rotary club, after he won the world's championship, and called on for a speech, said:

"I can't make a speech, but I'll tell you what I'll do. I'll fight any man in the room."

Bob can offer to play any Rotarian a round of golf.

The man who holds three of the available major championships says all open championships tell much the same story, and he suggests that if any play championship and business and the lawyer classification was filled long ago.

"The whole thing works out about the same year after year and it goes something like this: 'At the start of the first round all are nervous and uncertain. They begin by feeling their way along, ready to throw away strokes or to pick them up as the first breaks of luck decide. Some get off on the right foot and turn in good scores—others are unable to find themselves and they finish a good bit higher."

"Then the second round and some of those who began well continue in more or less the same vein, but some who struggled around in 77 or 78 the first day, now relieved of the strain to some extent, begin to crack off 68's and 70's."

"Starting the last day when, under both American and Royal and Ancient rules, 36 holes are to be played, there are always left as possible winners three kinds of players: the leaders, who have done two good rounds; those only a few strokes behind who have done a bad round and a good one, and a few just within striking distance, who have done two moderately good rounds."

"At this state something usually happens. The leaders can stand the strain no longer. They almost always blow up some time during the last day; and the men behind them, or at least some one, two or three of them with nothing on their minds but their eyes, begin to play golf and close up the gap."

"It is always a lot easier to pile a 70 on top of two 74's than it is to add a 72 to two 70's. And Defender, Mrs. Hill Wins Again KANSAS CITY, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Sub par golf was stroked again today by Mrs. O. S. Hill of Kansas City as she won her quarter-finals match in defense of her women's western golf title.

The breaks of the game helped the champion at crucial moments in subduing the western open titleholder, Mrs. Lee Mida, Chicago, 3 and 2.

In the semi-finals tomorrow Mrs. Hill will have as opponent Miss Dorothy Page, Madison, Wis., who eliminated another golf luminary, Miss Virginia van Wie, Chicago, 2 and 1 in a gruelling match.

Mrs. Gregg Lifer, Los Angeles, the only California golfer in the tournament, had the biggest advantage of the day, a 4 and 3 margin over Miss Betty Bruen, Kansas City and tomorrow meets Mrs. G. W. Tyson, Kansas City, who won from Miss Florence Beebe, Chicago, one up.

Mrs. Hill, runner-up to Mrs. Hill in the finals a year ago, was forced to shoot three under par on the first nine to gain a two hole advantage over the youthful Kansas Citian and maintain a fast pace on the six holes played on the last nine.

ACE HUDKINS AND McVEY SUSPENDED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 28.—(AP)—Ace Hudkins, called "Nebraska Wildcat," now of Los Angeles, and Jack McVey, negro middleweight of New York, were indefinitely suspended by the state athletic commission today for taking part in an unsatisfactory fight in Los Angeles last Tuesday night.

Witnesses of the fight, called before the commissioners, described it as "disgraceful."

The fighters' purses were forfeited by the state. Hudkins' share had amounted to $3,500 while McVey was to have received around $1,500.

The bout was stopped in the ninth round by Lieut. Jack Kennedy and declared no contest.

so the gap crosses and the open championship becomes open again to every competitor who has not given away his club."

CURT COMMENTS

Maybe, perhaps you think the Silverton junior boys won't make it interesting for the Senators tonight. Maybe you who are planning to attend are arranging for a refueling team, figuring it will be an endurance sitting contest. Maybe.

It's a fact that 16 year old kids aren't as finished ball players as regular semi-pros, many of whom have played professional ball or could step into it any time they chose.

The difference is largely one of experience and confidence, however. Finished ball players start at the crack of the bat instinctively knowing where the pellet is going; most youngsters get started a split second later, and it makes a big difference.

That's the fielding margin—there's a bigger one, of course, in pitching and hitting. Orville Schwab, spectacular twirler among kids of his own age, wasn't quite so hot even in high school ball here, against kids a few years older. But he was better this summer than last, and the improvement may have come after the high school season was over.

The difference in hitting is mostly judgment and of course coordination.

But these boys are northwest champions and as good as the teams now battling for national honors. They may put up a pretty decent fight. At any rate it will be worth seeing.

What's Tom Turner gone and done now? Bought him a new third baseman whose record sounds pretty good, and a pitcher cast off by two other Coast league clubs in rapid succession.

The Ducks need pitchers—real ones. We saw Ortmann go in there and win a game recently, but we could tell he was stale and listless—too much work, and that goes for the two other moundsmen who occasionally win. We doubt if Hubbell will do them much good.

But Tom says he'll use Sammy Hale at third base and move Robertson over to short, displacing Johnson. It's true that will probably build up the hitting power, but this Johnson is a sweet fielder. Figures in lots of double plays, and they're worth their weight in hits any day. And he seems to be just hitting his stride at bat.

There are your reinforcements. Maybe "Maybe" comes in for a lot of appropriate use in this sports business.

Pendleton roundup is on.

YOUTHS DEFEAT TILDEN-HUNTER

Lott and Doeg win; big Bill Worn out From Going To Partner's aid

BROOKLINE, Aug. 28.—(AP)—History repeated itself here today when hard-riding George Lott and Johnny Doeg, defending champions in the national doubles tennis tourney, gained the final round again by defeating those wise old veterans, Big Bill Tilden and Francis T. Hunter, in a sparkling five-set match, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2, 9-11, 6-2.

Tilden used up most of his stamina in rushing to Hunter's rescue during the first four sets and when the final rolled around he was so tired the champions blasted both of his services and clinched the victory early.

Lott and Doeg must upset Johnny Van Ryn and Wilmer Allison, Davis cup doubles team, on Saturday to retain their title, for those Wimbledon champions

TURNER BUYS TWO TO BOLSTER DUCKS

PORTLAND, Aug. 28.—(AP)—In an effort to bolster his next to cellar position baseball team, Thomas L. Turner, Portland ball club president, today announced the outright purchase for $7500 of Sammy Hale, veteran big league third baseman from the St. Louis Browns, and Wilbert Hubbell, right handed pitcher from the Seattle Indians.

Turner said both players would report for duty with the Portland Beavers immediately.

Hale played with Portland in 1923 and was sold to the Athletics at the close of that season. The veteran led the Pacific coast league in hitting during his stay here. Gene Robertson, Beaver third baseman, will be transferred to short stop, Turner said.

Though no price for Hubbell was announced, it was believed he was bought at the waiver price. William H. Klepper, Seattle president, purchased Hubbell from the Mission Reds last spring.
