E. P. McNeer has a potato
"farm" in the Geiser Addition that is proving a mar-vel to behold. In the blooming season Mr. McNeer dug 15 hills. These yielded 74 pounds of potatoes. This week Mr. McNeer dug a few more hills. One hill alone yielded ten and a half pounds. The largest potato was 21 ounces. Seemingly there are no small ones. They are all exceptionally smooth and of excellent

The patch is only 16 by 28 feet and Mr. McNeer is keeping account of the entire yield. He credits the fine crop to the fact that he sowed vetch in the plot last year and turned it under.

OAK GROVE, Sept. 4. - Mr. and Mrs. J. Neiderhuser enter- those who are being deprived of Monmouth over the week end.

Announcement made this week hat the Lerner stores corporation selling women's apparel has signed a 2-year lease on property in Eugene at a consideration said to approximate $160,000, is of interest here. That corporation announced some weeks ago that it would come into the Salem territory, and that it had leased the building now occupied by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company from A. A. Keene, local jeweler. The corporation will establish Oregon headquarters in Portland, and has leased property there but has not as yet started operations in this state. It is not probable either the Salem or Eugene stores will be opened until the Portland one is under way. The telephone company will be out of its quarters on Liberty street some time in April, according to present plans, and the eastern concern may start remodeling any time after that. Mr. Keene has no information yet as to when the corporation will open the store here.
